

Youth Being Held For Shooting Brother

Oregon City — Clyde Dewain Feyer, 19, was held in the Clackamas county jail here Sunday on a charge of homicide in connection with the shooting of his brother, Leonard Augustus Feyer, 21, Saturday night.

The brother died two hours after being shot in the abdomen by the youth with a .22-caliber rifle at the Feyer farm home about two miles southeast of Molalla.

Clackamas county deputy David Spear said the victim had been drinking, and the shooting was the result of an argument.

Young Feyer said he was only trying to "frighten" his brother with the gun, and that he had not been aware it was loaded.

RADIOACTIVE FARM

London — Farmers in space suits driving tractors in plastic jackets have been cultivating a radioactive farm near Newbury, Berkshire, it was reported today. The magazine Nature said the farm is an experiment to determine how quickly land contaminated by atomic fallout could be placed under cultivation again.

Dallas Woman Killed In Two-Car Crash

Dallas, Ore. — Mrs. Bessie Elkins Abbott, 79, Dallas, was killed Sunday in a two-car collision near here.

Mrs. Abbott was in a car driven by her daughter, Mrs. Edna McCleary when it was struck by another car driven by a teen-age boy. Another teen-ager was in the car at the time.

An eyewitness said that Mrs. McCleary had made a complete stop at a corner and had started to make a left hand turn when the other car struck her car.

The two teen-age boys and Mrs. McCleary were taken to a hospital where their condition was reported "not serious."

Salem Boy Drowns In Creek Saturday

Salem — Charles Wagoner, 13, drowned in Mill creek Saturday evening after apparently falling off the bridge at 21st street near State street, east of the downtown area.

Wagoner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Wagoner, Salem, and a companion, 16-year-old Leroy Miller, were on their way to the Wagoner boy's home, police said.

A passerby, Larry Lee Karau, 17, Salem, leaped into the creek and attempted to rescue the youngster, but the boy slipped from his grasp while they were heading for shore.

Police located the body shortly afterward.

Gun Found in Cell of Prisoner in Roseburg

Roseburg — A gun was found in the cell of a prisoner in the Douglas county jail Saturday.

It was found in the cell of Gary Lee Williams, 18, Fresno, Calif., by under-sheriff Carl Smith of Douglas county who was making a routine "shake-down" of the jail.

The gun was a .22 calibre pistol filled with blanks. Williams, charged with burglary not in a dwelling, is being held in an isolation cell. He told Smith that he found the gun in the cell.

Smith said that because of the incident, a new procedure will be started on "shaking down" prisoners before they are put in the cell. He did not elaborate on what the new procedure would be.
