

Drysdale Fastball Brings Ninth Win By Beating Giants

By TIM MORIARTY
United Press Sports Writer.
Long Don Drysdale, who celebrated his 21st birthday only two weeks ago, also has come of age as a major league pitcher.

The 6-foot 4-inch right hander was less than two years out of high school when he joined the Brooklyn Dodgers last season but still managed to win five games, four against the hated New York Giants.

With that one year of experience behind him, the Dodgers predicted big things for the lanky Californian this spring and young Don is living up to his notices.

Ninth of Year
Although he allowed 10 hits, including four to Willie Mays, Drysdale fast-balled his way to a 5-2 victory over his favorite New York "cousins" Monday night in the only National league action. It was his ninth triumph of the season, tying him with Don Newcombe and Johnny Podres for the most victories on the Dodger staff.

Drysdale's record against the Giants now stands at 6-1. He never has lost to them as a starter, suffering his lone defeat during a relief stint at the Polo Grounds earlier this season.

However, Mays almost ruined that gaudy record with another of his one-man gang performances. Willie was involved in an automobile accident one hour before the game but proved he was okay in the third inning when he tagged Drysdale for a two-run homer that put the Giants ahead 2-1.

Hits Three Singles
Mays also picked up three singles along the way so when he came up with two men on and two out in the ninth inning, Dodger Manager Walt Alston yanked Drysdale in favor of Clem Labine, who retired Willie on an infield grounder.

Ray Crone, pitching his first complete game as a Giant, was tagged for nine hits. The Dodgers tied the game at 2-2 in their half of the third, scored their decisive run in the fifth and then added a pair of insurance runs in the seventh.

In an American league day game, the Cleveland Indians snapped the New York Yankees' eight-game winning streak, 7-2. Gene Woodling drove in five runs with a single and a three-run homer, while Mike Garcia gave up nine hits in beating the Yanks for the first time since Aug. 3, 1955. Don Larsen was the losing pitcher.

Special Shoot Set For Kids

Hunters between the ages of 14 and 17 have four week ends of pheasant shooting available to them this year.

The E. E. Wilson game farm, 12 miles north of Corvallis, will invite them to hunt without commitment of adult hunters. Days open will be Oct. 5, 6, 12, 13, 19, 20, 26 and 27.

A two cock per day bag limit will be issued for each hunting day. All young shooters must be accompanied by a licensed adult over 25 years of age. One adult may not accompany more than two juveniles.

The Portland address is 1634 S.W. Alder st., and the regional office is at route 1, box 325, Corvallis, Oregon.

Matches Set To Continue

South Orange, N.J. — Seeded players, who easily won first-round matches in the Eastern Grass Courts Tennis Championships, were favored to continue their advance today as all met lesser-known opponents.

Hamilton Richardson of Westfield, N.J., top-seeded American, meets Robert Delgado of Los Angeles, and Ashley Cooper of Australia, No. 1 foreign seed, plays Ron Holmberg of Brooklyn, one of the most promising of the younger Americans.

On other top matches, Herb Flam of Beverly Hills, Calif., plays Donald Dell of Bethesda, Md.; Vic Setxas of Philadelphia meets Forest Stewart of Los Angeles; Dick Savitt of South Orange, N.J., plays Norman Perry of Los Angeles, and Mal Anderson of Australia tackles Art Andrews of Iowa City, Ia.

Maids Play In Benefit

Rogue Valley Dairy Maids will play a team of Veterans Administration employees in a benefit softball game at the Camp White field tonight at 7:30 p.m.

Money contributed at the game will help pay for the Dairy Maids' trip to Eugene where they participate in the Oregon State Women's softball tournament.

The Maids and a VA team have played several times in past years, and each time the women have won by close scores.

Sao Paulo, Brazil — Dr. Washington Luiz Pereira de Souza, 87, former Brazilian president ousted by Getulio Vargas in 1930, died Monday.

Mounties Triumph For Third Time, Beat Salons 7-1

By DICK ZYLSTRA
United Press Sports Writer
The Vancouver Mounties looked like strong Pacific Coast league pennant contenders Monday night as they defeated the Sacramento Solons, 7-1, for the Mounties' third straight victory.

But San Francisco was still in first place by four games after beating the Los Angeles Angels, 6-2. And Seattle dropped Hollywood down another half game by beating the Stars, 4-3.

Vancouver right-hander Mel Held pitched a beautiful game and he scattered eight hits and didn't give up one walk. The Mounties also placed their hits effectively, collecting seven runs on only 10 hits, while the Minam, Snake River, Pine Grove and Lookout mountain hunts will be for antlerless deer. Others include both sexes. Hunters may apply singly or in groups of four, but must make applications once for each area.

Sports Bulletin

Chicago — Owner Arnold Johnson of the Kansas City Athletics today announced that Lou Boudreau has been replaced as manager by Coach Harry Craft.

Johnson said Craft, hitherto a coach, will manage the Athletics, last in the American League, for the remainder of the season.

Davis Earns Speedy Wins

Lee Davis in M-14, Ashland, won two of four races in the mid-season championships at Valley View speedway Saturday.

Davis copped first in the B trophy dash and the B main event.

The Lee Davis car was pulled to Crescent City with about 9 other Medford and Ashland hardtop Sunday, where it bettered its performance of Saturday night.

It won top money at hardtop races in Crescent City, picking up first places in the A and B main events, and the B trophy dash. Driver was Red McGilvray, Yreka, who is a pit man for Davis at the Ashland speedway.

The car, M-14, has a 1953 Ford motor bought from Bob Christie, Grants Pass, who used it in the original car in the 1953 Mexican road race.

It has the smallest engine displacement of any on the track at Valley View, at 212 cubic inches.

Other winners Saturday were Crock Hunter in X-15, A trophy dash, and Elmer Sisemore, M-43, in the A main event.

In the B main, Bob Jenkins, M-16, was in front for the first 33 laps, then a radiator hose dropped and the engine blew. Warren Rose, C-52, spun out on the final lap straightaway and hit the grandstand.

Cliff McGilvray, C-51, and Ted Sletten, M-97, placed second and third in the race.

In the B trophy dash, Doyle Lemley, A-32, and Don Hooper, M-77, were second and third.

Wayne Lemley, A-57, crossed the finish line first in the A trophy event, but was penalized one place for chopping winner Hunter off coming out of a turn. Elmer Sisemore took third.

Wayne Lemley was second by half a car length and Bob Wilcox, M-3, third in the A main. Dale Hankins, K-8, led the first 26 laps of the 50 lap go-round, but was forced out by motor trouble.

Elmer Sisemore was awarded a trophy for fastest time at the mid-season point. He holds the record with a 21.44-second lap. No races will be held this week. The last half of the season begins the Saturday after, Aug. 18, with eight nights of racing on the agenda.

New Miler Boosts Hope

Melbourne — The man who made John Landy into a world-record miler believes he has another runner who can regain the world mile for Australia.

"My boy Herb Elliott will smash the record by the end of next season," predicted Coach Percy Cerutti.

Elliott, a 19-year-old whose home is at Perth in Western Australia, trains at Melbourne under Cerutti, who first spotted the talent in Landy and persuaded him to accept hard training. Landy went on to set the world record for the mile at 3:58, a record broken on July 19 when Derek Ibbotson of England was timed in 3:57.2. Elliott's best time so far is 4:00.4.

Vicenzo Coasts to Win Beating Gene Littler

Chicago — Roberto de Vicenzo, a lucky South American, escaped the Mexican earthquake to play in Tam O'Shanter's All American tourney and then survived a man-made quake to win the $3,500 top prize.

The man-made tremor was Gene Littler's final round 63. Nine under par tying the 9-year-old course record set by Lloyd Mangrum, but the blazing finish earned him only second money as De Vicenzo coasted to a 70, two-under-par, for a 72-hole total of 273, 15 under par for the first money.

Littler took second prize of $2,300 with a 277 total while Sam Snead, in second place heading into the final round, posted a 278 for $1,800, and Paul Harney took 279 for fourth and $1,500.

De Vicenzo, scoring his first win in 15 tries at Tam O'Shanter's twin tournaments, said he played "safe." He revealed that he left Mexico City the night of the recent earthquake after driving his family to safety.

Littler's burst, which was the first time Mangrum's record has been tied, came close to a bigger prize than De Vicenzo picked up—the stock offer by the tourney sponsors for a new record is $10,000.

There was a four-way tie for fifth place among the men pros between Art Wall Jr., Pocono Manor, Pa.; Dow Finsterwald, Tequesta, Fla.; Fred Hawkins, El Paso, Tex., and Bob Rosburg, San Francisco, at 281, each winning $1,150.

Patty Berg, Chicago, posted a final round 75 to win the women pro division of the tourney for the fifth time with a total of 302. Her previous wins were in 1943 with 307, in 1945 with 312, in 1953 with 308 and in 1955 with 302.

Her $1,500 victory moved her from fourth to first place in earnings for 1957 with $9,768. Jackie Pung, Honolulu match-play par with 304 for second money of $1,000 and Kathy Cornelius, Dayton, Ohio; Fay Crocker, Montevideo, Uruguay, and Betsy Rawls, Spartanburg, S.C. each won $700 for tying for third at 305.

Clifford Ann Creed, 18, Opelousas, La., won the women's amateur title with a last-round 79 for 320. Tied for second were Sandra Clifford, Mexico City, and Lois Drafke, Chicago, with 332.

Don Cherry, Wichita Falls, Tex., took the men's amateur title with 295, with Howard Everett, Northfield, N.J., second at 296.
