

Swats By Rookie Bob Hazle Spur Braves' Verdict Over Phils; Sox Cut Yank Margin

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer

The Milwaukee Braves feel they'll win in a breeze, especially now that rookie Bob (Hurricane) Hazle is leveling a path to the pennant for them.

Hazle, a left-handed hitting outfielder brought up from Wichita on July 27, has been Milwaukee's most devastating hitter the past two weeks and now sports a .526 average with 20 hits in 37 times at bat.

Sunday he blasted a pair of three-run homers plus a single for a "perfect day" that powered the Braves to a 7-3 victory over the Phillies and enabled them to stretch their National league lead to 7½ games.

Hazle's spectacular one-man batting show accounted for Milwaukee's last six runs. Southpaw Warren Spahn drove in the first one with a homer off loser Robin Roberts in the third inning en route to his 16th victory. The loss was Roberts' 18th compared with eight victories. San Lopa homered for the Phillies.

Chisox Move Up

The Brooklyn Dodgers edged the St. Louis Cardinals, 6-5; the Giants crushed the Redlegs, 10-1; and the Pirates beat the Cubs, 3-0, in the opener, then lost the night-cap, 8-2.

The White Sox tightened the American League race considerably, climbing to within four games of first place by beating the Orioles twice, 6-2, and 3-0, while Detroit defeated the Yankees, 7-2. Cleveland took a pair from Washington, 3-2 and 6-4, and Kansas City beat Boston, 3-2.

Don Drysdale was credited with his 13th victory for the Dodgers although Brooklyn manager Walt Alston had to employ three pitchers — Ed Roebuck, Sandy Koufax and Sal Maglie — to stop the Cards in the ninth.

Mueller, O'Connell Star

Don Mueller drove in three runs for the Giants with two homers and a pair of singles and teammate Danny O'Connell also drove in three runs with a homer, triple and single as five Cincinnati hurlers gave up 15 hits. Ruben Gomez pitched a six-hitter for his 14th victory, blanking the Redlegs until Ed Bailey hit his 17th homer in the ninth.

A four-hitter by Vern Law produced Pittsburgh's victory over Chicago in the opener, but ex-Pirate Dale Long, who got three of the hits off Law, also collected three more in the nightcap to pace the Cubs to victory.

Bob Keegan of the White Sox, thumbing his nose at the traditional jinx that is supposed to follow a no-hit performance, held the Orioles to three hits in winning the opener for Chicago. Keegan, who pitched a no-hitter against Washington in his last previous outing, posted his ninth win. In the nightcap, Sherm Lollar's single with the bases full highlighted a three-run rally in the sixth inning that gave reliever Bill Fischer his fifth triumph.

Sixth Straight For Hoefft

Al Kaline smashed a pair of two-run homers and two singles against the Yankees while southpaw Billy Hoefft helped himself to his sixth victory with a bases-loaded double. Hoefft gave up eight hits, including a first-inning home run to Hank Bauer. Bob Turley was the loser.

The Indians won their opener from the Senators on Jim Hegan's eight-inning homer. Loser Chuck Stobbs had a 2-0 lead until the seventh when homers by Gene Woodling and Al Smith tied the score. Mike Garcia held Washington to five hits. Ray Narleski had to come to Cal McLish's aid in the ninth inning of Cleveland — Washington and Kansas City fans will have to wait until next year.

The Senators were mathematically eliminated from the American League pennant race by dropping a double-header to the Cleveland Indians, 3-2 and 6-4, Sunday while the Athletics were eliminated when they lost two games to the Orioles during the week end.

Giambra Goes Against Calhoun

San Francisco — Joey Giambra and Rory Calhoun, a pair of respected middleweights, meet in a 10-round bout tonight at the Cow Palace with each anxious to get revenge for the draw they fought in Syracuse in June.

Giambra, who has been fighting out of San Francisco recently, is a slight 6-5 favorite in a fight that will not be televised nor broadcast.

Hudson Cup Am Players Announced

Two linksmen who will contend in the southern Oregon tournament here this week will return on Sept. 21 and 22 for play in the Hudson cup matches at Rogue Valley Country club.

They are Bob Prall, Salem, and Bob Atkinson, Portland. The two will be among 10 amateurs facing 10 of the Pacific northwest top professionals in ninth annual rivalry.

Other amateurs on the team as announced by Robert A. Hudson Sr., are Ade Huycke, Oswego; Don Krieger, Portland; Dick Yost, Portland; Gordon McKinzie, Vancouver, B. C.; William Warner, Spokane, Wash.; Jim Mallory, Spokane; Carl Johnson, Seattle, and Don Taylor, Seattle.

On the pro team will be Eddie Hogan, Portland; Bob McKendrick, Oswego; Bunny Mason, Salem; Dave Killen, Portland; Bob Duden, Portland (now living in California) or Larry Lamberger, Portland; Chuck Congdon, Tacoma, Wash.; Joe Greer, Yakima, Wash.; Bill Welch, Tri-City, Wash.; Al Feldman, Tacoma, and Ray Honsberger, Seattle.

Cundaris Claim Father-Son Toga

Portland — Frank and Jerry Cundaris teamed up at the Rose City course Sunday afternoon to win the father-son golf championship with a low gross score of 153, one stroke ahead of Dick and Wally Hogan, of Rose City. The Cundaris, of the Portland Golf club, were defending champs.

CAL TEAM WINS

Salt Lake City — Centinella, Calif., defeated Eugene, Ore., 3-2, in a junior division championship game of the Latter Day Saints all-church softball tournament here Saturday night.

Portland Resident Dies From Crash Injuries

Portland — Head injuries suffered here Saturday were fatal to William T. Ludwig, 54, of Portland, who died Sunday night.

Ludwig was riding in a car driven by William H. Clarke, 39, Portland, when it collided with a vehicle operated by Thomas W. O'Kane, 43, of Portland. Ludwig was injured when he was thrown out of the car.

Southern Oregon Tourney Qualifying Play Continues

Some 56 valley divoters and a number of divoters from other communities are scheduled to qualify Tuesday for the Southern Oregon Golf championships at Rogue Valley Country club.

Those going out on the Medford links tomorrow include 42 men and six women trying for the championship flight and eight senior entrants. The tourney officially opens on Wednesday with qualifying of out-of-town men and women division players and some seniors. Match play starts Thursday and finals are on Sunday, Labor day.

So far (through Sunday) qualifiers include 30 men and 12 women from Rogue Valley Country club who did not seek title flight spots. There have been 12 seniors qualified, making a total of 54 ready for match play.

Carole Jo a Question

As of now the home course is slated to have 109 entries in the tourney with 83 men, 18 women and eight seniors.

Carole Jo Kabler, Sutherlin, stated after losing in the national amateur semi-finals Friday that she would not defend her Southern Oregon title nor would she enter in any more tourneys before classes start at University of Oregon. She said she had "had it."

However, tournament officials here felt that she would reconsider. Since she does not have to qualify and would automatically be seeded No. 2, she has through Wednesday to make up her mind. Her entry is on file.

Boom Falls On Redlegs

New York — The Cincinnati Redlegs, who tied the major league record of 221 home runs last season, were just a bunch of patty cake hitters all last week.

When Ed Bailey hit a homer Sunday to spoil a shutout by Ruben Gomez of the Giants, it was the Redlegs' first four-base blast in eight games. The Redlegs' home run total to date is 146.

New York — Angry manager Birdie Tebbets lowered the boom on his slumping Cincinnati Redlegs today, slapping them with a curfew and and rules on drinking beer and smoking.

Tebbetts barred the door of the Redlegs' clubhouse at the Polo Grounds after Sunday's 10-1 loss to the Giants, Cincinnati's 12th defeat in the last 13 games, and "roasted" his players' ears. It was learned he announced the following rules for players:

An 11 p.m. curfew at night on days when the team plays in the afternoon; after night games players must go directly from the ball park to their hotel rooms.

No beer drinking after games. No smoking in uniform. All players must report in the hotel lobby at 9:30 a.m. every day, whether or not a game is scheduled that day.
