Oregon Turkey Growers Saved From Competition

Salem—Oregon turkey growers today praised the joint effort of the State Agriculture Department and the Public Utilities Commission in sparing Oregon's $25 million turkey industry the effects of "disastrous" competition from Utah growers due to high freight rates.

W. T. Geurts, general manager of the Oregon Turkey Growers association, said that petitions by the two agencies successfully blocked proposed rail shipping rates that would have dropped freight costs from Utah points to Portland by as much as $1.75 to $1.93 per hundred pounds.

Smaller Profit Geurts said Oregon growers already had a smaller margin of profit due to greater feed and labor costs than exist in Utah.

CO-STAR IN SHOW—Marion Ross and Walter Brennan co-star in the motion picture, "God Is My Partner," which has its west coast premiere at the Rogue Drive-In theater tonight.

Marion Ross Visits In Valley; Stars In Drive-In Show

Marion Ross, personable young actress who is co-starring with Walter Brennan in "God Is My Partner," which has its west coast premiere tonight at the Rogue Drive-In, arrived in Medford Monday night and will make a series of personal appearances in southern Oregon.

In addition to radio and television interviews, Miss Ross was a guest of Medford Rotary club yesterday noon and at the annual tea of Presbyterian Women's association yesterday afternoon at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Dwight Findley, Old Stage rd.

Last night Mr. and Mrs. Robert Corbin were hosts for a dinner at Rogue Valley Country club honoring the actress, and later she attended the performance of "Othello" at the Oregon Shakespearean Festival in Ashland.

Today Miss Ross went to Klamath Falls for the day and Thursday she will return to Medford for a personal appearance at the Rogue Drive-In. The film starring Miss Ross and Brennan is the story of a surgeon who in his later days decides to give away his money to help his fellow men and his church. Two nephews, believing only an incompetent would give away his money, in this manner, attempt to restrain him through the courts.

Brennan, well known to moviegoers and a three-time Academy-award winner, gives a moving and warm portrayal of a man who wishes to acknowledge his God with more than routine attendance at church, with routine monetary contributions.

Miss Ross plays the role of the surgeon's niece, attractive, young woman attorney who defends him in court. An exceedingly capable actress, Miss Ross makes a convincing courtroom appearance; in the role she is an example of that fortunate woman who "has everything," beauty, brains and charming femininity.

The film was well received by a group representative of civic and religious leaders in the city who previewed the film last week.
