Monroe-Guches Rites Held; Newlywed Pair To Live Here

A lawn ceremony held Friday, July 12, married Miss Donna Lee Guches and Delbert Lee Monroe at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Monroe, 913 Alta street. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Guches, 1404 Thomas road.

The Rev. Alfred Fellers, chaplain at Camp White, officiated at the double ring six o'clock afternoon ceremony attended by 45 relatives and friends.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white lace frock over satin fashioned with fitted bodice and tiered skirt. She carried a bouquet of white carnations encircling a white orchid.

Mrs. Jerry Monroe, Central Point, was honor attendant for her sister, and Mrs. Desmond Sweet, sister of the bride, Miss Lois Lefland, and Miss Pat Hawks, Shady Cove, were bridesmaids and bridesmatrons. They wore ballerina length nylon dotted Swiss frocks in pastel colors and headbands and corsages of white carnations.

Jerry Monroe served as best man for his brother and Ron Guiley and Irving Eisenstien seated the guests.

Mrs. S. T. Brannock played the traditional wedding music and accompanied Mr. Brannock, who was soloist.

Baskets of gladiolus and white daisies decorated the lawn for wedding and reception and white wedding bells on a trellis served as a background for ceremony.

Following the ceremony a reception was held. Mrs. Ron Walker cut and served the wedding cake and Mrs. Don Avery poured the punch. Mrs. Robert Sparks, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Melvin Woods were at the gift table.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Guches chose a beige suit with matching accessories. Mrs. Monroe wore a blue frock with white accessories.

Following a wedding trip to Brookings the couple will make their home at 611 West Tenth street, Medford. For her traveling attire the bride wore a pink suit with white accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Crater High school and is employed at Fluhrer Bakeries. The bridegroom is a graduate of Crater High school and is employed by the Rogue River Orchards.

Two Engagements Are Announced In Cave Junction

Cave Junction—Two recent engagement announcements are of interest here.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Beverly Ann Ray, Arcata, Calif., to James Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Scott, Kerby, Ore. The bride-to-be, a student at Arcata High school, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm T. Ray.

Mr. Scott was graduated from Illinois Valley High school in 1955 and has been employed by Harry E. Sowell. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Pullen, Bridgeview, announce the engagement of their daughter, Deanna Irene, to David L. Kuhn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kuhn, Bridgeview.

The wedding is set for August 2 at the Bridgeview Community church at 7:30 p.m.

Both young people attended Illinois Valley High school where Miss Pullen was graduated in June. Her fiancé is employed by William Sowell.

Banquet Honors Lodge President

Mrs. Mary H. Barker, Sutherlin, president of the Oregon Rebekah assembly, was honored at a banquet at the Holland hotel Monday evening by the Olive Rebekah lodge.

Omicron chapter of Theta Rho girls presented Mrs. Barker with a cone corsage and entertainment included an accordion selection by Caesar Muzzioli, a tap dance selection by Diana Vanzant and Linda Severson, and Mrs. Mable Poage was soloist.

At the meeting which followed the dinner Mrs. Barker told of plans to honor the fifty year members of the lodge at the next session of the Grand lodge at Corvallis. She presented the lodge with a Bible marker imprinted with her name, office and year.

Six visitors attended the meeting.

Miss Alice Wilson Honored at Party; Wedding Day Set

Shady Cove-Trail—Mrs. Carl Scott of Trail was hostess at her home on Friday afternoon, July 12 for a bridal shower honoring Miss Alice Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Wilson of Eagle Point, whose marriage to Dave Schneider of Grants Pass will be an event of August 16 at the First Presbyterian church in Medford.

Mr. Schneider is stationed at San Diego on duty with the Navy and has just recently returned from overseas.

Co-hostesses for the shower with Mrs. Scott were Miss Claudia Ash and Mrs. Barry Campbell, both of Trail. The event was a lawn shower with the tables set outside on the lawn and decorated in pink and white with pink and white streamers cascading down from a large white wedding bell. The flower decorations were white hydrangeas and pink roses.

Mrs. Kenneth Oliver, Shady Cove, decorated two heart-shaped cakes which bore the couple's names. Present were the guest of honor, Miss Wilson, the Misses Claudia Ash, Barbara Wagler, Carol Scott of Trail and Mabel Atkinson of Eagle Point; Mesdames Steve Wilson, Larry Wilson, Hal Grow and Ray Chamberlain, Eagle Point; U. R. Wagler, Clarence Wagler, Robert Sanderson, Wayne Ash, Tony Miller, Scott Brill, George Moore, John Carlton, Burt Craven, Lewis Dusenberry, Burt Ragsdale, Wilmer Ragsdale, Arnold Ragsdale, John Stille, Vernon Copeland, Edward Barlow, Barry Campbell and Carl Scott, Trail; Kenneth Paulson, Russell Elder and Dave Bergren, Shady Cove, and Robert Edminster, Merced, Calif.

Save those plastic vegetable bags. Give them a thorough sucking to wash away food particles and odors, rinse and hang to dry. Then use them for packing shoes, lingerie or cosmetics for travel.

Story Sold For Radio Program

The National Broadcasting company has purchased the radio rights for a story "The Long Hand Tells the Minutes" from Mrs. T. E. Knackstedt of Medford and will use it for the "Five Star Matinee" program in the near future. Mrs. Knackstedt wrote the story several years ago and it was first published in the Saturday Evening Post under her pen name, Ada Marie Fairchild.

The program is broadcast over Station KMED, Medford, each weekday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock and NBC officials state that the story will be used sometime within the next eight weeks, the exact date to be announced through the local station.

Mrs. Knackstedt's story is of a couple living in a mining town and of the wife's fear that her husband may be injured or killed while at work in the mine.

The Knackstedts live on Renault avenue.

Meeting Planned For Herb Society

Rogue Valley Herb society will meet Tuesday, July 23, at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. W. C. McLean, 1031 Second avenue, Old highway 99. A morning workshop will be held.

Lavender sticks and padded coat hangers will be made. Those planning to attend are asked to take lunch, card table and chair, and supplies for the two projects. Members may watch the projects being made instead of making them themselves.

Strawberries
The green cap at the stem end of the strawberry is an indication of its freshness. If the caps are missing the berries probably are over-ripe.
