

Studs, Talent Tangle This Saturday Night

Medford Cheney Studs gun for a perfect regular season in the Rogue Valley league Saturday night when they have their last game on the schedule.

Ashland - Talent baseballers will be hosts to the Studs although the engagement will be in the Cheney's own ball yard. It's Talent's turn for a home game with the Studs. However, the third place crew chose the better facilities of the Cheney diamond over its home quarters at Ashland. Talent will have last bats each inning.

Game time on the fairgrounds field is 8 p.m.

Softballers Vie Saturday

Second round in double elimination play-offs in the YMCA Church Softball league will be Saturday night at Memorial field, Camp White with first round losers to play in the opening tangle and first round victors to meet in the other fracas.

Action at 7 p.m. matches First Church of the Nazarene and First Methodist with the loser to be eliminated from the play-offs. First Baptist and St. Peter Lutheran are rivals in the Saturday finale.

Winner of the first game will play the loser of the second on the next evening of contention.

Beavers Not Being Sold

Portland — Officials of the Portland baseball club, seeking a new general manager to replace ousted Joe Ziegler, denied today that the club was for sale.

"There is absolutely no truth to the report that the Beavers are due to be sold," a club director said. He was replying to rumors that the Chicago Cubs might buy the Beavers.

The director hinted that a new general manager may not be named until after the present season ends. Bill Mulflur, Ziegler's assistant, is handling the GM job at present.

Portland — Officials of the Portland baseball club, seeking a new general manager to replace ousted Joe Ziegler, denied today that the club was for sale.

Headed by the quest for the batting mantle is Ron Maurer of Cave Junction with .515. Frank Roelandt of Medford with 15 more times at bat has .479 and Dick Wooton of Camp White ranked third with .441. Frank Rector and Ron Owens of Medford have .429 and .426.

Roelandt is front in runs, hits and runs batted in with 24, 23 and 21.

In team batting Medford is far ahead of the field with .351. Cave Junction follows with .279.

Duane Sides of Medford and Bartow top pitchers with 6-0 and 4-0 marks. Bartow has possibly the top over all record. He has struck out 55, walked only eight and given up 27 hits and 11 runs in 40 1-3 innings. Fitch of Talent (4-2) has been the league workhorse with 51 2-3 innings on the mound.

Idaho Resident Scores Ace First Time on Links

Cave Junction — Some strive all their days for it. Even prove make the headlines when it happens.

But only the fortune touched few can saunter out on a golf course for the first time in their lives—and wham out a hole in one!

Such a person is John Anderson of Bonville, Idaho.

While visiting his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Millard at Cave Junction, novice Anderson was enticed onto the fairways by his brother-in-law, a Lion's club tournament semifinalist.

On the fourth hole, Anderson's course here.

2nd Division Teams Win

By UNITED PRESS
Second division clubs hung it on the leaders in Northwest league action Thursday, avenging defeats of the previous night. Second-place Eugene managed to salvage half of a twin bill at Lewiston, however, to move up a half game on pace-setting Wenatchee, 4-3 losers to last-place Tri-City.

The results: Yakima 8 Salem 3, Eugene 3 Lewiston 2 in the opener, and the Broncs 12 Engene 7 in the nightcap.
