

Portland Edged Last Night, 10-6 In Double Sweep

Portland — The Sacramento Solons edged Portland for a 6-5 win in the nightcap to go to an earlier 10-6 victory to sweep a Pacific Coast league doubleheader from the Beavers before 1375 fans Monday night.

Bevo catcher Ron Bottler dropped a pop fly five yards from the base path to allow Jim Westlake and Jim Greengrass to score on the error in the first inning. Lytle Olsen hit his third home run of the year.

Before Portland came to bat in the game, Sacramento had chalked up five runs on three hits, all unearned.

Girl Leads Swim Meet In Texas

Houston, Tex. — The Los Angeles Athletic Club, led by a 13-year-old girl, was favored to win the team championship of the National Women's AAU swimming and diving meet which opens today.

The 13-year-old girl, Molly Botkin, already is the 100-yard freestyle record holder. Another top California prospect is 13-year-old Chris von Salza of the Santa Clara club, who holds two American records—a 2:44.9 in the 250-yard freestyle and a 5:48.7 in the 800-yard freestyle.

Patty Kempner, 14, of the Kris Kristenson swim team of Los Angeles, is the national indoor 100-yard breaststroke champion, also entered.

Two Australian girls, Dawn Fraser and Lorraine Crapp, Olympic champions and world record holders in the freestyle events, are also among the entries.

Defending champion Walter Reed Swim Club of Washington, D.C., had sent a strong team bolstered by Shelley Mann, 100-meter butterfly champion.

Berg Putts To $15,768

Chicago — Patty Berg, with $6,000 first prize money, World tournament at Tam O'Shanter in her purse today had a total of $15,768 in winnings for the year.

Miss Berg won the World on an edge of two strokes over Fay Crocker, of Uruguay, in their playoff for the women's professional title.

The chunky titleholder's addition of the first prize money to her account put her nearly $5,000 beyond Miss Crocker, whose $2,000 in second-place money gave her a total of $10,796.85 for 1957.

Miss Berg, a Chicagoan, was even or ahead throughout the tussle with the challenging Uruguayan shotmaker.

Miss Berg's previous 1957 wins were the titleholders, the Western Open and the All-American at Tam O'Shanter. She was forced into the playoff when she and Miss Crocker wound up with 302 apiece at the end of 72 holes of regular play.

Sgt. Shoots For Title

Camp Perry, Ohio — Army M/Sgt. Huelet L. (Joe) Brenner of West Point, N.Y., began defending his national pistol championship today against 1,300 other military and civilian sharpshooters at this Lake Erie post.

The marksmen and women open three days of hand-gun firing by shooting 22 caliber pistols at paper targets in the slow fire, timed fire, rapid fire, international rapid fire silhouette and national match course events. The shooters stand 25 and 30 yards and 25 meters from the targets.

Wednesday, the experts switch to 38 caliber pistols and Thursday use .45 caliber weapons, with the total score determining the national pistol championship.

Martin Holds Stingy Title

San Francisco — Morrie Martin of the second-place Vancouver Mounties held the title of stingiest pitcher in the Pacific Coast league this week with an excellent earned run average of 1.71 in 142 innings of hurling.

Percentage-wise, Bill Abernethy of San Francisco topped the league with 12 wins and two losses for an .857 mark.

Keely of the Seals had the most wins with 17 and Jim (Mudcat) Grant of San Diego was tops in strikeouts with 122. On the debit side, Roger Osenbaugh of Sacramento had the most losses with 14.

Semi-Finals Reached in Senior Meet

Bill Catey is matched against Glen Fabrick and George Stacey against Merlon Emmans in the semi-finals for the senior men's golf championship of Rogue Valley Country club.

In the junior club tourney Tom Hamlin won the junior division laurels last week by subduing Tony Monroe. Doug Olson took the pee wee division with a decision over Richie Knight and Pam Stacey was the girls' winner, defeating Carolyn Mencke. Mike Monroe is to meet John Kerr in the boys' division.

Catey advanced in senior quarter-finals by turning back Larry Butler 4 and 3 while Fabrick won by default over Jack Mitchell. Stacey defeated Lloyd Pope 2 and 1 and Emmans required 20 holes to trim Lelaad Clark.

Left Bates won from Forrest Casey 2 and 1 in the first flight quarter-finals. Matches in the flight to be played are Stoy Elliott versus Harry Jewett, Marvin Clark versus Al Littrell and Ted Porterfield versus Roland Hubbard.

One second flight semi-final has been contested with Austin Layman clipping E. K. Ricker 2 up. Jerry Cottingham is to meet Morris Leonard Sr. in the other tussle. Third finalists are A. C. Broyles and B. L. Marten.

Studs Host Strong Sox This Wednesday

One of the top semi-pro baseball rivalries in Oregon, between teams which rank with the best in the state, will be concluded for 1957 on Wednesday when the Medford Cheney Studs are hosts to the Drain Black Sox.

Game time is 8 p.m. at the fairgrounds field.

No loop honors are at stake tomorrow but a lot of prestige is involved. With the clubs each having tripped each other twice this season this fifth matching will be the rubber encounter. Drain currently is trying to prove itself best in state by competing in the American Amateur Baseball congress tournament at Portland. If the Studs can whip the Sox and Drain goes on to

Rams, Cards Share Field With Bevos

Portland — Multnomah stadium will be a beehive of activity Labor day week end with a heavy schedule of baseball games and a professional football encounter between the Chicago Cardinals and Los Angeles Rams.

The Rams and Cardinals will wage their gridiron feud at 8:30 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 31. Because of the football fray, the Portland Beavers have rescheduled their baseball tangle with the Vancouver Mounties for afternoon.

That means that as soon as the baseball game is finished John Howie, superintendent of the stadium, and his crew will have to hustle to get the field ready for that night's football battle.

Howie will have only a few hours to mark the field, install the goal posts and get the players' benches and field phones ready.

Spokane Lady In Qualifier

Spokane — Mrs. Ed George, Spokane, won medalist honors on her home course Monday in the qualifying rounds of the Washington State Women's Amateur Golf Championship tourney.

Mrs. George qualified with a 79 for the par 73 18-hole course. Mrs. Virgil Skone, Spokane and Mrs. D. B. Allison, Seattle, tied at second place with an 83.

Match play was to begin today and will continue through Friday at the Spokane Country club.

Savitt Drops Cup Tourney

South Orange, N.J. — Tall and husky Dick Savitt, who trounced America's two top tennis players in marching to the Eastern Grass Courts championship, told the U. S. Davis Davis Cup committee today not to get its hopes up.

The 30-year-old Savitt defeated Viv Seixas of Philadelphia in the championship match Monday, 6-4, 6-4, 1-6, 8-6, after having whipped the U.S.'s No. 1 ranking player, Ham Richardson, in the semi-finals.

"I'm not interested in Davis Cup play," said Savitt after the final match. "As a matter of fact, I may not even play in the nationals at Forest Hills. It will depend on whether my business permits it."

Savitt's game was not quite at its peak against Seixas, and he had troubles with his service but his ground strokes and volleys at the net were too strong for 33-year-old Seixas, who has yet to win the Eastern championship in 10 years of trying, although he has taken the Wimbledon and Forest Hills titles.

Mary Ann Mitchell of San Leandro, Calif., won the women's singles with a 6-2, 6-2 conquest of Jeanne Arth of St. Paul, Minn., and Barbara Davidson of Milwaukee and Mrs. Pat Todd of La Jolla, Calif., won the women's doubles over Janet Hopps of Seattle and Diana Wootton of Santa Monica, Calif., 6-1, 6-1.

The men's doubles went to the Australian team of Roy Emerson and Bob Mark, with a 4-6, 8-6, 9-7, 4-6, 6-3 triumph over the English Davis Cup team of Mike Davis and Bob Wilson.

Parker Quits Lions Nominates Successor

By JACK BERRY
Detroit Press Sports Writer
Detroit — Buddy Parker said today he definitely quits as head coach of the Detroit Lions and he nominated assistant coach George Wilson to take his place when the Lions open the exhibition season here Wednesday night against the Cleveland Browns.

Parker shocked President Edwin J. Anderson, many of the directors and all of the players, at the annual "Meet the Lions Banquet" Monday night by announcing his resignation.

"When you get to the situation where you can't handle your football players it's time to get out and that's what I'm doing tonight," said Parker, one of the most successful coaches in pro ranks.

The effect couldn't have been greater than if an atomic bomb had been dropped. For a moment there was a dead silence then a milling, buzzing crowd. Anderson hurriedly conferred with General Manager W. Nicholas Kerby and then went to the speaker's stand.

Will Not Reconsider
"I'm sure Buddy is just emotionally upset over two things that happened today," Anderson said. "With a good night's sleep to think it over and realize what he's said in public, he'll reconsider." he said as fans yelled "don't be a quitter, Buddy!"

But Parker says he has no intention of reconsidering. "Detroit is just dead," the Texan drawled later. "I've been in pro football as a player and a coach since 1935 and I know what I can do with a team. So far in practice this year I have not been able to do anything with them," Parker said.

He refused to single out any players and said he knew "nothing" of the "two things" that Anderson talked about.

"I'm not through with foot-
