

Cache of Rifles Seized at Miami

Miami — Customs agents early today seized a huge cache of rifles, machine guns and 50,000 rounds of ammunition believed destined for insurgents camped in the Cuban mountain jungles.

Two men were arrested and authorities hunted three more believed involved in a plot to ship arms to Cuban rebel leader Fidel Castro, who is trying to overthrow Cuban President Fulgencio Batista.

Charles Wyatt, supervisor of customs in Miami, identified the men arrested as Gil De Gijbaja, 46, an American citizen of Cuban descent living in Miami, and Alfredo C. Z. Gonzalez, 38, who said he is a farmer. He told officers he was from Havana.

The men were charged with violation of the neutrality act and jailed pending further action.

Patterson's Opens Medford Division

A Medford division of Patterson's bakery began operations here last week at 1242 North Central ave. George Patterson, owner, has announced.

The new wholesale bakery will service stores and restaurants in southern Oregon, with sweet goods baked in Medford and breads baked in the Roseburg section of the company Patterson said.

The firm's quarters, which once housed the old Medford Blowpipe company, were remodelled at a cost of several thousand dollars, he said.

Dave Harem, Patterson's son-in-law, will manage the plant and Dean Peden is assistant manager. About 10 persons are employed here.

Patterson has been in the bakery business in Roseburg for the past 15 years and has serviced stores and restaurants in Medford and Grants Pass the past year.

Good Selection of Seats Still Available at Plays

Ashland—A good selection of seats is still available for all remaining performances at the Oregon Shakespearean Festival, but Rogue valley residents are urged to secure their reservations as soon as possible, according to William W. Patton, Festival general manager. Attendance for the three full rounds of plays showed a substantial increase over last year, and that advance ticket orders are still leading 1956, he said.

Special activities this week include the third in the series of Trinity Noon Readings and Gresham lectures.

Dr. Margery Bailey, director of the institute of renaissance studies, has announced that Edward Brubaker of Franklin and Marshall college, the stage manager for the Festival company, will be featured at the Trinity Noon Reading, Wednesday, Aug. 14. Brubaker will read "The History of Tom Thumb," Henry Fielding's parody on 16th and 17th century tragedy. This will be at Trinity hall.

Thursday marks the third of the Gresham lectures, scheduled for 4 p.m. in the assembly room at the Ashland Public Library. Robert B. Loper of Stanford university, director of this year's "Henry VIII," and "Pericles" productions, will discuss "Producing Shakespeare's Stepchildren," an analysis of the problems encountered in staging "Timon," "Titus Andronicus," and "Pericles."

Weather Brings 15th Atomic Test Delay

Las Vegas, Nev. — The Atomic Energy Commission lost a battle with the weather early today and was forced to call the 15th postponement in the firing of its "Shasta" nuclear device.

The test was set for 4 a.m. (p.s.t.) but less than an hour before the device was to be triggered atop a 500-foot tower, scientists decided that wind conditions could carry fallout over populated areas near the Nevada Proving Ground. The AEC will try again at the same time Wednesday.

The much-delayed "Shasta" test originally was scheduled July 29. Unfavorable weather led to the postponements, a record number for the 1957 series. Two other tests will be delayed at least 10 days because of the setback in the AEC's schedule.
