Central Point—Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Lofland, Route 1, Box 54, Central Point, announce the engagement of their daughter, Lois, to Robert E. Manasco, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Manasco, also of Route 1, Central Point.

Miss Lofland is a graduate of Crater High school and will attend Medford Beauty school in the fall. She is now employed at the Craterian theater.

Her fiance also attended Crater High school and is now serving with the United States Navy. He is stationed at China Lake, Calif.

No wedding date has been set.

FOE, Auxiliary Honor Newlyweds

Cave Junction—Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Starks, Kerby, who are newlyweds, were honored at a potluck dinner and social evening held Saturday night by Illinois Valley Eagles and auxiliary members. Mrs. Starke is the former Opal Wadleigh.

Gifts were presented to the couple following dinner, and dancing followed later in the evening.

Nurses to Meet

Dr. Thomas C. Bolton, orthopedic surgeon, will speak on "Care of Patients" at a meeting of licensed practical nurses Monday, July 29. The meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. in Rogue Valley hospital.

Large turkeys are tops in value in the markets this summer. They are high in protein too, but low in fat.

Two Brides-Elect Guests of Honor At Recent Parties

Cave Junction—Two brides-to-be were honored recently at showers given in Cave Junction. They are Miss Lylabelle Cross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Cross, and Miss Clydus Knight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Knight, all of Illinois Valley.

Miss Cross, who will wed Henry Haga of Oak Harbor, Wash., at the Oak Harbor Christian Reformed church August 9, was showered with gifts Wednesday afternoon, July 17, at a party given by the Cave Junction Community church Missionary society in the church parlors.

The serving table was decorated with bouquets of carnations and sweet peas and pink tapers surrounding a bride doll. A fluffy pink and white umbrella decorated with shasta daisies made the gift table attractive.

Mrs. Marvin Cross officiated at the coffee and tea service. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Dwain Cross, of Grants Pass, and Mrs. Phyllis Saffer and her daughter Loretta are planning to attend the wedding. Mrs. Saffer will sing while Loretta is to be the flower girl.

Both Miss Cross and Mr. Haga are attending Seattle Pacific college, where he is preparing for the ministry. They will continue in their sophomore and junior years respectively this fall.

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Bert Haga of Oak Harbor.

The bride-elect was graduated from Illinois Valley High school in 1956 as valedictorian of her class. She left for Seattle after spending a week with her parents on Dairy road.

Miss Knight, whose wedding to Andrew Mellow, son of Mrs. Isabel Mellow is set for August 2, was honored at a shower given by Mrs. Herb Salvage Wednesday, July 17.

Refreshments in pink and white were served after Miss Knight opened her many gifts.

Winners at games were Mrs. Isabel Mellow and Mrs. Don Zimmerman.

Mr. Mellow is presently employed at the Park Auto Grocery store in Santa Rosa, where he is living with his sister Mrs. Robert Tregaskus. He and his bride will live in Santa Rosa, where he plans to attend junior college, majoring in business administration.

Mother and Son Arrive in Azores

Gold Hill — Mrs. Edmond Davis and small son have arrived in the Azores where they joined Mr. Davis, an airman first class in the United States Air Force. They left Medford July 10 by plane.

Mrs. Davis is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mercer, Gold Hill, and Mr. Davis' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Davis, 12 Kenwood avenue. The young couple will spend two years in the Azores.

Naval Aviation Cadet Jerry C. Neill of Medford was chosen to escort Miss Uruguay, Miss Gabriela Pascal of Montevideo, at the grand coronation ball given as part of the Miss Universe pageant in Long Beach, Calif., July 20. Cadet Neill, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Daniel Neill, 1415 West Eighth street, is shown as he pinned an orchid on the beauty from South America. Cadet Neill is one of the members of the NavCad choir which sang during the final night of the Miss Universe judging. The choir is stationed at Pensacola Naval Station in Florida. (Navy Photo)

Lemely, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. G. Hoffman, Ashland.

Others present were: Mr. and Mrs. M. Loftsgaard, Mr. and Mrs. George Horn, Mrs. Agnetta Fallon, Mrs. Gladys Gurtle, Mr. and Mrs. Midkaff, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Henry and boys and Mrs. Brown's brother, K. M. Uhrine, all of Klamath Falls, Ore.

Also attending were Mrs. June Zumalt, Mrs. Earl Cullimore and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sowell, Cave Junction, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Whitcomb and daughters, Grants Pass, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Simington and children, Yreka. There were also many guests from the Central Point area, making about 80 guests in all.

Tom Davidson Named Officer Of DOKK Group

Royal Vizeir Tom Davidson of Fuhat Burkan temple, Dramatic Order Knights of Khorassan of Medford, was elected vice president for Oregon at a convention and ceremonial staged at San Jose, Calif., by the Far West DOKK Temples association on July 20 and 21.

Three western provinces of Canada and eight western states are included in this group.

All santhas of Nomads of Avrudaka in this area are also a part of this association.

It will be remembered this convention was held in Medford two years ago and in Reno last year.

El Keldah temple of Kellogg, Idaho was chosen as the host and convention city for 1958. A vice president is elected from each state and province to work with the Nomads of Avrudaka and Dokey temples.

Mr. Davidson reported that several officers from the imperial palace were present at San Jose including Imperial Prince Ray Schilling of Butte, Mont., Imperial Adool Vernon C. Cash of Monrovia, Calif., and the imperial azim of Seattle, Wash., Leslie E. Vannice as well as several imperial nomad officers.

The next meeting of Fuhat Burkan temple will be in Roseburg, Saturday, August 3 in the Pythian hall at 8 p.m.

At the meeting held last Monday by Talsman lodge, Knights of Pythias in the Pythian building, plans were made for a family style picnic to be held jointly by members of the Knights of Pythias, Pythian Sisters, Sunshine girls, Dokeys and Nomads of Avrudaka from Grants Pass, Roseburg, Bandon, Klamath Falls, Yreka and Medford.

A meeting in Grants Pass last Wednesday was attended by Tom Davidson, Carl Fichtner and Joe Fritsch all of Medford, who assisted in conferring the rank of knight on several esquires. The picnic was discussed and a tentative date set for Sunday, August 25 at Rogue River park in Rogue River.

Past chancellor and former scoutmaster of Troop 16, George Bryant, was given a vote of thanks for his scout work. This troop is sponsored by the local Pythian lodge. John E. Schroeder is the new scoutmaster.

Portland Plans Outdoor Opera

Portland — The opera "Rigoletto," by Giuseppe Verdi, will be presented by the West Coast Opera Theatre in the outdoor amphitheatre in Washington park here next month.

Performances will be at 8 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 10; at 5 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 11; and at 8 p.m. Monday, Aug. 12. The public is admitted free of charge.

Director and conductor for the event is Ariel Rubenstein. Outstanding local singers have major roles. A 43 piece orchestra, chorus, and ballet group will be used in the performances.

Club, Auxiliary To Hold Luncheon

Whenever a fifth Wednesday occurs on the calendar, it is observed as a social meeting for the Medford Townsend club and auxiliary. July 31 a box lunch will be held at Carpenter's Union hall, at 12:30 p.m. Women members are to bring boxes with food for two people. Any visiting friends are welcome.

At last week's club meeting 36 members were present. Mrs. Thornton Arnold, club president, read the Washington, D.C., News Flash. One new member was reported.

Leon Rusho and Mrs. Alta Slusser, were honored with July birthday greetings and a birthday cake.

A letter from Oregon Townsend club director, Finis L. Snodgrass, indicated that Dr. Francis E. Townsend and son, Robert, plan to visit all Oregon state Townsend clubs before the end of summer.

A national senior citizens day may be inaugurated by the 85th congress for the fourth Sunday in September each year. One of the resolutions adopted at the seventeenth national convention held in Denver, Colo., concerned such a day.

The meeting closed with a penny march and readings.

Cavemen Sponsor Grants Pass Dance

Grants Pass — Harley Smith, well known square dance caller from Los Angeles, will call for a dance planned August 3 by the Cavemen Squares of Grants Pass. The dance will be held at the Josephine county fair grounds beginning at 8:30 p.m. and all square dancers of the area are invited to attend.

Mr. Smith will be accompanied by his wife and the two will give round dance exhibitions during the evening. Mr. Smith is said to be popular in the west as a caller.

Meeting Announced For Fidelity Club

Fidelity club will meet with Mrs. Frank Fanger, Jacksonville highway, a 12 noon Wednesday, July 31. Members will have a potluck picnic.

Medford Callers To Take Part in All-State Festival

Douglas Fosbury and Francis Cronin, two prominent square dance callers of the Medford area, are to appear at the Oregon state festival of square dance groups in Roseburg, August 23-25. Mr. Fosbury will have the added distinction of serving as master of ceremonies for a portion of the program. He has an active schedule of square dance calling in the Medford area, being engaged at the recently reopened "Square Corral" and also calling for the Y Knot Twirlers. Round dance classes are conducted by Mrs. Fosbury at the YMCA every Monday night.

Mr. Cronin calls for the Hill-toppers club on Old Military road, and is caller-instructor with the Double H Square dance group. He has been actively engaged in square dancing for the last four years.

Outstanding callers from all points of the state are scheduled to appear at the Roseburg festival.

Beauticians Plan Workshop Monday

A workshop meeting will be held by Medford branch, Oregon Beauticians' association at Rolland's Studio of Beauty Monday, July 29, at 7:30 p. m.

NAIL-BITE BREAKER

Chicago—The chronic nail-biter now has a chance to cure the "habit" with a plastic artificial nail. The manufacturer said the nail dries quickly and becomes very hard, automatically discouraging nail-biters because it is too hard to chew.
