

Dick Mayer Claims Prize in Tam Golf

By ED SAINSBURY

Chicago — Dick Mayer played to win for only four holes, but two birdies on those, earned him Tam O'Shanter's World tournament and golf's biggest payday — $50,000 cash.

National Open champion Mayer finished 10 holes in 279, nine under par, with a spurt which overcame a deficit of five strokes to Sam Snead and four to Al Balding before they began the last 18 holes.

Mayer knocked his third shot four feet from the pin on 13 and dropped the putt for one birdie. In the 16th, though trapped on his drive, he blasted six feet from the pin for a par, and on the 17th, he fired his second shot out of the rough nine feet from the flag and sank the putt for the other birdie.

Mayer, with 211 after 54 holes compared to 206 for Snead, 207 for Balding, 208 for Mike Souchak, 209 for Art Wall, and 210 for Gene Littler and Shelley Mayfield, never went over par on his final round.

Littler toured the course in 71, one under par, while Snead took a 74 and Balding a 73.

Balding and Snead tied for second, winning $7,500 while George Bayer and Littler tied for fourth each getting $2,750.

Souchak fifth for 206.

Fifth money of $2,000 went to Souchak, with 282, while Bob Rosburg, Dow Finsterwald and Wall shared seventh at 284, each winning $1,800. Others to break par were Arnold Palmer and Jerry Barber at 285, winning $1,500 each, Mayfield at 286 for $1,300, and Bob Harris, Marty Furgol, Ed Oliver, Earl Stewart and Bill Casper at 287 for $1,000 each.

The women pros scrap for $6,000 top prize money ended in a tie between Patty Berg, Chicago, and Fay Crocker, Montevideo, Uruguay, each shooting a final-round 76 for 302, two under par. They will play off to determine the winner today with the loser of the extra round taking second money of $2,000.

Clifford Ann Creed, Opelousas, La., won the women's amateur title with 317, 10 strokes better than Lois Drafke, Chicago, and Don Cherry, Wichita Falls, Tex., took the men's amateur with 296.

Yankee Netters Hang On To Cup

Pittsburgh — A United States, buttressed by experience and the tradition of winning, retained a firm grasp on the Wightman Cup tennis trophy today by the youthful and willing British challengers warned they'll be waiting in 1958 with another year's competition to toughen their game.

America's women tennis titans rolled to a 6-1 victory at nearby Edgeworth club Sunday and Saturday to keep the international challenge cup here for the 21st time in a row and the 25th time in the 29 years of competition.

Mattisons Win In Father-Son

Oswego — Lloyd and Jack Mattison of Eugene won the Oregon Golf association's Father-Son title Sunday by a one-stroke margin.

The Mattison duo fired a gross score of 142 to edge out M. L. Halkmark and his son, Joe, of Roseburg.

Savitt, Seixas Vie in Finals

South Orange, N.J. — Two former Wimbledon champions, Dick Savitt of South Orange, and Vic Seixas of Philadelphia, meet today for the Eastern Grass courts tennis championship.

Savitt, who won at Wimbledon in 1951 and then, several months later, dropped out of big-time tennis to devote attention to the oil business, upset top-seeded Hamilton Richardson in the semi-finals Sunday, 3-6, 6-2, 7-5, 4-6, 6-3. Lakeview Softballers Get Tournament Spot; Top Crater Lake 4-3

Two games in the Jackson County Softball association this evening with the first at 7 p.m. Morse Motors and the Rogue Valley Dairy Maids vie in the opener and Courtney Chevrolet and M and W Chain Saw collide in the second fracas.

Camp White — West Coast Life Insurance company of Lakeview won a berth in the Oregon state men's softball tournament by nipping Crater Lake Motors of Medford 4 to 3 here Saturday night in an area playoff conflict.

The victory made it two straight for West Coast in a two of three series. Lakeview won 3 to 2 on Thursday.

In an exhibition after the seven-inning counting game on Saturday the teams halted after nine innings with the score knotted at 6 each.

Harris' homer on a bad hop ball in the outfield was the payoff in Saturday's play-off scuffle. The blow came in the first inning and drove in three runs. West Coast got another marker in the third frame.

Crater Lake picked up two tallies in the opening canto and almost caught up in the seventh. Two hits and a base on balls accounted for one marker and the Motormen were retired with a man on third base when the Lakeview shortstop made a sensational catch of Don Wendt's high foul ball.

In the exhibition the Insurance team took a four-run lead and the Medford club, leader in the Jackson County association, tied the tussle with a four-run surge in the sixth panel.

In each of the engagements the Medford team outlived the Lakeview team. Crater Lake swatted five safeties to their opponents three in the opener and the difference was four to two in the nightcap.

The state meet opens Aug. 17 at Oregon City.

Medford Cheney Studs divided hitting honors and came out with an 8 to 4 victory over Camp White at the fairgrounds Sunday in the Rogue Valley Baseball league.

Pitcher Duane Sides got the win, with an assist the last 3 1/2 innings from Jerry Bartow.

Camp White scored first when, in the top of the second frame, Phil Sward walked, John Eggink singled, and Al Kimura shot a sharp grounder to shortstop.

Medford came back with two runs in its half of the second. John Kovenz and rank Roelandt drew walks. With two out, fleet-footed Frank Rector blasted a triple to center field, scoring the two men.

Big Fifth Inning

In the fourth, Camp White's Al Kimura beat out a punt, went to second on a fielder's choice and came home when Red Hermann singled to left field.

Medford's big inning was the fifth. Ron Owings, with two out and Ed Reinking and Kovenz on base, pushed the ball over right field fence for a round trip home.

Camp White retaliated in the sixth. Larry Irwin walked, went to second on a baseman's error, and scored on a single by Dennis Conner. Keith Johnson made it to first on a fielder's choice, and was advanced by Bill Seymour's single. Here, Medford Manager Roelandt called in mound star Jerry Bartow, who struck out Wootton to retire the side.

The Studs got three more runs, two in the sixth inning when Bartow's single scored Roelandt and Rector, and one in the seventh. Jerry Droscher slammed a triple and was sacrificed home by Roelandt.
