

Fifteen Girls To Seek Miss U.S.A. Title at Pageant

Long Beach, Calif. — Fifteen girls representing the cream of American beauty were selected Tuesday night to vie for the title of Miss United States of America in the annual Miss Universe beauty pageant.

It took judges more than two hours to narrow a field of 44 American beauties down to the 15 finalists. The finals for the Miss USA title will be held to-night.

The finalists are Miss Arkansas, Helen Elizabeth Garrett, 19, of West Memphis; Miss California, Peggy Jacobson, 18, of Downey; Miss Illinois, Marianne Goba, 18, of Chicago; Miss Iowa, Judith Ann Hall, 20, of Council Bluffs; Miss Maryland, Leona Gage, 21, of Glen Burnie; Miss Massachusetts, Sandra Ramsey, 18, of Haverhill.

Miss Nebraska, Carolyn McGinn, 16, of Sidney; Miss Nevada, Joan Adams, 22, of Las Vegas; Miss New York, Anita Pelley, 18, of the Bronx; Miss Ohio, Dorothy Gabriel, 20, of Cleveland; Miss South Carolina, Jean Smith, 18, of Newberry; Miss Texas, Gloria Hunt, 20, of Corpus Christi; Miss Utah, Charlotte Crawford, 20, of Salt Lake City; Miss Washington, Diana Schaff, 16, of Bellevue; and Miss Virginia, Ruth Marie Parr, 18, of Saint Albans.

Miss USA following her selection tonight will be entered in the Miss Universe finals Friday against the top 15 international entrants.

Atomic Test Delayed 24 Hours

Las Vegas, Nev. — The Atomic Energy Commission has postponed for 24 hours firing of the eighth nuclear device of the summer series because of "technical and operational difficulties."

The AEC Tuesday night scheduled the shot for 5:30 a.m. (PST) Thursday. The blast, dubbed "Owens," is expected to equal nearly 6,000 tons of TNT. Meanwhile, the AEC revealed that heavy fallout on the Nevada test site from Monday's "Diablo" test prevented scientists from "recovering" radioactive soil from around an underground shelter.

The shelter, 2,000 yards from ground zero, was manned by more than a dozen scientists during the test. The AEC said radiation levels were so heavy that the planned experiment of removing the soil with bulldozers would be carried out later when the area becomes safe for access.

Showgirl Misses $128,000 Question

New York — Showgirl Barbara Hall went home with a $64,000 Tuesday night from the TV quiz show, "The $64,000 Question," after failing to unscramble the existing six signatures of William Shakespeare.

Hall was the second person to try for as much as $128,000.

Alan Villiers, who commanded the Mayflower II on its recent trip across the Atlantic, parlayed his earnings to $16,000 in the Seven Seas category.

Miss Hall, a willowy brunette, raced through the first four parts of her question but she took only two brief looks at the six scrawled signatures and said she had "no idea" which was one of the three attached to Shakespeare's will and what documents the others were taken from.

Miss Hall was then presented with a check for $64,000 she had won previously on the $64,000 plateau.

Villiers will return to the program next Tuesday night.

Judges for Contest Are Announced Here

Judges for the Medford contest of the OK Rubber Welders nation-wide contest, "Re-tire for Life," have been named, according to Richard Fanger, operator of the local store.

Judges are Tom McCleod, manager of radio station KJJC; June Hughes, of station KJED, and Winn Marks, of station KBOY. The three winning entries from this area will be submitted to a national board of judges who will select the grand winner. The grand winner will receive new tires for the rest of his life, Fanger said.

Education has been compulsory in Chile since 1920.
