Lefler-Barritt Wedding Rites Held in Central Point Church

Eagle Point — Miss Verna Joanne Barritt became the bride of Harold Lefler in a ceremony held Saturday, August 17, in Central Point Community Bible church. The Rev. Joseph Munshaw, Eagle Point Community Bible church, read the service at eight o'clock in the evening in the presence of 200 relatives and friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otha Turner, Route 1, Box 658C, Eagle Point, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lefler, 1015 Oak street, Central Point.

Mr. Lefler and his bride are making a motor trip to Yosemite National park in California for their honeymoon, and will live in Pasadena, Calif., where the bridegroom will attend Pasadena City college this fall.

The bride, given in marriage by Mr. Turner, wore a gown of white lace and net over tulle and carried a cascade bouquet of dark red roses and pink carnations centered with a white orchid. Mrs. Darold Barritt, the bride's sister-in-law, was matron-of-honor, and Miss Susan Fallenhagen and Miss Glenda Swanson were bridesmaids. They wore pink tulle frocks and carried pink and white carnations.

Nanette Regester was flower girl and the candles were lighted by Miss Patricia Higinbotham, cousin of the bridegroom, and Miss Jannett Johnson. The candlelighters wore frocks of pink dotted Swiss.

James Higinbotham was best man for his cousin, and ushers were Norman Barnes and Darold Barritt, brother of the bride. Pink asters and white gladioli decorated the church.

The reception was held in the church parlor. Miss Susie Palm took charge of the guest book, and Mrs. Ray Palm cut the wedding cake. Pouring coffee and punch were Miss Bonnie Higinbotham, Mrs. James Bresland, Miss Lois Cunningham and Miss Wynette Turner. Mrs. Lloyd Welch and Mrs. Marvin Wright took charge of the gifts.

The bride's mother wore a beige print dress with beige and white accessories and pink and white carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a blue crepe sheath dress with white accessories and a pink and white carnation corsage.

The bride has been attending Eagle Point High school and the bridegroom is a graduate of Crater High school.

Miss Carol Wilson Wed To Charles Neff Culmer

Sacred Heart Catholic church was the setting Saturday, August 17, for the nuptial mass which wedded Miss Carol Ann Wilson and Charles Neff Culmer. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Victor Wigglesworth, 1027 Reddy street, Medford, and Fred Wilson, Dexter, Ore. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Culmer, 399 Mountain street, Ashland.

The Rev. John Ilg officiated for the double ring ceremony held at eleven o'clock in the morning. Bruno Pellegrini played the traditional organ wedding music.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a ballerina length frock of lace and tulle over satin. Her fingertip length veil was held by a seed pearl crown and she carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses and stephanotis. Her single strand of pearls was a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Carita Culmer, sister of the bridegroom, was honor attendant. She wore a ballerina length frock of pink tulle and tulle with headband and sequin veil. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Miss Sylvia Teeter, Miss Molly Walker and Miss Carol Lewis, Eugene, were bridesmaids. They wore ballerina length pink tulle and tulle frocks with matching headbands and sequin veils and carried bouquets of white and pink carnations.

Monty Wray, Ashland, served as best man while Leroy Moore, Howard Roberts, and Monty Robertson, all of Ashland, seated guests.

Pink and white gladioli decorated the church for the ceremony.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Wigglesworth chose a peach lace dress with white accessories. Mrs. Culmer wore a blue lace frock with black accessories. They wore white carnation corsages.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Medford hotel. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Myrlin Scott, Mrs. Molly Young, Miss Nancy Walstead, and Miss Jean Tabor.

After a wedding trip along the Oregon coast the newlywed couple will make their home in southern California where the bridegroom will attend California State Polytechnic college. For her traveling attire the bride wore a powder blue sheath dress with matching jacket and white accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and attended Robertson Business school. She was employed by Rush Electric. The bridegroom is a graduate of Ashland high school and was employed by the Market Basket. He served with the United States Marines for four years.

Prior to the wedding several parties were held for the bride-elect. Miss Sylvia Teeter and Miss Darlene Smith honored the bride-elect August 3 with a miscellaneous shower at the Teeter residence, 1203 East Main street. Fifteen guests attended.

August 8 Mrs. Robert Coghill and Mrs. Dave Schaeffer were hostesses for a shower at the home of Mrs. Coghill's parents, the Taylor residence in Ashland. Garden flowers decorated the rooms for the event attended by 20 friends.

Mrs. Wigglesworth was hostess to a group of friends of the bride-elect at a buffet dinner, August 15. Pink and white asters formed the centerpiece for the table. Guests included Miss Sylvia Teeter, Miss Carol Lewis, Miss Molly Walker, Miss Nancy Walstead, Miss Darlene Smith, Miss Jean Tabor, Miss Carita Culmer, and the honored guest.

Chapter CG

Chapter CG of PEO sisterhood will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Morgan, 1 King street, Wednesday, August 28. Dessert will be served at 1 p.m.

The shells of hot hard-boiled eggs can be removed easily if the eggs are rinsed quickly in cold water.

Visits in Medford

Mrs. F. D. McCarty of Los Angeles is in Medford as a guest of Miss Tess Doyle, 23 Myrtle street. Mrs. McCarty, formerly a buyer for Mann's Department store here, will leave Thursday.

Mrs. McCarty is also visiting her brother, Thomas V. Thomas, who recently returned to Central Point to reside after living for a time in Missouri.
