

Dodgers Win Third Straight In Drive to Catch Milwaukee

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer
Manager Walt Alton has bluntly told his Dodgers "it's now or never"—and apparently they believe him.

The Dodgers, about to tangle head-on with first-place Milwaukee tonight in the first of a three-game series, are "in momentum" with a three-game winning streak and believe they can overtake the Braves.

The Brooklyn combined fine pitching, solid hitting and a flawless defense in handling the Cincinnati Reds their ninth straight defeat, 8-0, Wednesday.

Don Newcombe won his 10th game of the season.

Gino Cimoli gave Newcombe a 3-0 lead when he belted a home run with two on in the third inning and the Dodgers hammered Hal Jeffcoat from the box with a five-run outburst in the seventh.

Win Streak Ends

The New York Giants ended the Cardinals' four-game winning streak with a 13-6 victory in the only other National League game scheduled.

In the American league, the White Sox mauled the Senators, 12-8; Baltimore defeated Detroit 9-3; the Kansas City Athletics cut the Yankee lead to six games by trimming the world champs for the second straight time, 6-3, and Boston ended a five-game losing streak with a 3-1 victory over Cleveland.

Six home runs were hit in the Giants-Cardinals tussle, with Wally Moon, Stan Musial, Eddie Miksis and Ken Boyer connecting for St. Louis, and Willie Mays and Hank Sauer hitting homers for New York.

The Giants routed loser Lindy McDaniel with a six-run third inning and Valmy Thomas tripled with the bases full in the fifth to highlight a four-run rally. Bonus southpaw Mike McCormick was the winner, coming to starter Stu Miller's rescue in the first inning.

The White Sox scored seven runs in the third inning to clinch their game with Washington.

Bob Nahr, Roy Sievers and Art Schult each homered for the Senators, all of the blows coming with the bases empty. Reliever Gerry Staley was credited with his fifth victory while Russ Kemmerer suffered his eighth defeat.

Joe Durham and Al Pilarcik each hit three-run homers to lead the Orioles to their victory over the Tigers. Ray Moore, who registered his ninth victory, blanked the Tigers until the seventh inning when Detroit reliever Lou Sletater walloped his third homer of the season with two on. Ken Lehman relieved Moore in the ninth. Southpaw Billy Hoelt gave up Baltimore's first four runs to suffer his eighth defeat.

Jim Piersall's two-run homer in the third inning paved the way for the Red Sox victory over Mike Garcia, whose only satisfaction was in holding Ted Williams hitless in four trips to cut Ted's batting average to .385. Willard Nixon helped himself to his 10th victory by singling before Piersall's home run.

Former Yankees did all the damage as Kansas City won its first series from New York since moving west. One-time Yankee farmhand Jack Urban pitched the eight-hit victory, with ninth inning help from Virgil Trucks, and in the three-run first inning which tagged Johnny Kucks with the loss, the names of Vic Power, Billy Hunter, Bob Cerr, Billy Martin and Woody Held figured in the run-making. What proved to be the winning runs came in the fourth inning on a walk to Held and singles by Tim Thompson and Urban.

Dairy Maids Tip Parsons

Rogue Valley Dairy Maids rose up for the second victory in the Jackson County Softball association at Camp White last night, upsetting Parsons Motors 5 to 3. Crater Lake Motors continued unmarred by trimming Courtesy Chevrolet 13 to 0.

Two games are scheduled to-night at the Veterans Administration domiciliary diamond to round out the week. National Guard will meet Morse Motors at 7 p.m. M and W Chain Saw opposes 20-30 club in the night-cap.

The Maids in pushing Parsons back into third spot got only two hits but had the aid of walks and errors. Two runs on three errors, two walks and a single by Arlene Hoffman in the fifth inning gained the victory margin. Parsons led 3 to 1 after three frames but the Maids tied the count in the fourth on three walks and a miscue.

Ron Weatherford pitched one-hit ball for Crater Lake.

Hunting and Fishing Southern Oregon

By MEL REES

Some time ago I discussed in this column the possibility of future boat registration and what we could do as sportsmen to make such legislation unnecessary. I hope that someone who read it thought twice before overloading his boat on some of our lakes but my observations were that the same vicious practices of overloading, using a motor too large for the craft, neglecting life-preservers for each person aboard and just plain "horsing around" continued as before.

Very recently there were 12 drownings within a week's time in and around San Francisco. There was a hue and cry by the press—public opinion raised its shocked head—and suddenly there it was—legislation which now requires each and every boat 16 feet and under to be registered. Boats over that length have required registration for some time.

HOME-MADE COFFINS
Operators of many of the marinas surrounding the bay said that many of the boats using their facilities were little more than home-made "coffins." The estimates of boats which were unseaworthy varied from 5 to 20 per cent. It is hoped that these craft will be eliminated from the waterways by this registration legislation. In other words it will be up to the registering official to decide whether he thinks a boat is worthy of registration or not.

No doubt this will deprive some of their former pleasures of boating who cannot afford a good boat but that's the law! Incidentally this law gives the state police the authority to arrest anyone for pulling an unlicensed boat on the highway.

NEED COMMON SENSE
Now what I would like to point out is this. So far we here in Oregon have absolute freedom in our boating with the exception of tidal waters which have some restrictions by the Coast Guard. We can maintain this freedom only if we individually use common sense.

OVERLOADED
Fishing Willow Creek reservoir one day this season we saw an 8-foot dinghy with two men and a motor; another very small boat with two men, a boy, a dog and a motor (estimates listed their "freeboard" to about 3 inches); and then there were the "happy folks"—eight of them in a boat designed for four! Fortunately the lake remained calm but any mountain lake can really roll in a matter of minutes, and I mean a very few minutes. Any rough water at all would have placed all these people in a very dangerous position. This is not using common sense!

Honestly folks, let's think it over before we find ourselves bound up in a lot of inspections, registrations and other red tape. Let's have fun but let's be sensible about it.

FISHING REPORTS
The following fishing reports were compiled from telephone conversations with the major resorts in this area.

Klamath Lake—Bob Sloan of Harriman's Resort lists the following people hitting the 4 pound bracket: Leroy O'Conner of Newman, Calif., 4 pounds;

Robt Beckman, Portland 7 3/4; Helen Beckman, Portland 6 1/2; A. V. Brookings, of Del Mar, Calif., 4 1/2; H. A. Vanoni of La Mesa, Calif., 4 3/4 and 4 1/2; Emily Brose, La Mesa, Calif., 4 1/2; Glen Brose, La Mesa, 5 1/2; Len Osgood, Ashland, 5 1/4.

The weather is fine. There aren't too many fishing right now. The fish are here but angling is only fair. Best lures are Flatfish and Andy Reekers.

Willow Creek Reservoir—Some of the best high lake fishing in the area is right here. A number of nice catches have been made both trolling and with single eggs. Mike Dean, a young Grants Pass angler made a nice catch of fish up to 14 inches using single eggs.

Fish Lake—Lloyd Morris reported that the lake is a little slower than anticipated but still some fine fish up to 20 inches
