

First No-Hitter of Campaign Hurlled By Chicago White Sox's Bob Keegan

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer

There was a short pause in the pennant races today to welcome Bob Keegan into the no-hit, no-run fraternity and to let the Yankees ponder why they ever allowed him to get away to the White Sox.

Keegan, a 36-year-old right-hander, was cut loose by the Yankees five years ago, written off as a chronic sore-arm case who would never make his mark in the majors. But he did it Tuesday night when he pitched the first no-hitter of the season to beat Washington, 6-0, in the nightcap of a two-night double-header. The Senators won the opener, 5-4.

Keegan walked only two batters in fashioning his no-hitter, the first in regular major league season competition since Sal Maglie of the Dodgers turned in one against the Phillies last Sept. 25. The only no-hitter since then was Don Larsen's perfect game against the Dodgers in the World Series last Oct. 8.

The victory was Keegan's eighth of the season and it was made possible by a five-run third inning, during which Larry Doby hit a two-run homer. Ed Fitzgerald's eighth inning homer for the Senators broke up a 4-4 tie in the opener.

Ralph Terry, another pitcher the Yankees let get away, came back to haunt them Tuesday night when he beat them, 1-0, for Kansas City. The A's collected only two hits off Bob Turley but those hits resulted in the only run of the game when Woody Held doubled in the fifth inning and scored on Tim Thompson's single.

The loss was Turley's first against the Athletics, whom he had defeated 11 times previously during his career. It was also Kansas City's second victory over the Yanks this season in 18 meetings.

Cleveland beat Boston, 5-4, and Detroit licked Baltimore, 5-1, in the other American league games.

Braves Beat Pirates
In the National league, first-place Milwaukee rallied for two runs in the ninth to defeat Pittsburgh, 3-1; the Cardinals took two games from the Giants, 4-3 and 3-2; Brooklyn swept a pair from Cincinnati, winning the opener, 11-5, and the 12-inning nightcap, 8-5, while the Cubs beat the Phillies, 5-2, in the nightcap after dropping the first game, 2-1, in 10 innings.

Early Wynn preserved Cleveland's victory when he halted a three-run rally in the ninth inning by the Red Sox. Gene Woodling's eighth inning homer proved to be the deciding run. Ted Williams went hitless in two official trips to the plate, his batting average dropping to .389.

Jim Bunning of the Tigers struck out 10 batters and limited the Orioles to seven hits in notching his 15th victory. Ray Boone gave Bunning all the margin he needed with a two-run homer in the first inning and the Tigers added three more runs in the third off loser Skinny Brown.

Spahn Wins 15th
Southpaw Warren Spahn of the Braves held the Pirates to seven hits in gaining his 15th triumph. With the score tied 1-1, the Braves pushed over a pair of runs in the ninth on Red Schoendienst's single, Eddie Mathews' triple and another

Talbert Displays Court Prowess
Chestnut Hill, Mass. — U.S. Davis Cup Captain Billy Talbert might be tempted to play himself in the challenge round if he continues his current success in the third round today of the 77th annual national doubles championship.

And well he might if he maintains the same prowess and stamina he displayed Tuesday with Gil Shea in sweeping a couple of his Davis Cup charges out of the second round at the Longwood Cricket club.

Talbert and Shea, the 28-year-old Californian who is ninth-ranked nationally, staged a terrific show of doubles tennis as they ousted Sam Giammalva and Barry MacKay, seventh-seeded, 9-7, 7-5, 4-6, 4-6, 9-7.

Today they played Straight Clark of Philadelphia and David Harum of Miami, Fla., in a featured match while the seven surviving seeded teams were facing more so-so competition.

Whirling Door Game Between Pads, Stars

By JIM HEALY
United Press Sports Writer

The third place squabble between Hollywood and San Diego is taking on the aspect of two men in an endlessly revolving door, with no one inside long enough to take off his hat and coat.

This trip around, the honors belong to San Diego. The Pads defeated Vancouver, 2-1, while Hollywood was pushed back into fourth place as a result of a 5 to 0 beating it took at the hands of Sacramento.

Padre winning hurler Bill Werle, starting his first game since coming from Portland, showed his teammates what he could do in walking one, while allowing nine hits. San Diego scored in the fourth and sixth on singles for its tallies. Vancouver made one vain effort in the ninth when Owen Friend homered with none on. The Stars couldn't seem to get their normally tough offense under way. They managed to load the bases with one out in the fifth but winner Roger Bowman got out the next two men to retire the side.

Tommy Agosta collected three runs for the Solons, one a bases empty homer in the fifth. Jim Greengrass got another with his roundtripper in the eighth with none on. Bowman gave up only five hits in going the distance to give the Solons their second straight over Hollywood.

In other loop contests, the Seals downed Seattle 4 to 1, while Los Angeles blasted Portland twice in the night's only doubleheader, 6 to 4 and 6 to 1. Steve Bilko hit his 44th homer in the first Los Angeles-Portland contest, then came back in the nightcap for his 45th. The only runs of the night for Portland came in the fourth and fifth frames of the first contest. Bob Borkowski homered with one on in the fourth and Luis Marquez did the same in the next inning. On the Angel side, Earl Battey hit a homer in the first game and Tom Saffell blasted one in the second.

Portland used six pitchers during the night as opposed to two for the double winning Angels.

STATE ALL-STAR—Dick Cople, ex-Medford high gridiron star, is expected to be on the receiving end of State aerials in the Shrine All-Star football game this Saturday evening at Multnomah stadium. The Staters will meet the Metropolitan stars in the 10th annual contest. Coach Fred Spiegelberg, also from Medford, may call upon Cople, too, for his kick-off and placekicking ability. The tussle will be carried for Medford fans by radio stations KYC and KMED. —(Allan J. de Lay photo).

San Francisco Ready For Major Loop Ball, But How About Giants?

San Francisco — At least one sour note was sounded this week following the announcement the New York Giants were moving to San Francisco. A baseball fan, noting the Giants' current sixth place standing in the National league, observed:

"San Francisco may be ready for major league baseball—but are the Giants."

Leafs Grab Loop Lead

By UNITED PRESS
The Toronto Maple Leafs, last year's pennant winners, are in first place in the International league today for the first time since May.

The Leafs, pre-season favorites to win the title again, swept a twin-bill from Montreal, 6-0 and 8-7, Tuesday night, to take a half-game lead over second-place Buffalo. The Bisons defeated Rochester, 8-6, in a single contest.

In other action, Miami stopped Columbus, 6-1, behind the fourth pitching of Ray Semproch and the Havana-Richmond game was suspended after seven innings because of power failure with the Sugar Kings leading, 2-1.

Brown Opposes Lopes Tonight

Chicago — Lightweight champion Joe Brown rates his TV opponent tonight Joey Lopes, as a tough boy, but he thought today he might ring up the 28th knockout of his career.

Sue DeVoe, Carole Kabler Cop Third Matches in Ladies' Am

Sacramento, Calif. — Canadian Marlene Stewart Streit scored her second lopsided triumph in a row Tuesday in defense of her U.S. women's amateur golf championship.

Playing in mid-90 degree weather over the 6,368-yard Del Paso country club course in the 57th annual renewal of the Amateur, Mrs. Streit of Fonthill, Ont., downed Jan Tarble of Los Angeles 8 and 7.

Another sub-par round was turned in by Carole Jo Kabler, Sutherlin, Ore., who was one under regulation figures in an 8 and 7 win over Susan Finkbeiner, Toledo, Ohio.

Barbara Romack Porter, another hometown favorite who hopes to regain the national crown she wore in 1954, defeated her second round foe, Elaine Porritt, Eugene, Ore., 4 and 3 with a display of one-over-par golf. Two of the three other Oregon entries also lost. Polly Riley, of Fort Worth, Tex., edged past Gracie DeMoss of Corvallis, 1 up and Mrs. Ruth White Miller of Santa Maria, Calif., defeated Shirley Siegmund of Eugene 3 and 2.

But Sue DeVoe of Medford kept Oregon hopes alive with Miss Kabler as she got past Leila Fisher of LaJolla, Calif., 4 and 3.

Sacramento, Calif. — The U.S. Women's Amateur golf championship turned into a test of stamina today as a field of 32 went out to play a double round in humid 90-plus weather.

The twin 18-hole matches, which will pare the field to eight, and the heat, seemed to favor the youngsters left in the field—such comers as 16-year-old Judy Eller, the National Junior Champion; Judy Anderson of Sacramento, a part 18-year-old; Anne Quast of Seattle, Wash., 19, and her teammate, Anne Gunderson, 18, and pretty blonde Anne Richardson of Columbus, Ohio, all of 21.

But the weight of years doesn't hang heavy on defending champion Marlene Stewart Streit of Fonthill, Ont., who is only 22, or on the 1954 champion, Barbara Romack Porter, 24, or on Pat Lesser of Seattle, another ex-champion, who is the same age.

All can go 36 holes without losing their touch—although they haven't had to play even 18 holes thus far since they've been winning, for the most part, as early as the 12th or 13th green.

Shrine Grid Squads Wind-Up Heavy Drills

Portland — Coach Fred Spiegelberg of the State Shrine football team said today Roger Johnson, star back from Marshfield High school, had accepted an invitation to play in the annual Wigwam East-West all-star game at Memphis, Tenn.

Spiegelberg said Johnson and Neil Plumley, big Medford tackle, would leave here by plane for Memphis immediately after Saturday night's Shrine game in Multnomah stadium. He said they would have a week of practice to prepare for the Wigwam game. Plumley had accepted an invitation earlier.

Portland — The heavy work was over for both the State and Metro Shrine football squads as their respective coaches wound up the daily drill routine Tuesday.

The two teams will meet Saturday night here in Multnomah stadium with all proceeds from the game going to the Shriners' hospital for crippled children.

Both Coaches were a little worried as some of their top boys watched drills from the sidelines yesterday.

Over at the State camp, head mentor Fred Spiegelberg of Medford was forced to be without Jack Temple, McMinnville half-back, Al Trotter, Tillamook full-back, and Dale Cardwell, Marshfield guard. Spiegelberg said he was fearful Trotter would be the only one suited up of the three come Saturday night.

Fred Smiles About Rodger
But he was all smiles on the practice field as Roger Johnson, Marshfield half-back demonstrated in State's 30-minute scrimmage why he has been hailed as one of the greatest backs developed in an Oregon high school in recent years.

Coach Ralph Harper of the Metros held his final scrimmage also yesterday and halfback Joe Shank from Lincoln was on the sidelines with a knee injury. Harper said he was hopeful Shank would be ready by game time.

Dick McLaughlin, back, Dick Cople, end, and Neil Plumley, tackle, are Medford players on the State squad which faces Metro in the Shrine all-star football game Saturday night in Portland.

McLaughlin, who quarterbacked at Medford, is expected to see duty both at quarter and fullback for State. He has been working at fullback because of the pulled leg muscles suffered by Earl Schuit of Redmond and Al Trotter of Tillamook.

Sharing quarterback duties with McLaughlin will be Royce McDaniel of Sweet Home.

Reserved seat tickets for the game are on sale in Medford at Barker's Men's store and Brown's cafe.

Phil Rodgers Leads in Am

St. Louis — Nineteen-year-old Phil Rodgers, pointing for his biggest victory since the 1955 National Jaycee meet, held a two stroke lead today going into the final 36-hole qualifying round for the 55th Western Amateur Golf championship.

Rodgers, short and stocky University of Houston sophomore from LaJolla, Calif., fired a three-under par 68 yesterday for a midway total of 141.

Curtis Person, 47, Memphis, Tenn., automobile dealer and current Tennessee Open amateur champ, shot a 71 for a 143 total.

Fifty-five players, including all the favorites, remained in the field today after it was cut at the 156 total score mark. The low 16 tomorrow will tackle the grind of four 36-hole matches in four days en route to the championship.

Corvallis, Eugene Vie

Oregon City — Corvallis blanked Hubbard, 7-0, in elimination play of the 24th annual Men's Oregon state softball tournament here Tuesday night, after Hubbard had dropped Coos Bay 1-0.

Today, Corvallis was to meet Eugene for the championship.

EXTRA PONY GAME

Watsonville, Calif. — La Mesa, Calif., and Covina, Calif., meet today in a post tournament game to determine the region 8 Pony League baseball champion. La Mesa forced the extra game Tuesday night when it scored a 5 to 4 extra inning win over Covina.
