Seixas, Hard Net Leaders

Haverford, Pa. — (AP) — Vic Seixas, U.S. clay courts champion, and hard-hitting Darlene Hard led the favorites into the third round today in the 56th annual Pennsylvania Lawn Tennis championship.

Third-seeded Gil Shea of Los Angeles was sidelined during second round play Tuesday by Henry Van Rensselaer, Greenwich, Conn. Rensselaer, ranked 37th, upset the favored California, 6-3, 1-6, 6-3.

Miss Hard of Montebello, Calif., and Mrs. Betty Rosenquist Pratt of Jamaica, B. W. I., moved into third round play by scoring two victories Tuesday.

HORNBOOK Postmaster Guest of Honor

By MRS. H. H. CHAPMAN
Hornbrook—About 120 friends turned out at the Grange hall Saturday, July 20, to honor Harry Chapman, who retired July 1, after serving Hornbrook as postmaster for the past 33 years.

A potluck dinner was given for him, followed by a sketch of his life which was prepared and read by Mrs. Jan Cozzallo, who also presented him with a large purse of money, a gift from the townspeople.

Gordon Jacobs then gave a talk expressing the respect and esteem with which the town has held Chapman through the years. He received the congratulations and best wishes of all those present.

Among those present were three who had worked in the postoffice as clerks in the past. They were Mrs. Henley Clawson, Mrs. Allie Tyrer and Mrs. Oma Lewis, the latter two now living in Yreka. Chairmen of the event were Mrs. Wayne J. Cummins, who has been clerk for the past seven years, and is now acting postmistress and Mrs. Lawrence Breceda, present clerk.

A combination farewell and birthday party was given Friday, July 19, by Mr. and Mrs. Lauran Paine, at their home on the Klamath river. Honored guest was Al Gregory, principal of the local grammar school the past two years. He and Mrs. Gregory and their three children are leaving July 30 for Amsterdam, N. Y., in the Mohawk valley, where he will teach next year.

Other guests, besides the Gregorlys, were Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Walsh and daughter, Sharee; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Williams and sons, Carl J., and Mikey; Mr. and Mrs. Loren Cummins and children, Loren Howard and Jennifer; Mr. and Mrs. E. M. French of Yreka, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bennett and son, Doug, also of Yreka and Lornie Paine, son of the host and hostess. The group presented Gregory a going away and birthday gift.

Dichter edged Dr. Ed Palmrose, also of Astoria, one-up and Krieger birdied the final two holes to defeat Jack Springay of Portland by the same margin.

Biff Lovett, the medalist from last year, was eliminated in the first round.

Naranjo Busts Loss Streak in International

By UNITED PRESS
Cholly Naranjo, given little support by his teammates in the past few weeks, took matters into his own hands and just missed pitching a no-hitter.

The 22-year-old former Pirate gave up a scratch hit to Buffalo's Lou Ortiz in the final frame of a seven-inning game as Columbus whipped the Bisons, 5-0. In the nightcap of the doubleheader, the Jets' Whammy Douglas held the international league leaders to five hits while winning, 4-1.

The decision helped Naranjo break a four-game losing streak, during which period he was given only six runs.

Vince Amor, star righthander for Havana, also came through with a brilliant effort by stopping third-place Toronto on two hits, 3-0. Veteran Johnny Schmitz started for the Leafs and was tagged with his fifth loss against seven wins. Amor is now 11-10.

In the only other action, Montreal built up an early 10-run lead and then coasted to an 11-7 verdict over Miami. The scheduled double header between Rochester and Richmond was postponed by rain.

Portland Fight Titular Event

Portland — (AP) — The Portland Boxing Commission said Tuesday it would recognize the winner of the August 10 Bobo Olson-Pat McMurty fight here as the heavyweight champion of the Pacific Coast.

The action was requested by Promoter Tommy Moyer who said the two were the top heavyweights on the Pacific Coast.

CONTRACT FOLLOWS DEATH

Washington — (AP) — The signed 1937 contract of Roy Barni arrived at the Washington Redskins office Tuesday — posthumously. Barni was fatally wounded Sunday night while trying to stop a dispute between two patrons of his San Francisco tavern. The envelope containing the contract was postmarked San Francisco, 8 p.m. Sunday — three hours before the mishap.

Mental Institution Escapee Questioned In Policemen's Death

Oakland, Calif. — (AP) — An admitted escapee from a Chicago mental institution today told a confused story of "shoot-out" at some policeman and an officer in California and an officer said there was a "50-50 chance" that he had shot and killed two El Segundo policemen early Monday.

"He told us he shot eight people so far," police said. "But officers said there were a number of discrepancies in the story told by the suspect, William Thomas Allen, 25, and a statement by Betty Aguilar, 21, who was arrested with him in East Oakland Tuesday night.

Police arrested Allen after being alerted by Los Angeles officers that he was headed this way in a car with Illinois plates. He is wanted on an FBI warrant for unlawful flight to avoid prosecution for robbery in Chicago.

Find Revolvers
Police said they found two .38 caliber revolvers in the house of Peter Bologna, where Allen was staying. Bologna also was questioned.

El Segundo Policeman Milton Curtis, 25, and Michael A. Phillips, 29, were shot to death with a .22 pistol.
