

Hamlin Paces Southern Oregon Junior Golf Meet; Yingst Scores Hole-in-One

Tom Hamlin and Mike Monroe, Medford, and Peter Geersten, Eugene, were the pace setters and John Yingst, Crescent City, Calif., provided the highlight of the day with a hole-in-one Monday in the opening round of the Southern Oregon Junior Golf championships at Rogue Valley Country club.

Hamlin recorded a one over par 34-39-73 to lead the entire field of 76 boys and girls as well as the junior division. In his own classification he had a seven stroke lead over Jack Volsted, Portland Golf club, 44-36-80 and DeRoss Kincaid, Cottage Grove, 43-37-80.

Mike Monroe and Geersten tied with the second best scores of the day for a two-stroke edge over their nearest rival in the boys division. Each recorded scores of 40-38-78. After them came John Kerr, Medford, 40-40-80.

Defending taltist Bob Babica, Eugene, Calif., headed pee wee entrants with 43-45-88, one stroke better than Richie Knight, Medford, who had 48-41-89.

Fam Stacey, Medford, with 44-46-90, led the junior girls division and all 19 girl participants in the tournament. She was seven strokes better than the next feminine score. Treasure Sullivan, Ashland, was girls group leader with 49-49-97, followed by Sue Lance, Medford, with 115. Joy Rubenstein was second to Miss Stacey among junior girls with 103.

Yingst got his ace on the 209-yard No. 15 hole. It was a fine shot and not a fluke. He used a No. 2 iron. The Crescent City player had an 81 for his round, the same as was recorded by Phil Mongrain and Tony Monroe, Medford.

The 36-hole tournament concluded with another 18 holes of medal play today. There were 13 players yesterday in the junior division, and 33 in the boys class. Twenty peewees participated. Five girls were entered in each of the feminine divisions.

Larry Hiron, Eugene, boys class champ in the SO last year is in the junior competition this time. He shot an 84 to rank eighth yesterday. Pee wee entrants in club de Mike Soran, Klamath Falls, the state match play champion. He was among three tied for fourth yesterday with 98.

Jon Arnett To Appear At Portland

Portland—(Special)—"Before this fellow is through, he'll take his place with Steve Van Buren, Red Grange, Beattie Feathers, Ollie Matson and Hugh McElhenry among the greatest runners in the history of the league."

That's the word circulating around the National Football League about the exciting new rookie prospect of the Los Angeles Rams, Jon Arnett, who already has the stamp of greatness on him.

Arnett was the Rams' first draft choice last year and the first choice in the league following the bonus pick. He will make his pro debut this year and one of his first appearances will be when the Rams play the Chicago Cardinals at Multnomah stadium Saturday night, Aug. 31.

The stadium turf will not be unfamiliar to this flashy former USC All-American, for he personally ruined a good Oregon team in 1954 when he scored all 28 points for the Trojans—four touchdowns and four extra points.

Arnett was one of the greatest open-field runners in USC history and ranks second among all Trojan ball carriers, although his playing time in his senior year was restricted to five games by Coast conference edict.

Nevertheless, he gained 674 yards in 99 carries, boosting his three-year total to 1898 yards. Exceptional speed coupled with amazing balance are the factors which contribute to Arnett's ability to make potential tacklers miss the target.

His 1956 record indicates his great consistency as a ball carrier. He gained 81 yards against Texas, 88 yards against Oregon State, 182 against Wisconsin, 157 against Washington and 117 against Stanford.

In the 1955 Rose Bowl game against Ohio State he picked up 123 yards in 9 carries for a fabulous average of 12.5 a try. He made most All-American teams that year.

Arnett was also an outstanding broad jumper on the USC track team and ran a 9.9 lap in the 400-yard relay. Arnett will add strength to an already powerful group of Ram runners which includes Tank Younger, Joe Marconi, Ron Waller and Tommy Wilson.

The game between the Rams and Cardinals is eliciting wide interest, as indicated by the advance ticket sale reported by Oregon Sports Attractions. Reserved seats are available by mail throughout OSA headquarters, 711 Exchange building.

RUN UP THE DISTRESS SIGNAL — With his diaper sagging perilously, this youngster and his parents seem to be oblivious to the impending crisis as they climb a hill in Tallahassee, Fla. to watch a local soap box derby. Photographer Russ Yoder of Tallahassee got the candid shot but was too fascinated with the scene to get the little family identified.

Bat Average Shows Rank

San Francisco — (Special)—There are 19 Pacific Coast League regulars batting .300 or better and their distribution pretty well reflects the league standings.

The league leading San Francisco Seals have five of the charmed figure hitters and three of the clubs have only a single .300 stroker. Those three are Los Angeles, Portland and Sacramento, the residents of the last three spots in the standings.

San Diego, making a strong bid for first place, has four .300 hitters, including the league leader, Rudy Regalado, who is clipping the ball at a .375 pace.

Regalado's hold on the top batting spot also appears to be a solid one since he is 26 points ahead of Ed Mickelson of Portland, second in line with .349.

Bill Cauffman of Hollywood has collected 118 hits, tops in the loop, and Steve Bilko, Los Angeles' bruising first baseman, boasts 27 home runs for leadership in that department.

Frank Kellert of San Francisco and Joe Taylor or Seattle lead the loop with 65 runs batted in apiece.

Oakland, Calif.—(Special)—John J. Lynch, 89, former vice president of plant and engineering of the Postal Telegraph Co., which merged with the Western Union Telegraph Co. in 1943, died Saturday.

Dan G. Murphy, Eugene, was winner in the outdoor pistol tournament held yesterday by the Medford Rifle and Pistol club. His score of 1061 placed him in the top spot by only one point ahead of Rufus Eaton, also of Eugene, who was winning in the first four matches but went down in the National match course center fire.

California May Lose Games If Chinese Not Admitted

Washington — (Special)—The State department has under "active consideration" a request that Red Chinese athletes be allowed to participate in the 1960 Olympic Winter games in California.

Unless some such arrangement is made, the site may be switched to Innsbruck, Austria, which has made a strong pitch for the games.

Arrangements for the 1960 games have been complicated by U.S. restrictions on American travel to Communist countries and on admission of persons from those countries to the U.S. California may lose the Winter games, already officially awarded to Squaw Valley, unless the bars are lowered for Red Chinese athletes.

Although not recognized by the U.S., Red China is a member of the International Olympic committee which chooses the sites for the games.

State Department Press Officer Lincoln White said the department had been requested by the California Olympics Organizing committee to admit participants from all nations in good standings with the IOC.

Without some such arrangement is made, the site may be switched to Innsbruck, Austria, which has made a strong pitch for the games.

Veteran Pros Favored In PGA Dayton Meet

By LEO H. PETERSEN, United Press Sports Editor. Dayton, Ohio — The Professional Golfers Assn. Tournament begins Wednesday with a new format, but with the same old pro rated as the ones to beat.

Although they lowered the bars to let in their most promising newcomers, it still was the established players like Doug Ford and Sammy Snead in the favored roles.

The early line from the odds-makers, a day before the five-day match play grind starts, had Ford favored at 5-1. But right behind him came Snead, defending champion, Jackie Burke and Walter Burkemo, who won it in 1953, at 10-1.

Oldtimers Favored There weren't any of the newcomers in the list of favorites. For behind those four came Ted Kroll, who lost to Burke in last year's final and who holds the present world's championship, and veterans Ed Furgol, and former runner-up Johnny Palmer at 15-1. U.S. Open champion Dick Mayer was no better than a 20-1 shot—along with Chick Harbert, another former PGA winner, and Dow Finsterwald.

Finsterwald is one of those who got in the tournament because the PGA lowered its bars. It used to be that no pro could compete in this tournament unless he had been a PGA member for five years. But because of declining attendance, and golfers make their living on gate receipts, the PGA voted to allow its most promising youngsters to compete on special invitation.

Littler Included That still left on the sidelines such promising newcomers as George Bayer, winner of last week's Canadian Open.

Lambert-Hammond Team Takes Mixed Two-Ball Links Laurels

Deane Lambert and Mrs. Maxine Hammond led a 79 low gross on Sunday to lead a field of 31 pairs in the mixed two-ball golf tournament at Rogue Valley Country club.

George Stacey and Mrs. Rose Bunch were second low gross with an 87.

Lee Flink and Mrs. Ed Gordon were low net with a 70 and Bob Morris and Mrs. Reese Alexander followed with a 75. Dr. William Miller and Mrs. Bob Little were third low with a 76.

High gross prize went to Floyd Somers and Mrs. Al Williams for a 129. High net were Jim Dunlevy and Mrs. Robert DeLorme with a 91.

Wendell Wissler was low gross with an even par 72 in Saturday ball sweepstakes. Tom MacLeod was low net with 65 and Charles Nicholson and Al Athens knotted for second low with 68. Dunlevy won blind bogey with an 82 net.

Saints Beat Methodists With 11-8 Triumph Here Latter Day Saints forged ahead of the Methodists 11 to 8 during last night's church softball league games in Medford.

St. Peter's Lutheran followed by winning a forfeit from Phoenix Presbyterians.
