

Appointments To 3 Interim Groups Made by Governor

Salem — Public appointments to legislative interim committees to study Oregon's complex government by boards and commissions, qualification of coroners and judicial administration were announced today by Gov. Robert D. Holmes.

Streamlining of state government will be studied by the committee to which the governor named James Schick, Forest Grove attorney; Charles McKinley, political science professor at Reed College; Dr. Walter Shumacher, professor of political science at the University of Oregon; and C. Richard Neely, La Grande attorney.

Studying the qualifications for county coroners in Oregon will be Dr. Arch W. Diack, Portland physician; T. Lester Johnson, Sherman county district attorney; Fred S. Buell, Springfield representative of the Oregon Coroners Association; and Richard N. O'Brien, Walla Walla county sheriff.

Twelve public members were named by the governor to the interim committee on judicial administration. They are Avery Thompson, Roseburg, Douglas county district attorney; John O. Nichols, Salem, assistant attorney general; James Goodwin, Oregon City attorney; and Clyde Snider, Nysa attorney.

Eugene Professor Named

Keith Wilson, Joseph, district attorney for Walla Walla county; Willis A. West, Portland attorney; David C. Shaw, Eugene, law professor at the University of Oregon; Alfred F. Condey, Klamath Falls, railroad employee and union leader; Mrs. Cecile S. Oliver, Portland teacher; and L. F. Van Dusen, Astoria businessman.

Asiatic Flu Cases Aboard MSTs Vessel

Seattle — A Military Sea Transportation Service ship from the Far East with 45 ambulatory cases of Asiatic influenza aboard docked here Thursday, the Navy said.

Lt. Cmdr. R. E. Falcone, MSTs information officer, said the vessel had picked up its 1594 passengers in Korea and Japan.

Public Health Service officers said they would board the General W. A. Mann as soon as it docked and would clear the vessel before the patients were removed.

HAD ENOUGH

Chester, Ill. — Lonnie S. Porter Jr., Nashville, Tenn., truck driver, escaped injury when his truck and an auto collided near here. A St. Louis, Mo., man was killed and three persons were injured. Porter started out later in the day with another truck. It overturned down an embankment after hitting a patch of slick highway. Porter again was uninjured, but he gave up driving for the day.

AEC Discounts Story Of Gag Credentials Presented by Writer

Las Vegas — The Atomic Energy Commission has labeled as "ridiculous" a reporter's claim that he entered the atomic test grounds in Nevada to witness Monday's "Diablo" shot by showing gag credentials including one card good for a free drink at a Las Vegas bar.

Reporter Pat Michaels, of the Orange County News Service and radio station KWIV in Santa Ana, Calif., Wednesday said he got past security guards at Camp Mercury by showing the free drink card, another which certified he was a back seat driver and several personal cards. He said he also was not questioned about a satchel he carried into the area.

Lt. Col. William R. Hunter, director of the AEC's test information office, said Michaels last week requested to witness the test and his credentials were checked and cleared. Hunter said the reporter's name was placed on a list of authorized news media observers.

"When Michaels arrived at the test site he was issued his badge at my request," Hunter said. "He together with all other news observers were under security escort every minute on the test site."

Hunter said Michaels was not questioned about his brief case because all authorized newsmen are permitted to carry items necessary to do their work on News Nob in the test area.

BIGGEST LOADSPACE

— NO EXTRA COST!

'57 FORD STYLESIDE—so wide most other pickup bodies would fit inside!

One more reason why FORD TRUCKS COST LESS

You get 23% extra loadspace in a Ford Styleside pickup body at no extra cost. That's 23% more loadspace than the next biggest competitive pickup... up to 41% more than the rest!

The picture speaks for itself. It's easy to see how Ford's extra-wide body can save you time, save you trips. And that's only one of the many ways you'll save with a '57 Ford pickup. First cost is low, resale value is high. Ford's famous Short Stroke power—Six or V-8—means low operating costs and a 10-million-truck research study proves Ford trucks last longer.

There's a big dividend in comfort, too! Ford's all-new Driverized cab and new chassis suspension give you a ride that's more like a passenger car than a truck. Here's a pickup you'll be happy to use for pleasure as well as for work!

Let us show you all the "Cost Less" advantages of Ford's new Styleside Pickup!
