Perl-Rippl Marriage Rites Held in Presbyterian Church

An event of August 15 was the wedding of Miss Margaret Ann Rippl to William Frank Perl Jr. The bride is a daughter of Mr. Matthew Rippl, 1123 Dakota avenue, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Frank Perl, 136 North Oakdale avenue.

The ceremony took place at First Presbyterian church at 7 o'clock in the evening, with Dr. D. Kirkland West reading the double-ring rites. The reception was held in the church parlors, with about 275 guests attending.

Preceding the ceremony Otis Swisher sang, and C. Olin Rice was at the organ.

The bride's gown of imported Chantilly lace over ivory satin was fashioned with fitted bodice, deep portrait neckline and long sleeves. The very full chapel sweep skirt of tulle had scalloped panels of lace in front and back. The bride's fingertip length veil of silk illusion was caught into a lace queen's crown, embroidered with pearls and sequins. She carried white carnations centered with a white orchid.

Miss Rosalinda Rippl was honor attendant for her sister, and bridesmaids were Miss Jonna Lou Henson, Miss Gloria Haggard and Miss Ruth Little, Winnipeg, Canada. They wore identical ballerina length frocks of pastel crystalite fashioned princess style with back drapery of deeper harmonizing shades. The colors were pink, orchid, green and yellow. Each wore a bandeau of crystalite and satin slippers to match her gown, and carried white carnations with ribbon to match. Little Robin Zundel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zundel, Springfield, and a niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore a pastel blue crystalite floor-length frock and carried a basket of petals.

Dr. William J. Miller escorted the bride to the altar and ushers were Hugh G. Simpson, Frederick G. Lagergren, John R. Dumas and Manville Heisel, with Mr. Heisel serving as head usher. All are fellow officers of the bridegroom in the United States Air Force reserve here.

Arrangements of pink and white gladioli and candles decorated the church.

The reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. W. H. Reichstein, Mrs. Donald Hemingway, Mrs. Warren Olsen and Mrs. Edwin Durno cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Floyd Baker and Mrs. Ivan Harrington poured punch, Mrs. Richard Watson, Mrs. Warren Hamlin, Mrs. Royal Bebb and Mrs. Jack Walker served the coffee. Miss Charlotte Riley took charge of the guest book. Table appointments were white gladioli and tapers.

The bride's mother wore a blue lace bolero frock with white accessories and white orchid corsage for the wedding and reception. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of champagne colored lace with cummerbund and back panel of chiffon, matching accessories and brown orchid corsage.

Grants Pass Girl To Become Bride Of James Kelly

Grants Pass — Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth F. Paquin, 850 North Tenth street, Grants Pass, announce the engagement of their daughter, Sandra Joan, to Edward James Kelly, son of Judge and Mrs. Edward C. Kelly, 906 West Fourth street, Medford.

Miss Paquin was graduated from Grants Pass High school in 1936, having been active in music and art. A member of Art-For Service during her senior year, she won two top awards for her entries in the Spring Art festival. She won a scholarship to Medford Beauty college and completed her course there in July. She will go to Portland for her state board examinations in September.

Mr. Kelly was graduated from St. Mary's High school in Medford in 1933 and from the University of Santa Clara, California in June of this year, taking special work toward a teachers degree from San Jose State college. He is employed in IBM work at Bear Creek orchards.

The wedding date has been set November 16 at Sacred Heart Catholic church, Medford.

Cynthia Jackson

To Arrive Home

Miss Cynthia Jackson, whose wedding to Patrick Ford of Stockton, Calif., has been set for September 14, will arrive home today from San Francisco where she has been living in recent months. The wedding will be held in Sacred Heart Catholic church.

A number of parties are planned for Miss Jackson and for her fiancé, who will arrive here September 7. He will be accompanied by his brother, Terence, also of Stockton.

line the following day and are spending their honeymoon in Hawaii. For traveling the bride wore a wool suit in apricot color with black and white accessories.

After their return to California the bridegroom will report at McClellan Air Force base at San Diego for a short term of duty and later the couple will live in San Francisco where Mr. Perl will attend San Francisco College of Mortuary Science.

The bride was graduated from Medford High school in June and has been employed by Lippert theaters here. Mr. Perl, born and reared in Medford, attended school here and was graduated from the University of Oregon where he was a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity. He served with the Air Force as a first lieutenant, spending two years in England. He is now associated with his father in business.

In Medford for the wedding were the bridegroom's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zundel, Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Zundel, Eugene; and Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Paxon, Beaverton.

Former Residents

Guests at Parties

Three former Medford residents were honored at a bridge luncheon given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Glenn Harrison at her home on Kings highway. Honored were Mrs. George Wilson, Portland, Mrs. Irvin Miller, Ogden, Utah, and Mrs. E. S. Degman, Wenatchee, Wash.

Guests at the party and the hostess all formerly played in the same bridge club.

Tuesday evening a group of Dr. and Mrs. Degman's friends gathered at the Harrison home for a picnic dinner in their honor.

The Wilsons, Millers and Degmans all left the middle of the week after brief visits in Medford. The Degmans were accompanied by their youngest son, Ben.
