Miss Rieben Joins Presbyterian Church Staff Here

Miss Lucille Rieben, who has been appointed as director of Christian Education for the First Presbyterian church, will be introduced to the congregation at both Sunday morning worship services. Miss Rieben is a graduate of Lewis and Clark College and recently received her master's degree from San Francisco Theological seminary. She was formerly on the staff of the First Presbyterian Church in Eureka and in Portland.

During the month of August, Dr. D. Kirkland West has been preaching on the different aspects of prayer, and Sunday he will bring the last in this series of sermons when he speaks on "After This Manner Pray".

Soloist at both services will be Mrs. Effie Kertz, soprano, singing "Prayer." Offertory music will be provided by Harleale Wilson, guest violinist from Denver, Colo.

Youth worship service for combined Geneva and Westminster fellowship will be held in the Fellowship hall at 7 p.m. and will be led by Dr. West. Following the joint service, each fellowship will meet for individual discussions led by the members of the respective groups. Firesides will be held afterwards.

Wednesday, Aug. 28, Dick Corum, Gordon Fleming, Jim Fontaine and Ruby Rowan, who are officers of the Southwest Youth Presbytery, will go to Portland with the Rev. John Reynolds to attend the annual conference for Westminster Fellowship Synod and Presbytery officers.

Christian Church Tells Week's Meets

The music Sunday morning at the First Christian church will be by Mrs. J. T. Jackson. She is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Piper, ministers.

The 10:30 a.m. morning worship service Sunday will be "The Letter to the Church in Corinth." The 7:30 p.m. evening service will be "The Monkey Wrench of the Bible."

There is to be a reception in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Piper on their 35th wedding anniversary Aug. 30, 1957 in the First Christian church fellowship hall at 7:30 p.m. This is given by the church in appreciation for the work the Pipers have been doing for them.

The Christian Youth fellowship is having an evening of outdoor fun, including hamburgers, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Conner Jr., 906 South Newtown, on Wednesday at 6:30 p.m.

Miss Gloria Hagard has been selected as a delegate of the University of Oregon Christian House to attend the National Disciple Student Fellowship conference in Green Lake, Wis., from Aug. 25 through Aug. 31.

Adventist Church To Hold First Services In New Auditorium

The Ashland Seventh-day Adventist church will celebrate their first Sabbath in the auditorium of the new church at Clark and Garden Way this week. An area wide rally will be held at 4 p.m. Saturday. Music for the service will be by Elder Harold Turner, pastor of the Grants Pass church, and by the Ashland Children's Choir. Guest speaker of the afternoon is Elder G. H. Liscombe, North Pacific Union conference home missionary leader of Portland. Local pastor is Elder Floyd Breese.

Secretary To Hold Services Sunday

Cave Junction — Dr. Ernest Harold, executive secretary of the coordinating council of the Oregon Conference of Methodist Churches, will conduct morning worship services at Immanuel Methodist church Sunday.

Dr. Harold was born in England and received his training there. He was a Methodist pastor in this country for many years.

The Rev. Robert Kingsbury will leave Saturday for Dead Indian Soda Springs, where he is to serve on the staff of the high school church camp for a week.

Youth Meet Tonight, Hike Scheduled

Seventh-day Adventist Teens for Christ will meet tonight at 8 p.m. in the school park.

Medford Pathfinders will meet at the Rogue River Academy grounds at 3 p.m. Sunday. A ten-mile hike is scheduled for the group who have been working towards a honour in that field this summer.

PICNIC SUNDAY
A picnic will be held for the congregation of the Congregational church on the church grounds Sunday at 4 p.m.

Methodist Youth Urge China Travel

Denver, Colo. — The National Conference of Methodist Youth urged Thursday night the United States lift its ban on travel to Communist China.

"We feel that travel invitations of some foreign governments, for example Red China, are an overture of friendship," read a resolution which was approved by a vote of 78-22 after three hours debate.

"We feel that refusal to permit the carrying out of such overtures is not consistent with the policy of a nation striving for peace," the resolution read.

The resolution also asked the United States to "seriously consider" withdrawing its opposition to the seating of Red China in the United Nations — but with safeguards for the Formosans and "millions of non-Communist Chinese who have fled the mainland."

The 225 Methodist youth delegates had earlier recommended an end to racial segregation and discrimination in industry, housing and religious worship.

John Corson of Modesto, Calif., was elected president of the organization Thursday.

Film Set For Sunday Evening

"A Mighty Fortress," a documentary film from March of Time, will be presented Sunday at 6:30 p.m. at the First Baptist church. The production deals with the upsurge of religious emphasis around the world and covers the Billy Graham crusade in the British Isles and throughout Europe.

On Sunday morning the Rev. James W. Neely, pastor of the church, will preach on the theme, "Christian Sacrifices." Music for the service will be provided by Miss Jane Neely and by a mixed quartet.

Sunday evening the Rev. Haddon Robinson, assistant to the pastor, will bring another in a special series on the home. The message, dealing with Christian wives, will be entitled, "The Word to the Wives is Sufficient." Music for this service will be provided by the young people of the congregation.

Nazarene Youth Group Pledges Money For Use by Missionaries

The youth group of the First Church of the Nazarene in the Nazarene Missionary society has pledged $125 on a large paper cutter to be used by missionaries, the Rev. and Mrs. Earl Mosteller, on the Cape Verde islands. This was the largest pledge made by any youth group on the Oregon - Pacific district of the Church of the Nazarene. In order to raise their pledge, the young people have sponsored a tour through Weeks and Orr Furniture store, collected scrap iron and washed cars. They will be washing cars at Barnes Shell Service station on West Main st. across from the YMCA, Saturday, Aug. 24, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Guest Speaker Sunday; Pastor To Return

Guest speaker Sunday at the 11 a.m. service at the Eastwood Baptist church, North Keene Way dr. at Ridgeway, will be the Rev. H. Richard Cooper. Mr. Cooper graduated last year from California Baptist seminary and is a member of the church here. He plans to enter the chaplaincy. He will speak in the absence of the pastor, the Rev. Richard M. Jones, who is on vacation and will return Aug. 27.

A teachers and workers conference will be held Tuesday, Aug. 27, at 7:30 p.m. at the church.

Open Air Services Planned for Talent

Faith Tabernacle, Ashland, will conduct open air services in Talent behind the city hall building Monday, Aug. 26 through Saturday each evening at 7:30 p.m. The services will include singing, organ music and a sermon.

The services were held a week ago in Medford with a large attendance reported. The public is invited to attend.

Rev. John H. Fuiten

Butte Falls Pastor Moves to Portland Area

Butte Falls — The Rev. John Fuiten will conduct his final services at the Butte Falls Assembly of God church Sunday. He and his family will move next to Portland area where he will assume duties as pastor of the Aloha Assembly of God church.

Mr. Fuiten, his wife and three children, moved to Butte Falls nine years ago. A fourth child was born the following year. During their stay in Butte Falls, the Fuitens, along with members of the church, have constructed the building that includes the church and parsonage.

In addition to his duties as pastor, the pastor has been employed as Forest Service clerk and dispatcher for the past eight years. He has served as Presbyter for the Southern Oregon Assemblies since 1952.

Before coming to Butte Falls, Mr. Fuiten pastored at Bay City, Ore. Both Mr. and Mrs. Fuiten attended Central Bible institute in Springfield, Mo. Prior to entering the ministry, Mr. Fuiten was sheriff of Morrow county, Ore.

The ministers of the Rogue Valley Assemblies honored Mr. and Mrs. Fuiten recently at a Fellowship Meeting at Rogue River, and presented them with luggage.

The Fuitens will assume their new duties at the Aloha Assembly of God church on Sept. 1.

The Rev. Leslie Martin of Cave Junction, pastor of the Kerby church will assume duties in Butte Falls. He is a graduate of Northwest Bible college.

TEN COMMANDMENTS

MOSES—Moses, portrayed by Charlton Heston in Cecil B. DeMille's production "The Ten Commandments," opening Thursday at the Hollywood theater, is seen here at the time the great lawgiver led the exodus out of Egypt.

'Ten Commandments' Film To Start Medford Showing

Cecil B. DeMille's production, "The Ten Commandments," begins a two-shows-a-day engagement at the Hollywood theater in Medford, Thursday, Aug. 29. The film which runs three hours, thirty-nine minutes with a 15-minute intermission, will be shown at 1:30 and 7:30 p.m. daily.

This run follows an invitation preview which was held July 31 and attended by local ministers, civic leaders, and press representatives.

"The Ten Commandments," which opened in New York, Nov. 9, 1956, tells the story of Moses. The huge cast of famous performers includes Charlton Heston as Moses, Yul Brynner, Anne Baxter, Edward G. Robinson, Yvonne De Carlo, Debra Paget, John Derek, Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Nina Foch, Martha Scott, Judith Anderson, and Vincent Price, to name a few.

The first half of the film deals with the first 30 years of Moses' life. It starts with his mother setting him adrift on the Nile and continues through his years as a general in the Pharaoh's army, to his betrayal and exile to the desert.

Following the intermission the audience sees the miracles of the burning bush, the terror-filled plagues, and the exodus scenes, followed by the blasting of the Commandments into the Sinai granite by the fiery finger of God and the parting of the Red sea.

The seven day run of the film in Medford will be the first and only road show engagement in southern Oregon this year, according to local theatre officials.

LDS Officials In Medford This Weekend

Two high-ranking officials of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints will be in Medford this week to attend the quarterly conference of the Klamath Stake of that denomination Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 24 and 25.

The visitors will be Elder Mark E. Petersen of the Council of the Twelve Apostles and Walter Dansie of the Welfare committee.

Four times each year each of the 246 stakes, comprising in many respects to a diocese of the Mormon or LDS church holds a conference of all its members, and one or more of the general authorities of the organization is sent out from headquarters in Salt Lake City, Utah, to attend.

Reports of progress and activities within the stake during the preceding three months are given, and the visiting officials address various sessions of the conference giving counsel and advice to members on matters both temporal and spiritual.

The conference sessions to which the public is invited, will be held in the Medford church at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. Sunday.

The ranking official of the church in this area, holding the title of stake president, is Carroll William Smith, 806 Clay st., Ashland.

Presbyterian Services Set for Central Point

The union services for Presbyterian churches in the valley will be held Sunday at 8 p.m. in the First Presbyterian church, Central Point. The Rev. Robert Bridge of the Jacksonville church will continue in his series of sermons on "Questions Asked Jesus."

Sunday at 9:45 a.m. Dr. Norman K. Tully, First Presbyterian church, Central Point, will speak on "A Perfect and Immortal Song." The service will observe the 250th anniversary of the birth of Charles Wesley.

Wesley, the 18th child of a British rector, wrote an estimated 6,500 hymns. His brother, John, founded Methodism and also translated hymns into English.

Ashland — "Tremendous Trifles" will be the sermon topic at the 11 a.m. morning worship service at the First Presbyterian church, Ashland. The Rev. B. J. Holland will preach.
