

Mrs. Orrie B. Stoddard, who observed her 80th birthday August 20, was honored at a reception at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Frink, Thomas road. Mrs. Stoddard, a 50-year member of the Order of Eastern Star, is shown here with the birthday cake which was served at the reception. (Knackstedt photo)

Medford Woman Honored On Eightieth Anniversary

Mrs. Orrie B. Stoddard was honored at a reception August 20 which observed her 80th birthday anniversary. The event was held at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Frink, Thomas road, with whom Mrs. Stoddard makes her home.

Eighty guests called during the afternoon. Mrs. Marshall Day greeted guests at the door. Mrs. Gordon Williams took charge of the guest book, and Mrs. Edith Arnold, the gifts.

Pouring were Mrs. Roy Parr, Talbot; Mrs. William Barnes, Phoenix; Mrs. Morris Boughner, Mrs. George Mero, Mrs. Vernon A. Turpin, Mrs. Jack Kennedy, Mrs. John White and Mrs. Frank Little. Assisting were Mrs. Orval Kelley, Miss Lois Kelley and Mrs. Elsie Gamaehlich. Mrs. Glenn L. Linn and Mrs. Charles Hoppe cut the birthday cake.

During the afternoon Edward Root played violin numbers.

For the reception the guest of honor wore a pink and white print dress with a white purple-throated orchid, a gift from one of her sons. Arrangements of summer flowers decorated the rooms.

Mrs. Stoddard has been active in the Order of Eastern Star for more than 50 years, and also belongs to other Masonic affiliated organizations. She has served as worthy matron of Star chapters three times, once in Smithland, Iowa, and twice in Bridgeport, Wash. She is now a member of Reames chapter, OES, and Roxy Ann court, Order of Amaranth. The honored woman is also active in First Methodist church.

Mrs. Stoddard was born in Tipton, Iowa, August 20, 1857, but has lived in the west many years. She and her husband came from Iowa in 1906 and lived first in Ephrata, Wash., for a year. They then moved by horse and wagon to a homestead near Bridgeport and Mrs. Stoddard recalls that the family used water from the Columbia river for household purposes, lifting it by windlass. Later the family moved into Bridgeport and Mr. Stoddard operated a lumber yard for 10 years. Later the Stoddards lived in Puyallup and Everett, Wash.

After the death of her husband, Mrs. Stoddard came to Medford to make her home with the Frinks. Mrs. Stoddard

Church Rites Wed Couple

Trail — Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Rogers, married August 18 in Paradise, Calif., will make their home in St. Helena, Calif. The bride is the former Glenna Jean Yeoman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen L. Yeoman, Paradise, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rogers, Trail.

About 400 guests attended the wedding, at which the Rev. W. W. R. Lake of the Paradise Seventh Day Adventist church officiated.

The bride wore a gown of white ruffled net over satin, and carried a bouquet of orchids. She was attended by Miss Georgia Keller, Red Bluff, Calif., and Miss Arlene Rogers, sister of the bridegroom, from Trail. They wore ballerina length gowns of green and carried bouquets of mixed blossoms.

Kent Hobden, Walnut Creek, was Bible boy and Towie Laalia, Calif., and Paul Yeoman, er girl.

Mr. Yeoman gave his daughter in marriage and Fred Perlee, Angwin, Calif., was best man for Mr. Rogers. Ushers were Thomas, John and Leland Yeoman, brothers and cousin of the bride, William Pond, Magnolia, Calif., and Paul Yeoman, Vallejo, Calif.

Kathryn Gearing, cousin of the bridegroom, played the organ music.

A reception in the school auditorium followed the ceremony.

The bride attended Lodi academy and Pacific Union college and is a student nurse at St. Helena sanitarium. The bridegroom attended Eagle Point High school and Pacific Union college and is now employed by the Yountville Veterans' home.

Mrs. Ronald Jerry White (Pimenta photo)

Ceremony Saturday Weds Pair

Miss Thelma Katherine Aberle became the bride of Ronald Jerry White, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Orval White, 1207 West Tenth street, Medford, in a ceremony held Saturday, August 17, at St. Patrick's church in Valley Falls, R.I. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Aberle, Central Falls, R.I.

The Rev. P. Francis Hanrahan officiated at the ten o'clock morning ceremony. Mrs. Thomas Hogg played the traditional wedding music and was soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of embroidered crystalite styled with fitted bodice and bouffant skirt that terminated in a tiered ruffle cathedral train. Her fingertip length veil was of French illusion and was held by a tiara of petals, seed pearls, and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Miss Anna Mona was honor attendant and Miss Rhea Tetreault was bridesmaid. They wore ballerina length frocks of embroidered organza styled with scoop neckline and cap sleeves. Their taffeta cummerbunds matched the color of the embroidery and they wore matching taffeta mitts and horsehair crowns which held their veils. Miss Mona was in blue and carried a basket of blue and white flowers while Miss Tetreault wore pink and carried pink and white flowers.

Peter McGinley served as best man while William Black Jr. seated the guests.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Admiral Inn, Cumberland, R. I.

Then ewlywed couple will make their home at 1207 West Tenth street. For their wedding trip they traveled to Cape Cod, Mass., and motored to Medford.

Coraury clothes are sturdily built for lots of activity. Here a very young man wears a zip-up jacket in blue corduroy by Minikin Togs with a striped cotton flannel shirt.

is known for her fine needle-point pieces, and she is now making her 86th piece. The most elaborate of all she has made, the current work is for a double-length bench and Mrs. Stoddard believes it will mean about 500 hours of work. The completed pieces have been gifts to all members of her family and to friends.

Mrs. Stoddard is the mother of two sons and two daughters. The sons are Wayne of Spokane, Wash., and Bruce of Idaho Falls, Ida. The daughters are Mrs. Frank Kenton, Wilmington, Del., and Mrs. Frink.

Republican Club Plans Luncheon

Cave Junction — Mrs. Harry Pallady, Portland, state president of the Oregon Federation of Republican Women, will be the honored guest at a salad luncheon to be given Thursday, August 29 at the Woodland Echoes motel club room on the Cave highway.

Members of the Republican Women's club of the Illinois Valley and their friends are invited to the reception which starts at 11 a.m. The luncheon is planned for 12:30. In charge of arrangements are Mrs. Frank Rauber, president of the club, and Mrs. Gilbert Clayton of Woodland Echoes.

The Thursday meeting will be the first fall session for the club. Mrs. Pallady will describe the presidential inauguration and tell of several conventions she attended this year.

Convention Reports Given for Auxiliary

Prospect — Reports of the state Lions convention held in Medford last June were given at the Wednesday, August 14, meeting of the Lions auxiliary of Prospect.

Birthdays were observed. Mrs. John Gartman, new chairman, presided.

Friday a joint picnic of Prospect Lions and auxiliary was held at Union Creek. The executive meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lowell Ash in Union Creek, Wednesday, August 28.

The Alabama Extension service says that cold tea makes a good fertilizer for house plants. It also acts as an insecticide.

Circle Members Hold Patio Supper

Husbands and children of the members of Circle 6 of the Women's Society of Christian Service, First Methodist Church, were guests at patio supper at the home of Mrs. Oliver P. Taylor, Jacksonville highway, Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Eugene G. Ray, circle chairman, states that this is the first such supper given by the circle. There were 39 members and guests present. Dr. and Mrs. George Roseberry were special guests. The children were entertained with croquet and shuffleboard.

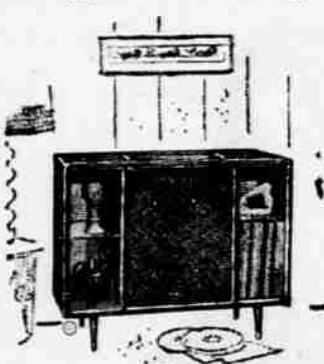

Refresh without filling

PEPSI-COLA BOTTLING COMPANY OF MEDFORD

Under appointment from Pepsi-Cola Company, New York

Magnificent Magnavox High Fidelity

beauty to see... beauty to hear

Here is a tasteful example of modern simplicity in an attractive but modestly priced high fidelity phonograph. Features include: 10 watt high fidelity amplifier... 3 heavy-magnet speakers... precision intermix record changer with long-life Diamond Stylus pick-up, conveniently centered under gliding top panels. Adjustable shelves for records or appointments. In hand-rubbed mahogany, oak or cherry color finish. Hear The Cosmopolitan today!

only 19990 in mahogany

SEE OUR HAMMOND ORGANS PURUCKER PIANO HOUSE

"Southern Oregon's High Fidelity Center"

111 No. Central Ph. SP 2-5702

there's a vivacious little velvet to cap every small festivity...

2⁹⁸ - 5⁹⁵

Pretty as party favours and luscious as petit-fours, our deep-textured rayon velvets show off to delightful advantage at every occasion.

Here, our side-swept cap and our double-bowed cap prove the point that little things mean a lot. Come in and try on these small but potent charmers, in our Millinery Salon.

2.98

Mann's MEDFORD

Growing feet won't wait!

We will! If your children need new shoes this week, but your budget says no... charge them. Open a charge account with us. It's easily done... and you'll find it a convenience many times over.

Charges Made Tomorrow Are Payable Oct. 10th

Mann's MEDFORD

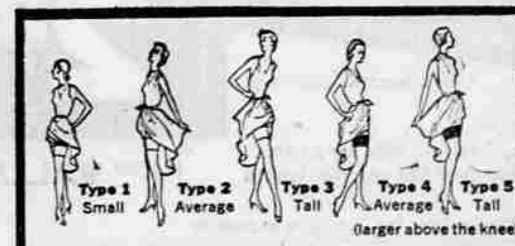

NAME

ADDRESS

now, for the first time...

NoMend stockings of fashion at Mann's MEDFORD

NoMend nylons are first choice with many of the country's smartest women. Why? Because of Fashion and Fit. Only NoMend gives you... "FAMOUS 5" Proportioned Leg Types.

"one is exactly yours"

BETTER FABRICS TESTING BUREAU Seal of approval... on every pair of NoMend stockings... awarded for "Finest Quality"

NoMend's "COLOUR WARDROBE" shades are fashion-right. Here are the styles we are featuring:

10-denier Evening Sheers $1.95
15 and 20-denier Dress Sheers $1.65
15-denier Thrifties $1.35
15-denier NoSeams $1.50

Mann's