

Weddings, Engagements In Cave Junction News

Cave Junction — Many weddings and engagements have made news for the Cave Junction area in recent days.

Miss Barbara Hawkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hawkins, Kerby, and Dennis Krauss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Krauss, Selma, were married on August 3 at First Methodist church in Reno, Nev.

The ceremony was read by the Rev. Stephen Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Akin, of Chiloquin, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom, were attendants.

The newlyweds are making their home in Cave Junction. Both attended Illinois Valley High school.

Miss Sharon Work and Orlen Pickle were wed Saturday evening, August 3 at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Pickle. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Work, Selma.

The Rev. Merlyn Mikelsen, pastor of the O'Brien Community church, read the single ring service in the presence of close friends and relatives.

The bride wore a light blue gown with white accessories for the wedding and the reception which followed.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Pickle were students at Illinois Valley high school. They are making their home in Cave Junction.

Friday, August 2, the bride-elect was honored at a shower at the home of Mrs. Earl Strothkirch. Mrs. J. A. Buckles was co-hostess.

Miss Lois Jean Biles, Grants Pass, and Theodore L. Walden, formerly of Kerby, were married August 9 at 8 p.m. at the Jerome Prairie Community church.

Mr. Walden has been in the U.S. Navy since January 1955, spending much of his time in Japan. His new station is at Monterey, Calif., where the couple will live.

The single ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Wayne McMillen. Pink and white gladioli decorated the church.

Marvin Franklin sang and Sandra Bird was at the piano.

The bride, wearing a blue nylon dress with pink accessories and a corsage of pink carnations, was given in marriage by her father, Veltie Biles.

A pink polished cotton dress and white accessories with a white carnation corsage were worn by Miss Janice Smith as maid of honor. Richard Biles, the bride's brother, served as best man, and ushers were Jerry

If a fresh pineapple is not ripe when purchased, it will ripen at room temperature within a few days. It then should be refrigerated, wrapped well to prevent other foods from absorbing the pineapple odor. Ripeness test: the leaves will pull out easily, with old unless it is for immediate use. Bacteria that cause stale flavor increase in stored milk.

Next time potato salad is on the menu try this variation. Use tarragon vinegar as part of the dressing — heating the vinegar first with a tablespoon of mixed pickling spice, tied in a cheese-cloth bag, for easy removal.

When barbecuing steaks and chops, trim off the excess fat before cooking so that the dripping won't cause flames to flare.

Olive or vegetable oil make a better marinade than butter for barbecue basting, because butter burns too quickly over direct heat.

Walden and Tommy Silva. Mrs. Biles wore a gray suit with red accessories and a red carnation corsage for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. James Walden, Grants Pass, wore a navy nylon polka dot dress and a black duster with a corsage of pink carnations.

A reception was held at the Biles home following the wedding. Assisting Mrs. Biles were Mrs. W. J. Steffens and Mrs. H. A. Newham.

For her going-away costume the new Mrs. Biles chose a powder blue dress with pink accessories. After a visit in Cave Junction, the young couple left for Monterey.

The bride was graduated from Rogue River High school in 1955 and was employed at the Grants Pass laundry as a bookkeeper.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Vaughn, Kerby, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ruby, to Lee Carothers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Carothers, Cave Junction.

Miss Vaughn will be a senior at Illinois Valley High school this fall. Her fiancé was graduated in 1956 and is now employed at Southern Oregon Archery in Kerby.

No date has been set for the wedding.

80th Birthday Of Medford Man To Be Observed

William H. Hill, 215 West Jackson street, Medford, will celebrate his 80th birthday Monday, August 26. Mr. Hill will be honored at a small dinner planned by his wife.

Mr. Hill attended school in Republic county, Kansas, and taught in that county. Later he became an apprentice printer and in 1898 he entered the United States Army, serving in the Spanish American War. After his release from the service he entered the newspaper field and spent the next 30 years as a printer in Kansas and in Idaho.

In 1930 Mr. Hill was appointed chairman of the Military Training Camps association in Lincoln county, Idaho, under the plan of civilian aid to Secretary of War James W. Cook.

In 1932 Mr. Hill sold his news-

Miss Coralie Roseberry Wed To Ralph Van Horn in Salem

Miss Coralie Roseberry, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George G. Roseberry, 113 North Ivy street, Medford, became the bride of Ralph Van Horn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Van Horn, Salem, in a ceremony held Sunday, August 11, in the Salem First Methodist church.

Dr. Roseberry officiated at the double ring ceremony held at four o'clock in the afternoon. He was assisted by the Rev. Paul Jewell, Portland, brother-in-law of the bride.

Baskets of white and pink gladioli, white chrysanthemums, and asters decorated the altar for the ceremony. The pews were marked with white asters and pink gladioli blossoms tied with pink and white bows. Professor Josef Schaefer of Willamette University was organist. Soloists were Ronald Craven and Miss Betty Starr Anderson.

Preceding the ceremony the bridegroom sang "My Lady Walks in Loveliness" as he stood in the background just before the bride party entered.

The bride wore a white satin gown with bouffant tulle overskirt terminating in a court train of satin and tulle. The fitted bodice was covered with pearls. Her finger tip length veil was held by a satin and lace headpiece trimmed with pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and stephanotis encircling white orchids.

Dr. Roseberry gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Paul Jewell was matron of honor for her sister. She wore an aquamarine chiffon frock over taffeta with matching hat and shoes. Miss Joyce Ambler, Portland, and Miss Marilyn Isaak, Salem, Alpha Chi Omega sorority sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore frocks in ballerina length of aquamarine taffeta with matching accessories. They all carried paper holdings in Idaho and came to Medford, where he has lived since. In his retirement he began making myrtewood furniture, and has built many tables and lamps.

Others assisting at the reception were Mrs. Bothwell Avison, Mrs. Lloyd Drorbaugh, Salem, Miss Carol Warren, and Misses Patricia and Margaret Parrett of Portland.

The newlywed couple will cascade bouquets of pink roses and gladioli blossoms.

Candlelighters were Miss Lois Monk and Miss Joyce Sixbury, Davenport, Iowa, cousin of the bridegroom.

Mac Baker, Phi Delta Theta fraternity brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Groomsmen were the Rev. Joe Harding, pastor of the Trinity Methodist church, Salem, and Charles Marsters, another fraternity brother of the bridegroom. Seating the guests were Thomas Lawson, Portland, Jerry Ackerson, William Walsh, Coos Bay, Gary Adams, Salem, and William Heinlein.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Roseberry wore a powder blue lace over taffeta dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Van Horn chose a blue silk frock with mauve accessories. Their flowers were pink roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors attended by 350 guests.

Mrs. Walter Dodge was in charge of the reception assisted by the women of the Wesleyan guild of the Salem church. Mrs. Everett Faber, Medford, Mrs. Brooks Moore, and Mrs. P. D. Baker, Salem, cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Julian Keiser, Salem, and Mrs. Raymond Clark, Davenport, Iowa, aunt of the bridegroom, poured the coffee while Miss Marjorie Cooper presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Thomas Lawson, Portland, was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. William Christanson and Miss Marilyn Hawthorne were at the gift table.

Others assisting at the reception were Mrs. Bothwell Avison, Mrs. Lloyd Drorbaugh, Salem, Miss Carol Warren, and Misses Patricia and Margaret Parrett of Portland.

The newlywed couple will
