

IOOF, Rebekahs
Announce Picnic

Medford Odd Fellows and Rebekahs will hold a picnic Sunday, August 18, at TouVelle park. Horseshoes, cards, games and races are planned.

Each family attending is asked to take a picnic lunch, the lodges will supply rolls, coffee, sugar and soft drinks.

Lunch will be served at 1:30 p.m. and continue "until the last chicken bone is bare" the committee states.

All Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and their friends are invited to attend.

A drinking straw in a youngster's lunch box, along with a vacuum-type bottle cuts down chances of accidental spilling. The child can drink directly from the bottle rather than pour his beverage.

Before clipping the corners of collars or pockets for turning, stitch the corners a second time using about 20 stitches to the inch. The corners than can be clipped more closely.

Newlywed Couple Plans
To Live in Washington

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Wilbur, who were married June 16 in Valley View Seventh-day Adventist church, are living at Route 1, Box 330, Medford. Mrs. Wilbur before her wedding was Barbara Jane Conrad, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Conrad, Eagle Point, and her husband is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilbur, Route 1, Box 330, Medford.

Next month the couple plans to move to College Place, Wash., where the bridegroom will attend Walla Walla college. Both are graduates of the Seventh-day Adventist Milo academy, and both attended Walla Walla college last year.

Elder Floyd Breese officiated at the 7:30 o'clock evening candlelight ceremony attended by 300 relatives and friends.

Given in marriage by her parents the bride wore a white taffeta and lace frock and her elbow-length veil was held by a crown of white orange blossoms. She carried stephanotis encircling a white orchid on a white Bible.

Miss Virginia Conrad was honor attendant for her sister. She wore a pink nylon dotted Swiss frock with pink rosebud wristlet. Bridesmaids were Miss Marcella Wilbur, Miss Muriel Wilbur, sisters of the bridegroom, and Miss Linda Conrad, sister of the bride. They wore frocks of Nile green nylon dotted Swiss with pink rosebud wristlets.

Miss Ruth Ann Wilbur, sister of the bridegroom, and Edwin Christensen were candlelighters. Miss Wilbur wore a yellow frock and a pink rosebud wristlet. Little Connie Sue Conrad, sister of the bride, served as miniature bride and flower girl. She was dressed as the bride and carried a basket of flowers. Gary Thompson served as Bible boy.

Harley Clendenon, Gaston, Ore., served as best man for his cousin, while groomsmen were Jarold Christensen, Delmar Fjarli, and Dale Thompson. Seating the guests were Lanny Fenton, Sukherlin, Kenny Zaugg, Gaston; and Charles Brainard.

Roses and baskets of ferns with white candles decorated the church for the wedding. Mrs. Joe Hoyt played the traditional organ wedding music and Lowell Weister of Grants Pass and Alva Bowman were soloists.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Conrad wore a pink dress styled on princess lines with white accessories. Mrs. Wilbur chose a beige dress with matching jacket. Their corsages were orchids.

Following the wedding a reception was held at Rogue River academy chapel. Music was provided by Tom Kennaday, Medford, and the Misses Carol and Patty Pershall, Eagle Point. Miss Diana Conrad, sister of the bride, and Bruce Barnett recited a wedding poem.

Mrs. Vern Martin took charge of the reception while Mrs. Clifford Turvey, Mrs. Dick Christensen, Mrs. Harold Twedell and Mrs. Harold Hanson assisted. The Misses Edith Clark, Coral and Patty Pershall, Coral and Ardeh Glassford served the guests.

Out-of-town relatives attending the wedding included Mrs. Susan Wilbur, Mr. and Mrs.

Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Greenwood

Greenwood-Allen
Rites Take Place

Mrs. Doris Erine Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Miller, 615 West Thirteenth street, Medford, became the bride of Kermit Hugh Greenwood, son of Mrs. Opal Silva, 825 West Eleventh street, Medford, in a ceremony held Friday, August 2, at the First Christian church.

The Rev. William Piper officiated at the 7:30 o'clock evening single ring ceremony attended by 28 relatives and friends. White and pink gladioli and white candles decorated the church for the wedding.

The bride wore a ballerina length pink nylon frock and carried a bouquet of rubrum lilies.

Mrs. Howard Patterson, sister of the bridegroom, attended the bride. She wore a yellow cotton frock in ballerina length with a corsage of white carnations. Mr. Patterson served as best man.

Candlelighters were Bruce and Gary Bertrand.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church. The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and was employed as a receptionist for Dr. J. Scott Heatherington. The bridegroom is a graduate of Sweethome Union high school and is employed by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company as a lineman. The newlywed couple will make their home in Central Point.

Robert Wilbur, Beaver Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Clendenon, and Harley, Gaston; Mr. and Mrs. Berwyn Slouson, Bandon; and Mr. and Mrs. Don Clendenon, Carson City, Nevada.

Artists Hold
Fair Today

A Greenwich Village type art fair will be held in Lithia park, Ashland, this afternoon, by the Southern Oregon Society of Artists. The fair will be held in conjunction with the Shakespearean Festival.

The show, which will officially open to the public at 12:30 p.m. today, will include works by members of the society and others who have been asked by the society to enter exhibits.

Members entering pictures include Mrs. Blanche Johnson whose water colors of horses have been shown throughout the valley. Also featured will be oil and casein landscapes by Clifford Platz, Mr. Platz, who started painting as a hobby while convalescing from an illness several years ago, is chairman of the society and is an art instructor at the YMCA.

Mrs. Ada Castillo will exhibit her latest still life, "Magnolia," which was the picture of the month for July. She will also display several other florals, all in oil.

Mrs. Gean Neece, Gold Hill, who is fond of outdoor sports, will include in her exhibits oils of fishing and hunting trips as well as some seascapes, studies of animals and birds. She will also include in the Lithia park exhibit an impressionistic head of Christ.

Club To Make Plans
For Coming Events

At a business session of Medford Townsend club Wednesday, August 14, women of the organization will formulate plans for a late summer rummage sale. It will be held in the near future.

At last Wednesday's auxiliary meeting Mrs. Enos Naffziger presided. Thirty-five members were present and one new member was enrolled. The club secretary read a letter from U.S. Representative Charles O. Porter of the Fourth District of Oregon, in regards to HB 7086 known as "pay as you go," national pension plan.

A "grab bag" box of miscellaneous trinkets was shared.

The meeting closed with a penny march and readings by the group.
