Family Attends Reunion

By MRS. M. F. CAVIN
Hilts — Mr. and Mrs. Walt Laustadt and boys visited recently at the home of Mrs. Laustadt's father, W. W. Walker, in Anderson.

While there they attended a reunion of the Herrick family at the Hat creek campground. This is an annual affair and all those attending are descendants of Alvin and Pauline Leffingwell Herrick. This year there were 117 relatives of the couple present.

Miss Deanna Michelson is at the Girl Scout camp Low Echo, this week.

Miss Lena Foggiato is employed at the home of Mrs. Doris Hassman in Medford. Mrs. Hassman is a sister of Mrs. William Tallis.

Misses Dorothy and Pat Fox are visiting relatives in southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Cooper and family, of Trail, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. King Wednesday evening.

Weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Caston were Caston's nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Elman, of Florence, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haynes left Wednesday evening for Redding. On Sunday they drove to San Francisco, where Haynes will receive medical treatment.

Mrs. Mary Biasotti, of Daly City, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Faggiato recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Pinzon and mother of San Francisco visited recently at the home of Mrs. G. Zannotto.

Mrs. Frank Ayris visited several days at the home of her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Brown in Gold Hill. She returned home Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Frank Gwinn visited several days at the home of her father, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Gaines in Central Point. On Tuesday she left for San Francisco, where she will care for her sister's children for several weeks.

Roy Williams and daughter Brenda, of Yreka, visited Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Williams. They all drove to Ashland, where they had dinner.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Spannaus are their grandchildren, Jane Spannaus of Orville and Terry McFerrin of Redding.

Mrs. Dick Stretz and son were guests of Mrs. Stretz's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Marin, several days this week.

Mrs. Adolph Zannotta and girls visited in Ashland on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Luper and children drove to Redding Saturday, where they visited relatives.

Uranium Ore Picked Up by Campers

Richfield, Utah—A Utah highway patrolman said Saturday someone, possibly a child, had picked up a small box containing dangerous and highly radioactive uranium ore left out by a prospector in Bryce Canyon National Park about 75 miles of here.

A patrol dispatcher said he understood the ore was of sufficient grade to cause serious burns if left in contact with a human body for more than an hour.

The chief ranger at Bryce said he believed the box was picked up by a party which camped next to the park's ranger station Friday night. He said the group, two adults and two children, spoke with southern accents drove a late model, blue station wagon.

Mailers' Union Strike

Idles Paper Employees

Boston — A strike by 300 mailers' union employees idled more than 5,000 persons at Boston's three major daily newspapers Saturday. There was apparently little hope of an early settlement.

The walkout was called Friday night after wage settlement talks between union leaders and management representatives "collapsed."

ACTION POSTPONED

Washington — The House Agriculture committee Saturday postponed until next year any action on a proposed new price support program for cotton.

Jerry Troxel In Japan

By LILLIAN KNIGHT

Phoenix—Jerry Troxel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Troxel, left last month for Japan after being home on leave. The Troxel family took him south to his place of embarkation and visited Disneyland before returning home. They received the first letter from him Friday after he arrived in Japan. He stated that his squadron is in charge of rescue operations on Kashi island, which was the scene of recent tidal floods.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Bissinger and three children of Niles, Mich., returned to their home Wednesday after spending several days visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bissinger and sister, Avis. While here the two families made trips to Crater Lake, Crescent City, and the trees of mystery below Crescent City. Another sister of Vernon's, Mrs. Steve Crippen, of Ashland, accompanied them on the Crescent City trip.

Mrs. John Miller and two children, Carol and Julie, of Fresno, Calif., are staying with Mrs. Miller's parents Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Montgomery, while she is here working in the packing house.

Mrs. Everett McGee and Mrs. Jessie Neill, of Ashland, were afternoon callers Tuesday at the

B. A. Montgomery home.

Mrs. Minnie McClain is again in Brisbie, Calif., staying at the home of her daughter and son-in-law. She is receiving treatments for an allergy there.

Marion Troxel and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Garner and twin daughters left Friday for Shasta lake, where they will spend the weekend boating.

Mrs. Arthur Boner has moved her beauty shop from the Skinner building into the building on the highway north of Phoenix, which was formerly occupied by Stout Realty. The building was newly decorated for her business.

A baby shower was given for Mrs. William Newman by Mrs. Dorothy Thompson at the Thompson, home July 23. There were about 20 guests present.

Friday, Aug. 2, Mrs. Dorothy Thompson was hostess for a potluck picnic supper at her home for the nurses at the county farm. There was 15 in attendance.

Mrs. Albert Arnold is in Portland this month visiting with her daughter's family, Dr. and Mrs. Rae Foster and children.

Keith Thompson is entering Walter Reed hospital in Washington, D. C. Aug. 12 for surgery.
