Rites Wed Couple in Washington

Of interest here is news of the wedding of Miss Viola Mae Betcher of Chesaw, Wash., to Carson A. Thatcher, Seattle, Wash., July 17. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Betcher, Chesaw, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Thatcher, 210 Beatty street, Medford.

The single-ring ceremony was read by the Rev. H. A. Kriefall in the Lutheran church, Havilah, Wash., at four o'clock in the afternoon. The newlyweds made a wedding trip to Canadian lake resorts and are now at home in Bellevue, Wash. Mr. Thatcher is a senior engineer for Boeing Aircraft corporation.

The bride's dress was of white tulle designed with train and her fingertip length veil was held by a crown of seed pearls and miniature roses. She carried red roses and white carnations.

Three of the bride's cousins were her attendants. Mrs. Floyd Fishman was matron-of-honor and bridesmaids were the Misses Patricia Betcher and Cathlene Bellmyer.

Mrs. Fishman's gown was of rust colored net over satin, designed ballerina style. The bridesmaids wore identical frocks of pink nylon, ballerina style. All three attendants wore headresses of pink lilies.

Miss Georgia Sterling was at the organ, and the Misses Evelyn and Nancy Moritz sang. The church was decorated with pink and white peonies and white candelabra held tapers.

The reception which followed was in the church parlor. About 150 guests attended the wedding and reception.

The bride was graduated from the University of Washington, Seattle, last June. Mr. Thatcher attended Medford schools and Southern Oregon college. Later

Miss Yvonne Kay Burd Wed To William Leroy Morse

Central Point—The wedding of Miss Yvonne Kay Burd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max D. Burd, Central Point, and William Leroy Morse, son of Mrs. Bea Reagan, La Jolla, Calif., and O. L. Morse, Central Point, took place Sunday afternoon, July 14, at Sacred Heart Catholic church, Medford.

Father Nicholas Deis officiated the double ring ceremony, attended by some 125 relatives and friends.

For her wedding the bride wore a ballerina length gown of white lace and tulle over satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice, and a full skirt with a layer of tiered tulle down the back. She wore a fingertip length veil and carried a bouquet of a white orchid and stephanotis.

Miss Gayle Childress, maid-of-honor, wore a street length dress of pink lace with white accessories and carried a bouquet of white aglaia daisies. The bridesmaids, Miss Lona Bishop and Miss Karen Johnson, wore street length dresses of pink lace with pink accessories and both carried bouquets of pink aglaia daisies.

Ronald Harrison served as best man and Richard Davis, Richard Bartley and Weldon Sorenson acted as groomsmen.

Bruno Pellegrini played the church organ. The church decorations were of pink and white gladioli and pink majestic daisies.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Jackson hotel in the Pioneer room. Mrs. Alma Anhorn and Mrs. Howard Davis cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. William Anhorn and Mrs. Robert Pfaff poured. Mrs. Dale Bartley took charge of the guest book and Miss Dora Pfaff was in charge of the gifts.

In Medford for the wedding were Mrs. George Harrison, grandmother of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harrison, Long Beach, Calif.; Miss Dora Pfaff, Roseburg, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. George L. Burd, Los Angeles, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Tony Hudlicky and family, Seattle, Wash.

The couple spent their honeymoon on the Oregon coast and will make their home at 329 North Holly street, Medford.

The bride is a graduate of Crater High school and is employed part time at Leonard's Flowers. The bridegroom is a graduate of Crater High school and is employed at the Eastside Market.

Atwells Honored On Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Atwell were honored at a picnic Thursday night which observed their 40th wedding anniversary. The celebration was planned by Mr. and Mrs. George Loy, Mr. Loy having served as best man when the Atwells were married.

The picnic was held in Hawthorne park, with 56 relatives and friends attending. The group presented the Atwells with a planter for their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Atwell, who live at 118 Genesee street, were married June 27, 1917, in Enid, Okla. They have lived in Medford since 1923.

The party was originally planned for the date of the anniversary, but was postponed due to Mr. Loy's illness.

Return

Mrs. Fred Lagergren and small son, 1045 West 11th street, have returned from an extended visit with her parents in Scarsdale, N.Y.

She traveled east in June with Mr. Lagergren, who spent two weeks at Chanute Air Force base, Ill., on active duty training with the USAF reserve.

Bride-Elect Guest At Shower Party

Eagle Point—Miss Verna Barritt was honored at a pre-nuptial party given Thursday by Miss Suzanne Palm and Miss Glenda Swanson at the home of Miss Palm's parents. Miss Barritt's wedding to Harold Lefler, Central Point, has been set for August 17 in Community Bible church, Eagle Point.

The refreshment table was arranged with pink tapers and roses, and a pink and white cake was served. Punch was served from a bowl loaned by Mrs. Clara Chamberlain. Use of the bowl at showers and weddings is a tradition with Mrs. Chamberlain's friends.

Miss Barritt opened her gifts after games were played. Eighteen guests attended.

The bride-elect is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otha Turner of Eagle Point.

Sister Here

Talent—Mrs. Nathaniel Gardner of Berkeley, Calif., is in the valley to visit her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jordan. Mr. Gardner's and Mr. Jordan's father was Dr. David Starr Jordan, first president of Leland Stanford university of California.
