

Sharon Whitlock Given Scholarship

Corvallis — Miss Sharon L. Whitlock, Medford, a sophomore at Oregon State college, has been named winner of a full-tuition scholarship for the coming school year.

She was one of 27 OSC students awarded $213 scholarships by the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers. The study grants are given each year to outstanding college students and high school graduates who are preparing to be elementary school teachers.

Scholarships are renewable from year to year provided the recipient maintains high grades and continues to show promise for a teaching career.

A 1956 graduate of Medford Senior high school, Miss Whitlock is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Whitlock of 1425 Crater Lake avenue.

Couple Married in Friends Church

A marriage ceremony held June 29 at Friends church, Medford, wedded Miss Avadna Mae Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd D. Peterson of Homedale, Ida., to Kenneth Dale Boshears of Medford. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Miner T. Boshears, 408 South Grape street, Medford.

Clyton G. Crisman, pastor of the church, officiated and Mr. Peterson gave his daughter in marriage. About 100 guests attended the service, performed at four o'clock in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Boshears traveled up the Oregon coast to Tacoma and Seattle, Wash., and later to Idaho for their wedding trip.

They are living at Route 1, Box 202, Central Point.

For her wedding the bride wore a gown of embroidered tulle with Venise applique and carried a cascade of white roses and stephanotis. Her handkerchief was that carried by her mother for her wedding.

Mrs. Richard Reed, Nampa, Ida., was matron of honor and also attending the bride were Miss Joyce Graves of Summer Lake, Ore., and Mrs. Dale Cobleigh, Central Point. They wore frocks of white daron and cotton with aquamarine rosebud design and carried nosegays of pink rosebuds.

Phyllis and Cynthia Roberts, Central Point, were flower girls. Their frocks were of pink nylon dotted Swiss and they carried miniature pink rosebud nosegays.

Glen Lamb, Portland, was best man for Mr. Boshears and seating the guests were George Goodman, Medford, and Bruce Smith, Ashland.

Mrs. Orrin Ogier was organist and Mrs. Richard Reed and Glen Lamb were soloists.

The reception which followed the ceremony was held in the church. Miss Ruth Ann Marshall, cousin of the bridegroom, took charge of the guest book and Miss Norma Kimball and Mrs. Crisman received the gifts. Miss Lysle Gregory poured coffee, and Miss Martha Boshears, aunt of the bridegroom, cut the wedding cake, assisted by Mrs. Alvin Roberts. Mrs. James Blaylock, aunt of the bridegroom, poured punch.

For the event the bride's mother wore a dress of pink lace with charcoal grey accessories and a white rose corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue lace dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses. For traveling the bride wore a pink sheath dress with cape and beige and black accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Oregon State college and is teacher of the third grade in Jefferson school, Medford. The bridegroom was also graduated from Oregon State college and is a pharmacist for Hudson's Pharmacy here.

In Medford for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson, grandparents of the bride from Ong, Neb., Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Klostermeyer and family of Prosser, Wash., Clay Brooks, Portland and the bride's parents from Homedale.

Program Planned For Session of Methodist Women

"Strangers within the Gates" is the topic for the program to be given for Women's Society of Christian Service of First Methodist church when it meets Tuesday, July 23, on the lawn at the home of Mrs. Eugene Ray, Ross lane.

Purpose of the program, according to Mrs. Milton Snow vice president of the society, who is in charge of plans for the day, is to call attention to some of the many places in the world where large colonies of people different in some respect from their neighbors—in race, nationality, color, religion, or economic status—form virtual "islands" in the population; and to point up the need for including them in the Christian fellowship.

Assisting Mrs. Snow will be the following women, costumed to represent foreign countries: Mrs. Cleo Epps, Japan; Mrs. Richard Jewett India; Mrs. John Kent, China; and Mrs. James E. Walker, Puerto Rico.

Special guest for the program which begins at 1:30 p.m. will be Young Il Shin, student from Korea who is spending the summer in Medford working for Elk Lumber company and who plans to attend college again this fall.

The morning session will begin with the prayer circle at 10:30 a.m., and business at 11 a.m. A picnic luncheon will be held at 12:30 p.m. and all members and friends are asked to bring their own table service.

State President Speaks for Club

Phoenix — Phoenix Garden club held the July meeting as a picnic in Hawthorne park. The business session was followed by a report on the recent convention of the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs at Coos Bay by the new state president, Mrs. A. O. Floyd, Medford.

The afternoon was spent in a tour of the lily gardens of Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Smith, Central Point. Pollination was explained by Mr. Smith.

Meeting Announced For Evans Valley Club

Evans Valley — Evans Valley Garden club will hold its next meeting at the home of Mrs. M. B. McWhorter, Route 1, Box 41A, East Evans creek, Wednesday, July 24. The hostess will be assisted by the new president, Mrs. Laura Douglas.

Dippels Return From Trip Abroad; Attend Convention

Dr. and Mrs. S. Ralph Dippel have returned to their home on Eastwood drive after spending four months traveling in Europe. Prior to the European sojourn, Washington D.C., in Norfolk and Williamsburg, Va., and in New York City. They sailed April 12 on the Vulcania.

They debarked in Lisbon, visited Gibraltar and then went to Italy where they made stops in Naples, Capri, saw Mt. Vesuvius, Pompeii and Sorrento. The travelers spent some time in Rome, and in Florence visited the silver, mosaic and leather factories. In Milan they toured the Milan Opera house and famous cathedrals of that city.

In Switzerland the Dippels spent some time at Stresa on Interlaken and enjoyed particularly a ride on the cog railroad up the Jungfrau. They spent 12 days at Lucerne, during which time Dr. Dippel attended the annual convention of Rotary International. They also visited Zurich.

Later the travelers went by boat up the Rhine, visited Wiesbaden and Coblenz and then went by train to Amsterdam and The Hague. The Dippels were especially impressed by the Holland flower auctions.

In London the couple spent a week visiting cathedrals, museums and other places of interest and spent a day traveling in the area where Shakespeare lived, visiting Warwick castle, Shuttery and Kenilworth. Returning to the continent, they spent several days in Paris and among other historic places, visited the Palace of Justice, and Notre Dame cathedral. Later they visited the Palace of Versailles and Malmaison. In Paris the travelers also attended performances of the Folies Bergere.

Traveling south the Dippels spent some time at Cannes on the Riviera and visited Greece, center of the perfume industry. At Monte Carlo they saw Prince Rainier, Princess Grace and their infant daughter.

The last part of the trip was to Parma, Barcelona, Madrid and Seville, Spain, and they embarked from Gibraltar on the Christopher Colombo for the journey home.

Dr. and Mrs. Dippel report that they saw but one Communist flag while abroad, and that there was little if any talk of Communism.

Culotte skirts now show in some informal evening wear. Designer Kenneth Tischler of New York features a cotton damask play dress with a short skirt that doubles for evening with wide culottes.

Bottle Collection To Be Shown During Birthday Open House

Cave Junction — Mrs. E. J. Wilber's collection of about 2,000 unusual and exotic bottles, arranged in a specially built room in the Wilber's new home on Westside road, will be a highlight of the open house to be given today by Mrs. Wilber's daughters to celebrate her 83rd birthday. All of Mrs. Wilber's friends are invited to the open house which is planned from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m.

Three in Eugene To Form Chapter Of Foods Group

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Shangle and Miss Anna Streed attended a meeting July 15 in Eugene of people interested in organizing a chapter of Natural Foods Associates.

Miss Streed spoke on "Awake, Americans," which told the history of the pure food law. Mr. Shangle told of the aims of the organization and showed the film "Our Living Soil."

Approximately 200 persons attended the meeting. From those attending a chapter of 30 members was organized with William Christenson, medical student at the University of Oregon, as chairman.

It was decided to have Lady Eve Balfour speak to the group on new developments in soil experimentation in the spring. She will be the main speaker at the national meeting of Natural Foods Associates in Memphis, Tenn. in February.

Birthdays of July To Be Observed By Townsend Club

All Townsend club members having July birthdays are requested to attend the next club meeting Wednesday, July 24, at 12:30 p.m. to share an anniversary cake at a potluck luncheon. At last week's auxiliary meeting, Mrs. C. E. Naffziger presided. Thirty-three club members and three visitors were present. One new member was enrolled.

Mrs. J. R. Burgess read the Townsend News Flash. Other club members read the Townsend National Weekly news from the parade of states held at Denver, Colo., in June. The club secretary was authorized to order several extra copies of the special publication. It gives full details of the 17th National convention.

William T. Bolger furnished flute music as accompaniment to violin numbers played by Enos Naffziger.

Nylon Hosiery
Another type of nylon has come to the hosiery industry. This one, made from a new formula developed by American Enka Corp., is supposed to make hosiery have a silkier texture and greater elasticity, allowing for better fit to the leg.
