

New State Hospital Construction Starts At Groundbreaking

Wilsonville — Twenty-five years of planning bore its first fruit here Friday afternoon at groundbreaking ceremonies for the new F. H. Dammasch state hospital.

Applying foot to shovel were Gov. Robert D. Holmes, Secretary of State Mark Hatfield, State Treasurer Sig Unander, Mrs. F. H. Dammasch, and two daughters, Mrs. Donald Siegmund and Mrs. Max Carman, all of Portland.

The new 15 million dollar general mental hospital will be the most expensive institution in state history when it is completed in 1963 to house 1500 patients.

Dr. Dammasch, Portland physician and legislator, first envisioned the hospital 25 years ago as an institution for aged patients.

Approved by People
That idea was approved by the people in 1952. When the state legislature decided there was more need for a general mental hospital, that idea was also approved by the people in 1954.

Speaking for the board of control before about 200 persons gathered for ceremonies, Secretary of State Hatfield said:

"As we break ground for a gigantic facility for mental illness, we must be ever mindful that we cannot depend entirely on modern structures and wonder drugs to do a job for rehabilitation. The caliber of personnel and the degree of public support are the measuring sticks for the job that will be done here."

Hatfield said it was the hope of the board that the institution might "re-illuminate the mind, restore the spirit and reunite families."

Dr. John Evans, chairman of the Mental Hygiene committee of the State Medical society, said he hoped that Dammasch would become a dynamic hospital, not just a group of buildings.

Mrs. Margaret M. Sharp, chairman of the Mental Health association's hospital committee, thanked the many citizens and

Albany Child Killed In Bicycle Mishap

Albany — Matthew Lundberg, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lundberg, Albany, was killed instantly Friday night when he rode his bicycle in front of an automobile near the southeast city limits of Albany.

According to deputy coroner Walter Kropp, the driver of the car — Edmund LeRoy Mapes, 35, Albany — did not see the boy but stopped his car after feeling a slight bump, and then seeing the wheel of a bicycle in the rear view mirror.

Kropp said the boy had emerged from a lane onto south Waverly drive on which Mapes was traveling south. He added the noise of a threshing machine operating nearby may have drowned out the sound of the approaching car.

The dead boy's father is an Albany Union high school teacher. Matthew was the oldest of five children in the family.

FBI Says Mrs. Burton Embezzled $100,000

Atlanta — The FBI Saturday fingered Mrs. Margaret Lydia Burton, veteran "con artist" of the tea and crumpets set, as the master embezzler who fleeced a group of local doctors of $100,000.

Mrs. Burton, said the FBI, is the so-called Mrs. Janet Gray, who wormed her way into the best social set in suburban Decatur, dipped into the till of a local clinic where she worked to the tune of some $100,000 and then made a circus style escape from the city as auditors closed in on the swindle.

The FBI said the crime career of the 51-year-old Mrs. Burton, a woman of many aliases and many talents, spanned the ocean and covered a continent.

SPOT ANSWER NEEDED

Chicago — How do you pacify a grouchy baby leopard? That is the question today at the Brookfield Zoo. The zoo has decided to try a teething ring rubbed with catnip to calm down an indignant 10-week-old leopard deserted by its mother at birth.

Washington Boy Found Saturday

Goldendale, Wash. — Five-year-old Ricky Craig, missing in the Gifford Pinchot national forest since Thursday, was found about 6:30 a.m. Saturday in good shape.

The Klickitat County Sheriff's office said the boy was found by members of a Hollenbeck logging crew.

"He's in good shape but wet and exhausted," the sheriff's office said.

Young Ricky was found about two miles from where he disappeared Thursday while on a huckleberry picking expedition with his parents.

He was immediately examined by a doctor and taken to a hospital at White Salmon.

More than 1,000 volunteers had joined in the search by Saturday.

Ricky's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Craig of Harrah, Wash., were forced by fatigue to withdraw to a guard station Friday.

The boy had become separated from his parents while the family was huckleberry picking in the Surprise lake area about 23 miles northwest of Trout lake.

Employment Hard to Find in Alaska

Olympia — Job-seekers should not go to Alaska to look for work, State Employment Security Commissioner Peter R. Glavin warned Saturday.

Glavin said recent reports from the Alaska Employment Security Commission indicated that about 10 per cent of the territory's work force is unemployed and the labor surplus is expected to continue.

All-Cargo Service Eastward Scheduled

Burbank, Calif. — The first through-plane, all-cargo service between the Pacific Northwest and major midwestern and eastern terminals will be inaugurated by the Flying Tiger Line about Oct. 1, it was announced Saturday by Flying Tiger President Robert W. Prescott.

Prescott said the decision to expand the Northwest service resulted from traffic growth and the demands of shippers for increased airfreight.

The Flying Tiger, which has been using twin-engine C-46 shuttles between Seattle and Portland and its transcontinental base at San Francisco, will replace this service with four-engine Lockheed Super H. Constellation aircraft on through-schedules to Chicago and New York, he said.

"With the extension of Constellation service to the Northwest," Prescott said, "shippers there will have a real chance to make the same kind of use of air freight that shippers in other major markets of the country are making with our Constellation equipment."

Esther Williams Says Bikini Suit for Her

Rome — Screen mermaid Esther Williams said Saturday that Europe has converted her to the Bikini swimsuit. The American actress, here filming a picture, said she has given away all the one-piece suits which were her trademark in the United States.

"Once you get used to it (Bikini), it no longer seems so daring," she said. "I feel sure that once American women begin wearing them, they will wear nothing else on the beaches."

Let's face it, they do wonders for a girl with a figure."

Sports Car Accident Fatal to Eugene Man

Eugene — One man was killed and his companion injured here Friday night when the sports car they were driving collided with the rear of another car at an intersection.

William E. Nagle, 22, was killed and John Z. O'Conner, 23, was seriously hurt in the accident. Both had Eugene addresses.

Hal M. Westover, driver of the second car, was not hurt.

Oregon Man Killed In California Crash

Marysville, Calif. — Two men were killed and one of the victims' wife and daughter were injured Friday night in a two-car, head-on collision on Highway 99E eight miles south of here.

Officers named the dead as Dale Lee Trimble, 29, Stayton, Ore., and Charles Ritter, 24, Wheatland, Calif.

Ritter's wife, Bertha, 20, was in critical condition at Yuba County hospital here as a result of the smashup. Their small daughter, Donna, 3, was in serious condition at the hospital.

Investigators said it appeared possible that the northbound car driven by Ritter could have swerved into the southbound lane and hit the Oregonian's auto, but inquiries still were being made. Both cars were demolished.

ANIMAL IN-STINKED

Racine, Wis. — Dog warden Ruth File pickup up a box at the post office Friday, but wishes he hadn't. The box contained a skunk which had been wearing them, they will wear nothing else on the beaches.

Let's face it, they do wonders for a girl with a figure."

Police Arrest Man For Portland Murder

Portland — William Edward Morris, 35, of Portland was slain by five bullets here Friday night and police arrested a 43-year-old construction worker on a first degree murder charge.

Officers said Cecil Hose Black, Portland, was charged with the shooting. Last May Black had been shot three times by Morris after an argument at Clatskanie, officers reported.

Detectives said Black told them, "I shot him. He had it coming."

Morris' body was found in a bedroom of his home. He had been shot twice in the shoulder, in the back of the neck, in the stomach and in the left side below the ribs.
