Foursquare Church Scene Of Mitchell-Greeley Rites

Miss Frances Irene Greeley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pearl W. Greeley, route 2, box 228L, Medford, became the bride of Jack A. Mitchell, route 2 box 227D1, Medford, in a ceremony held at the Foursquare church Saturday, August 3, at eight o'clock in the evening.

The Rev. R. H. Mathewson officiated at the double ring ceremony attended by 200 relatives and friends.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white gown fashioned with lace bodice and floor length satin skirt which terminated in a train. Her illusion veil was edged with lace and she carried a bouquet of red rosebuds. The veil had been previously worn by two sisters of the bride and all of the frocks worn by members of the wedding party were made by Mrs. Greeley, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Wilmer Greeley, the bride's sister-in-law.

Mrs. George Featherstone, Salem, was honor attendant for her sister, while other attendants were Mrs. Wilmer Greeley, Mrs. John Howard, Salem, sister of the bride, Mrs. Glen F. Kaufman, and Mrs. Clarence Morris. They all wore frocks of satin and lace in pastel colors and carried nosegay bouquets of gladiolus.

Flower girls were Nancy Howard and Betty Greeley, Salem, nieces of the bride. Sue Featherstone and Jeannette Greeley, nieces of the bride, lighted the candles. They wore pink taffeta frocks. Ring bearers were John and Robert Greeley, nephews of the bride.

Wilmer L. Greeley served as best man for his brother, while Robert Ayers, Pat O'Malley, and Leonard and Pat Featherstone of Salem, seated the guests.

Large baskets of gladiolus decorated the church for the ceremony and the home of the bride's parents for the reception that followed. Miss Lona Felkner was organist and accompanied Boyd Powers, Prospect, soloist.

At the reception Miss Phoebe Lull cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Mildred Bray presided at the punch bowl and was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Dan Haas poured the coffee.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Greeley chose a gold colored dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of red rosebuds. Mrs. Dorothy Behnke, sister of the bridegroom, formerly of Eagle Point and now of Portland, chose a brown suit with pink accessories and a pink rosebud corsage.

The newlywed couple will make their home at route 2, box 227D1, Medford, when they return from a wedding trip to the Oregon and California coast. For her traveling attire the bride chose a mint green suit with white accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Salem schools and is a waitress for the F. W. Woolworth company in Medford. The bridegroom attended Medford and Eugene schools and is employed by the Edward Ross Mobil Station in Medford.

Ruby Bollinger

October Wedding Planned by Pair

The wedding of Miss Ruby M. Bollinger, formerly of Medford, to Carl W. Percy of Seattle, is set for October.

Miss Bollinger made her home in Medford until 1954 when she moved to Tacoma where she has lived for the last three years. She attended Medford schools and was employed by Wilson's Camera shop, Medford Accounting service, and Snider's dairy. In Tacoma she has been bookkeeper for Arden Farms company and is now with Arden Farms company of Seattle.

Mr. Percy is a son of Mrs. Lawrence Cone of Kent, Wash., and is employed in the purchasing office of the city of Seattle.

Housewives who have been irritated by having to unfold several sheets to find a contour sheet in their closet might use this trick. Separate top sheets from contour sheets and keep top sheets on a shelf above the others. Then when making beds, a sheet can be taken from each shelf without the struggle of unfolding several to get a set.
