IV Jubilee Plans Near Completion

Cave Junction — Three candidates have entered the race for Queen of the Illinois Valley Jubilee, according to Don Adams, chairman of the annual Labor Day celebration.

They are Ronine Rausch, sponsored by the American Legion and auxiliary; Linda Deaton, the Eagles and auxiliary candidate; and Myrna Gibbons, who represents the Democratic club.

Other entries are expected. Candidates sponsored by the World War Veterans, the Chamber of Commerce, the Lions club and the Illinois Valley Fire department have not yet been announced.

Final plans for the Jubilee were made at a meeting last week. Two dances will be held during the celebration, the Queen's Ball on Saturday night and the Jubilee ball on Monday.

Two additional dances given by the Jubilee association are set for Aug. 17 and 24 in the Legion hall.

Cooking for company can be easy with the help of cook books from the Medford Public Library.
