Church Ceremony Marries Miss Harris, Merrill Hval

An event of Sunday afternoon, July 14, was the wedding of Miss Sue Harris to Merrill Hval, Portland. The bride is the elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester D. Harris, 707 South Oakdale avenue, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George Hval, Portland.

Dr. D. Kirkland West officiated for the double-ring ceremony, held at First Presbyterian church. Mr. Harris gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride wore a gown of white lace and tulle over ice blue satin with fingertip veil falling from a cap of white and pale blue sequins. The veil and cap were loaned by Mrs. Tony Vlastilica. She carried a bouquet of red roses and stephanotis on a white Bible.

Miss Sally Harris, maid-of-honor for her sister, wore a princess style dress of pale blue chrysolette and carried pink chrysanthemum s. Bridesmaids and matrons were Miss Mary Kay Harris, younger sister of the bride, Miss Joaquina Hillstrom, San Francisco, Miss Lois Stunkard, Astoria, Ore.; Mrs. Robert Swindler, Medford and Mrs. Tony Vlastilica who is now in Grants Pass after spending the past three years in Italy. Their frocks were also of blue chrysolette and their bouquets of pink chrysanthemums.

Miss Marcia Beeler, cousin of the bride, lighted the candles. Her dress matched those worn by the bridesmaids, but was of a deeper shade of blue.

Gary Hval was best man for his brother and ushers were Leo Hval, Ralph Johnson, Richard Bestone, Peter Lukich and Ed Hval.

Miss Priscilla West was at the church organ, and Otis Swisher sang. The church decorations were of white gladiolus.

A garden reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Howard Beeler, Mrs. Luther Harris, Lamont, Wash., Mrs. Murray Anderson, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Charles V. Herman, Miss Meta Jean Frink and Miss Johnna Pond poured and served. Mrs. Kenneth Phillips took charge of the guest book. The wedding cake was cut with an heirloom knife belonging to Mrs. W. J. Warner and which has been used at more than 70 weddings.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Harris wore a pink cotton sheath dress with white accessories and a white carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a crepe afternoon frock of medium blue worn with white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Luther Harris, Lamont, Wash., and their granddaughter, Judy Berg, Troy, Ida.; Mr. and Mrs. Murray M. Anderson, Dr. and Mrs. John Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Vlastilica, Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Niles and family, Klamath Falls; Miss Lucy Lenz, Baker, Ore.; Mrs. Elmer Klein, Aumsville, Ore.; Mrs. J. M. Anderson, Mrs. William Hezel and Charles Learmonth, Seattle; Miss Coleen Luebke, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bestone, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lukich, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hval, Miss Deanna Crosby, the bridegroom's parents and his brothers, Ronald, Leo and Gary, all of Portland.

Mr. Hval and his bride are spending their honeymoon in California and will make their home at 811 Northeast 102nd street, Portland. The bride, who was graduated from Oregon State college after attending Medford High school, was employed as a commercial teacher at Reynolds High school, Portland, last year. She is a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority.

Mr. Hval attended Portland State college and the University of Oregon and is employed by Mutual Insurance company of New York.

Before the wedding, the bride-elect was honored at a number of parties. Prior to the closing of her school in Portland, members of the faculty and Girls' league presented her with a gift. Mrs. E. L. Hunter was hostess for a kitchen shower which honored Miss Harris, inviting women of the South Oakdale neighborhood to the event. Another party was given by Mrs. Kenneth Phillips and Mrs. Robert Swindler at the latter's home, guests for this event being former school friends.
