Ashland Whipped By Grants Pass

Attention riveted on rival pitchers Dick Hayes and Alan McKinnis as Grants Pass scored a 10-2 win over Ashland at Ashland yesterday.

Grants Pass's Hayes struck out nine and Ashland's McKinnis struck out eight. McKinnis also led his team in batting, knocking out a single and a double.

Heaviest hitter for the game was Grant's Pass Walker who slammed out a single, double and home run.

Grants Pass jumped to an early lead with two runs in the first inning. The Cubs followed with a run in the first, another in the second and finished strong with six runs in their final frame, the sixth.

Ashland eked out one run in the fourth frame, none in the fifth, one in the sixth and none in the seventh and final inning. Line Score: Ashland 000 101 0—2 2 3 G. Pass 200 116 x—10 10 1 McKinnis and Dickerson; Hayes and Martell.

Governor Names Red Hat Members

Salem — Gov. Robert D. Holmes Monday named five members of the state Red Hat day committee to join Rollin Bowles of Portland who was named chairman earlier.

The new members are Jerry Rutledge, Klamath Falls; Ben Buisman and Arthur Roberts, Portland; W. O. Kelsay, Roseburg, and Ed Sullivan, Hereford. The committee will promote safety in the woods during hunting season.

BLACK FRIDAY — Slamming Sammy Snead, shown hitting one out of the rough onto the ninth green in the fourth round of the PGA tournament at Dayton, O., was one of the four favorites knocked out of the event. The wave of upsets made it one of the "Blackest Fridays" in the tourney's 39-year-old history.

Church Softball To Hold Playoffs

The Church Softball League moved toward a play-off schedule following a 10-8 victory by the First Nazarene church over First Methodist last night.

The game scheduled between the First Baptists and Phoenix Presbyterian was postponed. Zion Lutheran forfeited to the Latter Day Saints, Temple Baptists also forfeited to St. Peter's Lutheran.

Following last night's games, First Nazarene has six wins and one loss, First Baptist five wins and one loss, St. Peter's Lutheran five wins and two losses, First Methodist has four wins and three losses being tied with Latter Day Saints for fourth position in the league.

Other rankings are: Temple Baptists with one win and three losses, Phoenix Presbyterian with one win and four losses and Zion Lutheran with no wins and seven losses.

NOT IN CONFERENCE

Des Moines, Iowa — Drake university officials, still feeling the school can not compete favorably with other Missouri Valley conference teams, announced today it would not enter the conference football race this fall.

Christmas Tree Brochure Planned At SOCTA Meeting

Grants Pass — Plans for a brochure, giving the number, size and species of Christmas trees, to be offered for sale by members of the Southern Oregon Christmas Tree association, were made at the Friday meeting of the association at the state forestry department office here.

Persons not attending last week's meet are asked to send information on their 1957 crop of trees to M. A. Sprague, Selma. Prospective members who want their name and tree information in the brochure may pay dues for the half year ending Dec. 31.

A representative of the state forestry nurseries in Salem said the price list and application for purchase of nursery stock would be available for distribution in mid October, and applications should be made not to the state forester, Salem.

Available on a first-come basis at the nursery will be white, grand and Shasta fir and Austrian pine as well as Douglas fir and Ponderosa pine.

The development of a new 100-acre state nursery for conifer trees, which should take care of all needs by 1959, was discussed.

Jim Fisher, technical assistant of the state forestry department, Medford, explained the tree planting phase of the Agricultural Conservation program. He said the ASP committee will pay 50 per cent of the cost of reforestation tree planting, but not to exceed $25 per 1,000 trees planted, and not more than $1,000 to any one participant.

Fisher invited persons interested to contact him at Post Office Box 71, Medford, so that he can visit the property being considered for the program.

Grange Notes

Griffin Creek Grange will meet in regular session July 25. Those attending are asked to bring a sack lunch.

BRUSH FIRE — Cave Junction — A two-acre brush fire in back of the Pullen home at Rough and Ready flats called out firemen from O'Brien and Cave Junction and a crew from the state forestry department at 3 p.m. Sunday. The blaze was brought under control within an hour.

Orioles Decide to Adopt Team Song

Baltimore — The Baltimore Orioles have decided to say it with music and one fan already has suggested, "Open the Door, Richards" as a possible morale booster.

Oriole officials feel that a team song might spur the club on to greater heights. The darkhorse entry so far is an oldtime song by E. L. White entitled, "Don't Kill the Birds."

Son of Football Great To Attend at Eugene

Eugene — Jack Temple, son of former Oregon football great Mark Temple, has announced he will follow his father's footsteps and attend the Eugene school.

Temple was an ace halfback for McMinnville high school last season. His father played for Prink Callison at Oregon in the early 1930's.

REPLACEMENT SOUGHT

Burlington, Vt. — Coach Jim Lee Howell of the New York football Giants was looking around for a replacement today for offensive guard Ray Beck, who announced his retirement from the game in a letter to the club.

CABLES INTENTIONS

New York — Joe DiMaggio, cabling his intentions from Copenhagen, Denmark, informed the New York Yankees today that he will join 60 other ex-major league stars in the annual "Old Timers Day" celebration in Yankee stadium Saturday.

Deadline for Making Banquet Reservations Is Wednesday Noon

Ashland — Valley residents have been reminded that tomorrow noon is the deadline for making reservations to attend the Aug. 1 banquet, "The Feasting of the Tribe of Will," which takes place in Lithia park prior to the opening night performance of the 1957 Oregon Shakespearean Festival. The banquet starts at 6 p.m.

Persons not attending last week's meet are asked to send information on their 1957 crop of trees to M. A. Sprague, Selma. Prospective members who want their name and tree information in the brochure may pay dues for the half year ending Dec. 31.

Available on a first-come basis at the nursery will be white, grand and Shasta fir and Austrian pine as well as Douglas fir and Ponderosa pine.
