Clegg-Kroening Ceremony Held at Episcopal Church

St. Mark's Episcopal church was the setting Saturday, August 3, for the eight o'clock evening wedding of Miss Darlene Ann Kroening and William B. Clegg Jr. The Rev. George R. V. Bolster officiated at the double ring ceremony, attended by 100 relatives and friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Arthur E. Kroening, Lakeview, Ore., and Arthur E. Kroening of Tillamook. She has been making her home at 609 Sherman avenue, Medford. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Clegg, 2235 Oakwood drive, Medford.

While gladiolus decorated the church for the wedding, Douglas Cummings played the traditional organ wedding music and accompanied Miss Janet Jamison, soloist.

The bride wore a white ball-train length frock of lace with sequin trim on the bodice. Her veil was held by a lace crown and she carried a pink orchid on a white prayer book and handkerchief loaned by the mother of the bridegroom. Her pearl necklace was a gift of the bridegroom. She was given in marriage by Edward L. Bunnell, a brother-in-law from Portland.

Mrs. Wayne Hunter was honor attendant and bridesmaids were Miss Juanita Stoval and Miss Annabelle Welch of San Francisco. They wore frocks of pink dotted nylon styled on princess lines and carried bouquets of white asters.

Arthur Ekerson served as best man and Gary Shaffer and Wayne Hunter acted as groomsmen.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the patio at the Clegg home on Oakwood drive. Mrs. Marjorie Green cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Hugh Kimble, aunt of the bride, poured the coffee, and Mrs. Ruhl Rians poured the punch. Miss Jo Ann Jamison was in charge of the guest book. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Claudia Cave, Mrs. Robert Aldredge and Miss Myrna Robertson.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Kroening wore a pearl gray suit with pink accessories. Her flowers were pink carnations. Mrs. Clegg chose a flowered print dress of emerald green and violet with violet hat and white accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias.

The newlyweds are making their home at 609 Sherman avenue, apartment 1, Medford. For her traveling attire the bride chose a pink flowered dress.

The bride attended Medford High school and Oregon State college. She is employed in the sales department at Medford corporation. The bridegroom attended Medford High school and Southern Oregon college and is a student at the University of Oregon.

Relatives of the bride from out of town who attended the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Kimble, aunt and uncle, Coos Bay, Jack Kroening, brother, Reedsport, Erwin Kimble, uncle, Coos Bay, and cousins, Lloyd Kimble, Coos Bay, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kimble, Brookings. Relatives of the bridegroom included Miss Margaret Clegg, Palo Alto, Calif., Mrs. Adam Volkenant, aunt, and her daughter, Janice, Ottawa, Ill. Also attending were Mr. and Mrs. Larsen Lewis, Tigard.

Rites Held At Chapel

Miss Dana Lee Ragsdale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee V. Ragsdale, 1004 Whitman avenue, Medford, became the bride of Robert George Kramer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Foss G. Kramer, 332 Hargadine drive, Ashland, in a ceremony held Saturday, July 27, at the Travis Air Force Base Chapel in California.

Air Force Chaplain James R. Woodruff, a Methodist minister, officiated at the double ring ceremony held at 11 o'clock in the morning. White gladiolus decorated the chapel for the wedding.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white ribbon lace knit sheath dress with small white hat which held a veil. She carried a nosegay bouquet of white carnations.

Following the ceremony a dinner was held at The Nut Tree Dining Inn in Vacaville, Calif. Attending were the parents of the couple who traveled south for the ceremony.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Ragsdale chose a brown and white sheer print dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink Ester Reed daisies. Mrs. Kramer chose a mauve and white frock with white accessories. Her flowers were white Ester Reed daisies.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school. The bridegroom attended Ashland High school and Southern Oregon college. He is an airman first class now stationed with the United States Air Force at Travis Air Force base in California.

The newlywed couple will make their home in Vacaville when they return from a trip to the California coast.

The bride was honored at a shower given by Mrs. Lester Harris at her home on South Oakdale avenue. The event was a morning coffee held outdoors, and about 24 guests called during the morning. Mrs. Kramer was presented a shower of miscellaneous gifts for her new home.
