

Bridgeview Church Scene of Wedding

Cave Junction — Historic Bridgeview Community church was the scene of the wedding Friday, August 2 of Deanna Irene Pullen and David Leonard Kuhn.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry L. Pullen, Bridgeview. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kuhn of Cave Junction are the bridegroom's parents.

The Rev. Martin Brown officiated at the single ring ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white nylon embossed with pink butterflies. Her corsage was of pink carnations, encircling a lavender orchid.

Mrs. Mary Brown was pianist for the ceremony. Soloist was Mrs. Myrtle Looper.

Gladiolus and sweet peas decorated the church.

Miss Phyllis Mae Brownlee, wearing a pink orlon frock, served as maid of honor, while Perry Lee Pullen was best man. Candelighters were Edward Pullen and Gary Bell, who also served as ushers.

Assisting at the reception which followed at the church were the Misses Vivian Tresham, Vanita Tresham and Linda Poff.

The new Mrs. Kuhn chose a charcoal gray suit flecked with pink for her going away outfit. The couple's home is on the Caves highway.

Both young people attended Illinois Valley high school. Mr. Kuhn is employed by W. J. Sowell logging operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hanel

Newlyweds To Live In Medford

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hanel will make their home at 607 Sherman avenue, Medford, this week when they return from their wedding trip to San Francisco.

Mrs. Hanel is the former Miss Barbara Cornilles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Cornilles, Nampa, Idaho. Her marriage to Mr. Hanel, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Hanel, Ashland, was held Sunday, July 28 at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon in the Nampa First Methodist church.

The Rev. Don Mathews officiated at the double ring ceremony attended by more than 100 guests. Baskets of pink and white gladiolus and white satin streamers decorated the church for the wedding. Val Daugherty was soloist while Miss Elaine Carlson played the traditional organ wedding music.

The bride wore a waltz length taffeta frock fashioned with fitted bodice and sleeves of chantilly lace and the bouffant skirt was accented with wide bands of matching lace. Her fingertip length veil was held by a cap trimmed with seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of lilies and stephanotis. She was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Kay Cornilles was honor attendant for her sister. She wore a white nylon eyelet over pink taffeta frock. Other attendants included Miss Alice Solie, Canby, Ore., and Mrs. Gordon Cornilles, sister-in-law of the bride. They wore frocks fashioned as Miss Cornilles' over blue and green taffeta and carried white baskets of daisies and pink carnations.

Little Debra Cornilles and Pamela and Julie Cornilles were flower girls while Joann and Judy Lewis were candelighters. The flower girls were dressed in blue and pink nylon frocks while the candelighters, identical twins, wore pink taffeta.

Leonard Vaughn, Ashland, served as best man while Gordon and Jerry Cornilles, brothers of the bride, seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception that followed Mrs. Cornilles wore a rose lace dress with white accessories. Mrs. Hanel also wore a rose lace dress with white and rose accessories. Both had white gladiolus corsages.

Mrs. J. D. Sites and Mrs. W. B. Ballard, aunts of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake at the reception in the church parlors. Mrs. J. E. Kling and Mrs. E. C. Hansen, aunts of the bride, and Mrs. W. A. Lewis poured punch. Mrs. Jerry Cornilles was in charge of the guest Prospect—Miss Donna Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Clark, Prospect, was honored at a bridal shower last month. Hostesses for the shower were Miss Mary Ann Hubbard, at whose home the shower was held, Miss Loretta Orgain, and Miss Beth Biden.

Mrs. Willard Huffman made the heart shaped centerpiece which decorated the serving table set up on the lawn at the Hubbard home.

Miss Clark is the bride-elect of Donald Andresen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Andresen, Prospect. The wedding was scheduled for Friday at the Chapel of the Pines.

Attending the shower were Mrs. Walter Andresen, Mrs. Ray Millard, Mrs. Michael Snyder, Mrs. Hattie Salter, Mrs. Archie McKillop, Mrs. Louis Biden, Mrs. Bruce Matthiesen, Mrs. Jack Rienks, Mrs. Bruce Grieve, Mrs. Clifford Clark, Mrs. Charles Daily, Mrs. Calvin Sargent, Mrs. Del Garden, Mrs. Sidney Morse, Mrs. George Hubbard, Miss Susan McKillop, Miss Rose Jantzer, Miss Helen Jantzer, Miss Glenda Sargent, Miss Judy Andresen, Miss Sandra Clark, Miss Marlene Govenor, and Miss Suzanne Rogers.

book and Mrs. Carroll Johnston, Mrs. C. F. Tovey and Miss Carole Park were at the gift tables.

The floral arrangements used in the church and at the reception were by Mrs. W. A. Lewis and Mrs. C. F. Tovey.

The bride is a graduate of Nampa High school and the College of Idaho. For the past six years she has been a teacher in the Grants Pass High school. The bridegroom is a graduate of Oregon State college. He is employed as a biologist for the California Oregon Power company in Medford.

The bride chose a black and white dress with white accessories and the corsage from her bridal bouquet for her traveling attire.

Out of state wedding guests included Frank Dean, Ashland.

Medford Woman Makes Trip East

Mrs. L. A. Crane, 617 Dakota avenue, has returned from an eight weeks vacation trip. She visited her daughter, Mrs. Eugene Earle and family in Kent, Ohio, and another daughter, Mrs. R. L. Hoy and family and her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Pratt, all of Waterloo, Iowa.

The Pratts accompanied Mrs. Crane to Ainsworth, Iowa, to visit a brother, R. L. Colthurst, and the three then went to Mexico for a 17-day tour.

On the return trip they spent some time with friends in Lynwood, Calif., and with a daughter, Mrs. Stanley Williams, and her family in Los Angeles, as well as friends in Oakland.

The Pratts are returning to Iowa the first of the week.

Panel Discussion Held at Meeting Of Talent Group

Talent — The propagation of soft wood cuttings was discussed by a panel at the last meeting of the Talent Garden club Wednesday at the home of Mrs. William Bagley. Mrs. Bagley was program chairman for the meeting.

It was announced at the meeting that the postmaster had asked the club to plant and care for the planter box that will be put in front of the new post office building now under construction. To finance this project the members voted to hold coffee parties.

Following the dessert luncheon the members toured Mrs. Bagley's greenhouse and saw the roses blooming that she planted as seed last March.
