

Farewell Party Honors Family; Group at Camp

Butte Falls—Butte Falls Community Bible church sponsored a farewell dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Brittain Ash and their sons, Donevan and Terry, in the social room of the church August 19. Mr. Ash has been transferred from his office as forest ranger of the Rogue River national forest to Ketchikan, Alaska. Donevan Ash will accompany his father by plane next week to Ketchikan.

Mrs. Ash will continue her work as dean of girls at Crater High school in Central Point. Terry will remain with her. At the end of the school year they will join Mr. Ash and Donevan in Alaska.

Games and songs, and presentation of a farewell gift were the features of the evening which followed the dinner.

Senior Bible camp started at Lake of the Woods Monday. Those attending from the local church are Virginia Ann McAllister, Martha Dalton, Philip Crammer, Jim Irwin, Jerry Ferguson, Larry Cavin, Cody Rambo and Ira Rambo.

The Rev. Howard Simmons is one of the counselors at the camp which will continue through this week.

Those who attended junior camp for girls last week were Dalene McAllister, Judy Burg, Robin Lee Simmons, Darlene Edmondson, Linda McAllister and Susan Crammer.

Chic Coed Confronted By Whole Batch of New Terms

By GAY PAULEY
United Press Correspondent
New York—Fashion this fall has its own version of the college entrance exam—a whole batch of new terms for the chic coed to know.

For instance, Quad coat, skirlotte and campus strutter.

B. Altman and company, one New York store, as a public service to the puzzled coed, has compiled and published an "unabridged dictionary of 1957 college fashions. With the store's permission, here are excerpts, with a couple of my own rung in.

Big Brother Sweater: Casual knit patterned after a fashion popularized by Elder Male Sipping, who gets straight "A's" and is captain of a football team.

Black Crepe adjective: Fashion revival, as in black crepe dress. Smooth!

Campus Strutter: A dashing sports coat, in wool, leather, oil-skin, etc.

Car Coat: Not too long, not too short, perfect to wear over shorts.

Chanel Look Old French: Inspired by fashion a la famous Paris designer of 20's and 30's. Before your time.

Heraldic Medal: Very important pin. Worn at neckline, at hip or on headband.

Leopard: Ferocious feline that purrs like a kitten when it's an imitation fur hat, beanie, overblouse, full length coat, raincoat or trimming on a sweater.

Leopard: Dancer's tightspaw featured for lounging. Wear only if you have dancer's lithe build.

Madras: Cotton plaid originating in India, migrating first to men's wear, now omnipresent in college shops.

Magnified Herringbone: Big pattern this fall . . .

Motor Scooter Jacket: A sport short.

Muff: A cylinder of fur, raccoon, fox, lynx, with openings at each end. Important accessory . . . keeps your hands warm, too.

Overblouse: You don't tuck it in . . . comes in any fashionable fabric, casual or date-wise.

Overshirt: Middy.

Quad Coat: Short spot, see motor scooter jacket.

Racoon: Diurnal and nocturnal animal. Greyish brown and bushy.

Habitat: Muffs, gloves, slippers, handbags, longcoats, short coats, dresses, suits, sweaters.

Rope verb: To get all tied up in long lines of beads and metal chains.

Skirlotte: A culotte that is part shorts, part kilts.

Walking Suit: A shorter than long coat with its own skirt.

Wide Wale Adjective: Corduroy with a broad rib.

Wide Wale Noun: Moby Dick.

PRESLEY'S DAD RELENTS
Memphis, Tenn.—Elvis Presley's father decided Wednesday against prosecuting six Whitehaven High School football players who tried to make off with the Presley lawn furniture. After a conference at Juvenile Court, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Presley shook hands with the boys and invited them to "come and visit us sometime."

Slips covers come cleaner in the wash if the loose dirt is removed from them with a vacuum cleaner before they are dunked into suds.

Newark Man Named Moose High Governor

Spokane — Ralph A. Villani, Newark, N.J., was elected supreme governor of the Loyal Order of Moose at their international convention here Wednesday. He succeeds George Young of Spokane, who becomes junior past governor.

Others elected were Henry F. Wallenwein, junior governor, and Judge Louis K. Thaler of Ithaca, N.Y., supreme prelate. Fred Zabel, Aurora, Ill., was re-elected for the fifth time as supreme treasurer.

The official convention ball Wednesday night was to honor Supreme Governor and Mrs. Young. More than 3,500 delegates have registered for the convention.

Fort Stevens State Park To Be Dedicated

Astoria—Fort Stevens state park near Warrenton will be dedicated Sunday.

The park has been in use for more than two years but Sunday will see the first official ceremony marking its opening. Pat Dooley, speaker of the Oregon House, will represent Gov. Robert D. Holmes.
