Farewell Dinner Is Held

By MRS. M. F. CAVIN
Hilts—Approximately 300 attended a potluck farewell dinner Saturday night at the Community Grove for Mr. and Mrs. John Barbers and girls. Barbara has managed the local store for the past 15 years and recently sold it to Ging and Remo Trinca, owners of the State Line Service, and has accepted a position with a firm in Redding where he and his family will live.

After the dinner friends went to the new recreation hall at the Community center, where gifts were presented to the family.

In addition to local residents attending, salesmen, their wives and families, and former residents of this community now living in nearby towns also attended.

Mr. and Mrs. John James and girls of Oakland and Mr. and Mrs. Jake Lindner and daughter of M. Shasta attended a family picnic and barbecue at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Seif Sunday. Mr. James and Mrs. Lindner are the Seif's daughters.

Tuesday visitors at the Louis Dittmar home were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Lustenberger of San Francisco, Calif.

Spending a week end at their cabin on Evans creek were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Smith and daughters.

Chad Peery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Perry of Yreka, spent several days at the Victor Vande Weghe home last week.

Mrs. Joe Caston, who fell at her home Friday, was in Yreka Wednesday to receive medical treatment.

A 3c Tom Mills who is stationed at Stead's Air Force base near Reno, Nev., was a week end visitor at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Mills, and brother Freddie.

Week end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Vande Weghe were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stickney and daughters of San Mateo. They returned home Sunday evening. Other visitors on Saturday and Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Chris Wolff of Medford and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Stickney, also of Medford.

Approximately 40 children are attending the Red Cross swimming instruction at the city pool in Yreka. Transportation is furnished by the school bus, driven by Mario Michelin. Each day two mothers accompany the children.

Fred Haynes underwent surgery Tuesday at the St. Francis hospital in San Francisco, Calif., and at the latest reports is getting along as well as can be expected. Mrs. Haynes accompanied her husband to San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McFerrin of Redding were week end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Spannaus.

Mrs. James Cain and children of Ashland visited friends here Thursday.

Mrs. Roy Runsey of Ashland was calling on friends here Friday.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Smith Wednesday, Aug. 7, at the Siskiyou County and General hospital. He has been named William Shane.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fish Barbera and Mrs. A. Barbera of Redding visited at the John Barbera home this week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Donovan Ward and daughter attended the baptismal ceremony for the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert De Voe in Medford Friday. Donovan Ward is godfather and Judy Gilchrist of Klamath Falls is godmother of young John Lloyd. Accompanying Wards to Medford was Frank Ward of Hornbrook.
