

Brooklyn Threatens To Grab Leadership in National Loop

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer

The Brooklyn Dodgers, a re-sticking pins in the World Series ball game of all the contenders today and threatening to take over the National League pennant party themselves.

Wait! Astor's crew has been busy killing off the contenders since the All-Star break. The Dodgers resumed play by defeating Cincinnati twice, then they swept a two-game series with Milwaukee.

And Tuesday night they topped the high-flying Cardinals, 7-5, for their fifth victory in a row as they climbed within a game of the lead.

Duke Snider has been the Dodgers' chief hatchman with four home runs in the last five games. He blasted his 20th of the season with one on in the fifth off Lindy McDaniel to highlight a four-run rally that helped reliever Carl Erskine to his third victory. Gil Hodges also homered for Brooklyn.

NL Race Tightens

The Brooklyn triumph tightened the National League race so that only one game separated the first four clubs. Milwaukee defeated first-place Philadelphia 6-2, and the Giants beat the Red Sox, 6-1. Pittsburgh topped Chicago, 5-4, in the completion of a game suspended June 16, then beat the Cubs, 5-3, in a regularly scheduled contest.

The Yankees increased their American League lead to four games with a 10-4 triumph over the Tigers in 10 innings; Baltimore licked the White Sox, 3-1; Boston edged Kansas City, 4-3, and Cleveland defeated Washington, 9-3.

Home runs by Hank Aaron and Del Crandall helped Warren Spahn gain his 10th victory at the expense of the Phillies although the veteran southpaw also needed a brilliant ninth-inning catch by right fielder Andy Pafko with the bases full. Harvey Haddix was the loser.

Ruben Gomez of the Giants set down the Redlegs on six hits as Daryl Spencer hit a pair of homers for New York and Eddie Bressoud added another. Hal Jeffcoat started for the Red Sox and gave up eight of the Giants' 13 hits. Willie Mays collected four of them.

Frank Thomas fattened up on Chicago's pitching in both Pirate victories. Thomas' 13th homer of the year in the seventh inning won the suspended game which was resumed with the score tied 4-4 in the seventh. Then, in the regular game, Thomas doubled home two runs in a three-run seventh and added a single in a two-run eighth as Bob Friend went the distance for his seventh victory.

Three-Way Tie In International
By UNITED PRESS
No one seems to know who's going where in the International league.
The race for the pennant, which only a few weeks ago looked like a run-away for the Richmond Virginians, today is in a three-way tie with the last-place club only 11 lengths behind the leaders.

Toronto edged Buffalo, 3-2, Tuesday night to move into a first place tie with the Bisons and Richmond. The Virginians, meanwhile, blew a two-run ninth inning lead to Miami, 5-4. In other games, Montreal moved out of the cellar with a 4-1 victory over Rochester and Havana slipped past Columbus, 4-3.

Tacoma — Bill Rose, the Oregon tennis champion, won his match in the Pacific Northwest championships Tuesday by defeating Gordie Martin of Seattle, 6-1, 6-2.

Score Can Begin Work

Cleveland — Eager Herb Score, who hasn't touched a baseball in more than two months, finally got the green light to begin working out with Cleveland Thursday and the young fast-baller says he'll be out there with bells on.

Dr. Charles Thomas, the eye specialist who has been treating Score since he was felled by a batted ball May 7, told the 24-year-old left-hander he can start throwing Thursday.

But Thomas pointed out Score will not be able to return to the mound for another month or six weeks.

Steve Bilko Sparks Angels To Triumph

By JIM HEALY
United Press Sports Writer
Steve Bilko did everything but empty the water bucket and carry out the bats Tuesday night as the Los Angeles Angels snatched Vancouver to the tune of 10-4.

The loss put San Diego in a tie for second place, with the Mounties. The Pads, pitted against Hollywood this week, did not play.

Bilko batted in six of the Angel runs with two home runs and a single. The first round-tripper in the second inning, brought in three runs and the other, in the sixth, brought in another two. Earlier in the same frame he clouted a single into left field that brought in another tally.

Jim Fridley also homered for the Angels in the first and Joe Frazier, put one out of the park for Vancouver with one on. Only The Second

It was Los Angeles' second win over the Mounties in 11 games this season. Bill George (3-1) got the win; Charlie Beamon (7-7) the loss.

In other games, San Francisco rolled out its let's-beat-Portland bandwagon, dumping the Beavers 7-3. It was the eighth straight win by the league leaders over seventh place Portland. Sacramento downed Seattle, 1-0 in the only other game.

The Beavers put up a close fight until Bill Renna uncorked a grand-slam home run in the sixth that broke the game wide open.

Frank Carswell homered in the sixth for two Beaver runs. The other came earlier when George Freese doubled in Luis Marquez.

Prout Wins
The Seals collected runs in the fourth and fifth innings. Bill Prout 18-year-old Seal warber, collected the win, his second against one loss. John Carmichael, (6-9), was the loser.

The Solons, still ambling along in last place, downed Seattle behind the three hit pitching of winner Bud Watkins.

The only run was scored when Artie Wilson tripled in the opening frame and scored on Jim Westlake's single. Loser Bud Poebelian gave up nine hits. In the ninth first baseman Jim Westlake was tossed out after
