

Mr. and Mrs. David A. Schneider (Brainerd)

Schneider-Wilson Wedding Held in Presbyterian Church

Eagle Point—One of the season's larger weddings took place at First Presbyterian church in Medford August 16 when Miss Alice Marie Wilson became the bride of David A. Schneider. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen O. Wilson, Route 1, Box 93G, Eagle Point and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schneider, Route 3, Box 600, Grants Pass.

The Rev. Lewis Collins, former pastor of Trail Community church and resident of Central Point, officiated for the double-rite at eight o'clock in the evening. More than 300 guests attended the ceremony and the reception which followed at the church. The church was decorated with pink gladioli.

Marvin Franklin, uncle of the bridegroom, and Carl Scott were soloists. Mrs. Eva Marsh was organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of embroidered nylon over satin tulle. Her finger-ring veil was held by a pearl-headed crown. The pearl necklace she wore was a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of white stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Miss Claudia Ash, Shady Cove, was maid of honor. She wore a frock of pink crystalline with matching pink shoes and a pink shoulder length veil. Her bouquet was pink rosebuds with aquamarine ribbon and net. Mrs. Larry Wilson, sister-in-law of the bride, was bridesmatron and bridesmaids were Miss Marcia Woodward, Eagle Point and Miss Betty Stout, Grants Pass. They wore aquamarine dresses

Luncheon Held By Sojourners

Medford Sojourners met in the Pythian hall Thursday, August 22, at 12:30 p.m. The hall was gay with gladioli and a salad luncheon was served to 60 members and friends. Hostesses were Mrs. Earl Nelson, Mrs. Roy Stein and Mrs. M. L. Jacobs.

Two out of town guests were introduced and welcomed. They were Mrs. Helen Alexander of Topeka, Kans., and Mrs. Fannie Eden, Nevada City, Calif.

Prospective members were Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mrs. J. F. Schultz, Mrs. James Redden, Mrs. Frank Rauch, Mrs. M. J. McCauley and Mrs. Frank Ross.

New members introduced and welcomed were Mrs. Phillip Dopp and Mrs. Betty Henry.

Cards followed the business meeting. Winners at bridge were Mrs. Alice Jones and Mrs. J. W. Poage; pinocle winners were Mrs. F. J. Cook and Mrs. M. J. McCauley, and at canasta Mrs. Carrie Walters and Mrs. George Wilson won prizes.

A special prize was won by Mrs. Marvin Yost.

All women who have lived in Medford and vicinity for two years or less are invited to come out and meet their new neighbors.

The new meeting place of Sojourners is the new Girls' Community club. September 11 is the date of the next meeting.

Couple Married in Rites At Episcopal Church Here

St. Mark's Episcopal church was the scene Sunday, August 18, of the wedding of Miss Margaret Sanderson Selby to John Philip Selby. The bride is the older daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Selby, 2427 Lyman avenue, Medford, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Lloyd Selby, Ashland.

The double-ring ceremony was held at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, with the Rev. George R. V. Bolster, rector of St. Mark's church, officiating. Serving as acolytes were Jay Walker and Stephen Fabrick, the latter a cousin of the bride. Mr. Selby gave his daughter in marriage. The bride's parents were also married in St. Mark's church, and have lived here since.

For her wedding the bride wore a gown of traditional white satin designed on princess lines with portrait neckline outlined in seed pearls and skirt ending in a full train. Her veil of scalloped illusion was held by a pearl-trimmed halo and she carried a bouquet of white spider chrysanthemums centered with a white orchid and with sprays of lily-of-the-valley in the ribbon streamers. Her pearl necklace was the bridegroom's gift.

Miss Karalee Selby was her sister's honor attendant. She wore an emerald green taffeta frock fashioned with empire bodice having lace insets and a large bow in the back. Miss Kathy Ingle, cousin of the bride from Ashland, was bridesmaid. Her frock of gold colored taffeta matched the honor attendant's gown and both wore halo caps and shoes to match their dresses. Miss Patti Selby, youngest sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. Her frock was of tangerine color designed on princess lines with large back bow and she wore a floral headdress. All three attendants carried bouquets of autumn colored chrysanthemums and their gold and pearl necklaces were gifts of the bride.

Brandt Gilbert, small son of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Gilbert, carried the rings. Gary L. Straus, Ashland, was best man for the bridegroom and usher were D. Lloyd Selby II, brother of the bridegroom, Leslie Combs, Talent, and William Welch, Medford.

Allan Lehl, Coos Bay, Ore., was soloist for the ceremony. He sang the processional music from the wedding suite, "Oh Perfect Love," by Joseph Cloakley which is based on the Episcopal bride's hymn, and the traditional "Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Ernest Conrad was organist.

Baskets of white gladioli and lighted candles provided a setting for the bride party; ribbon bows and flowers marked the pew ends. Mrs. Bayard Getchell, Mrs. V. W. Hamond, Mrs. Ivan Harrington and Mrs. Frank Perl decorated the church.

About 275 guests attended the ceremony and the reception which followed at Rogue Valley Country club. Mrs. J. T. Walker cut the cake, with Miss Marian Christean and Mrs. Robert Cramer, Ashland, assisting. Pouring coffee were Mrs. Royal E. Bebb and Mrs. Chester Hubbard and serving punch were Mrs. R. E. Frisbie, Mrs. Richard Knutsen, Mrs. Eugene Mosser and Miss Dorothy Brickley.

Miss Diana Getchell and Miss Anne Garner took charge of the bride's book. Miss Connie Caton and Miss Beverly Frazier served the bridegroom's cake and Miss Sandra Hubbard passed rice.

The reception flower arrangements were in shades of ivory, pale yellow and rust. The bride's table was decorated with yellow roses, gladioli and carnations and net rosettes trimmed with seed pearls held single gladioli blossoms. Ivory colored carnations and yellow roses decorated one table, and on another stood crystal and silver candelabra combined with valley lilies. Large baskets of yellow carnations were in the corners of the room. The reception decorations were the work of Mrs. R. G. Phair, Mrs. C. A. Selby, Seattle, Mrs. C. A. Hubbard and Mrs. R. E. Frisbie.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a gown of spruce green peau de soie with side swept drapery. Her feathered hat and other accessories were in gold color and her flowers were brown orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore a frock of beige raw silk with draped skirt, a satin turban and beige accessories. Her corsage was of green orchids.

The newlyweds are traveling to Lakeland, Fla., for their honeymoon and this fall will attend southern Florida college in that city. The bride is a graduate of Medford High school. The bridegroom was graduated from Ashland High school and attended the University of Oregon and Southern Oregon college.
