

Mrs. Herbert Nill

Nill-Crawford Wedding Held In Eugene Lutheran Church

From Eugene comes news of the wedding of Miss Sally Crawford to Herbert Nill, formerly of Medford and now of Eugene. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crawford, Rugby, N.D., and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl E. Nill, 25 Myers court, Medford.

The ceremony took place Saturday, July 27, at Central Lutheran church in Eugene, with Pastor Harold Aalbu reading the single-ring rites at eight o'clock in the evening. Mr. Crawford gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride wore a gown of point d'esprit over net and tulle designed with close-fitting bodice, high round neckline and giant puffed sleeves. The bodice and billowing skirt were trimmed with venise lace edging in panel effect. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis and her finger-tip length veil of French illusion was held by a satin crown trimmed with seed pearls and pleated net. The bride carried a lace handkerchief which belonged to her grandmother.

Mrs. Stanley Markwardt of Moorhead, Minn., was honor attendant for her sister and bridesmaids were Miss Jeanne Crawford, Eugene, another sister, and Miss Karen McDaniel, Portland. Their identical gowns were of yellow point d'esprit and they carried cascades of yellow gladiolus and white carnations. Mr. Nill was best man for his son and ushers were Pat Burroughs and Jack Morris, both Eugene.

Yellow and white gladiolus, gypsophila and daisies arranged with carnations decorated the church. Miss Ann Stearns was soloist.

The reception which followed was in the church parlors. Pouring were Mrs. John Ousterhout, Medford, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Thomas Warlick and Miss Shirlee McGee. Mrs. Fred Kinsley and Mrs. Glenn Warberg cut and served the wedding cake.

The bride's mother wore a dress of sheer summer print with white accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother chose a dress of semi-sheer navy blue with white hat and her flowers were pink rosebuds.

Mr. Nill and his bride spent their honeymoon at Lake Tahoe and San Francisco, Calif., and are now at home at 1083 East Nineteenth street, Eugene. For traveling the bride wore a pearl gray ensemble with pink accessories and a gardenia corsage.

The bride, a graduate of the University of Oregon, is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. The bridegroom is a

Tucker-Miller Wedding Held in Ashland Church

Ashland — Our Lady of the Mountain Catholic church in Ashland was the setting Saturday, August 3, for the eleven o'clock morning wedding of Miss Beverly Darlene Miller and Martin Bernard Tucker. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Miller, 1059 Park street, Ashland. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Marguerite Graham of Cucuta, Colombia, South America, and the late Homer D. Tucker of Medford.

The Rev. Ernest J. Jackson officiated at the double ring nuptial mass attended by 100 relatives and friends.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white tulle and lace over satin styled with scoop neckline and long sleeves. The bouffant skirt had a panel of tiered lace and tulle in the back and the bride's white tulle veil edged with lace was held by a crown of lace and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses on a white prayer book encircling a white orchid which she placed on the altar at the close of the mass. Mr. Miller escorted his daughter to the altar.

Miss Donna Bibeau was honor attendant for the bride and Miss Katherine Ingle, Miss Judy Johnson and Miss Vivian Stevenson were bridesmaids. They wore frocks of nylon over taffeta fashioned with fitted bodices and full skirts with taffeta bows in back. Miss Bibeau's dress was orchid colored while the other attendants wore pink. Each wore a headpiece of nylon to match her frock and carried a cascade bouquet of Ester Reed daisies.

Little Deborah Roberts was flowergirl and Alan Hoadly was ring bearer.

Pink and white flowers decorated the church for the ceremony and Mrs. E. Berge played the traditional organ wedding music.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Miller chose a navy blue sheath dress with white accents and navy white accessories. Her corsage was of pink and white sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. M. H. Tucker, Ashland, grandmother of the bridegroom, wore a wheat colored dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was of pale pink orchids.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Douglas Johnson cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Robert Frazier, sister of the bridegroom, presided at the punch bowl and Miss Janet Gibson poured the coffee. Miss Evelyn Deets was in charge of the guest book while Miss Beverly Hakes and Miss Barbara Johnson were at the gift table.

The newlyweds leave today for Boulder, Colo. where they will both attend the University of Colorado. For her traveling attire the bride chose a toast colored sheath with matching jacket and flax colored accessories. Her corsage was an orchid.

The bride is a graduate of Ashland Senior High school. The bridegroom is also a graduate of Ashland Senior High school and has been making his home at 184 Hargadine street, Ashland.
