Is YOUR English Holding You Back?

Almost everyone makes common mistakes in English. If these mistakes are not recognized, they can become dead weights that may affect you socially and financially.

Language is far more important in our lives than most of us realize. Many personality faults can be traced to lack of confidence in the ability to speak and write effectively, while the secret of success of most outstanding men and women is that they have acquired the advantage of fluent, dynamic speech and practical writing skill.

That's why so many forward-looking people who are after higher positions, bigger income, greater success, are turning to the most modern method of developing language skill—Practical English and the Command of Words.

This distinctly new personal development service is presented in 48 four- to eight-page units which are just the right length for easy mastery in only a few minutes a day. Here is practical instruction in English that will eliminate embarrassing mistakes, help you to talk more interestingly, write more effectively, express your ideas more clearly. Week by week, through these really fascinating home lessons, you will gain language ability that will uncover your own hidden assets of speech.

Will there be a vaccine against cancer?

The other day scientists vaccinated a horse with dead cancer cells from 56 human cancer patients. The horse developed antibodies against cancer. These antibodies then killed live human cancer cells in a test tube.

Will this vaccine stop cancer? Only research will find out. And research takes money. Give to your Unit of the American Cancer Society, or mail your gift to CANCER, c/o your town's Postmaster.

Laughs for Young Lovers

Reamer Keller

OVERWHELMED BY THE RECORD industry's fad of titling new albums as everything from "Sublimation for Young Lovers" to "Military Marches for Young Lovers," cartoonist Reamer Keller fights back with some romantic vignettes of his own. His only music is laughter and the sole theme is fun, but somehow he manages to capture both the lunacy and gentleness of young love.

"I, too, have a feeling that we're meant for each other—and it's very depressing."

"Remember how we hated each other when we were both in love with Joe Binks?"

"I wish Randy would call so I can bawl him out for not calling."

"Why get so upset because I got married? It only cost two bucks!"

"It's a wonder somebody ~~didn't~~ steal him!"

"Ronny is certainly a poor loser!"
