Weisfield's Owns Netherlands Plant

Leo Weisfield, president of Weisfield's, Inc., Jewelers, recently announced creation of a Dutch corporation which has purchased a diamond cutting and polishing works in the Netherlands. It was purchased to supply Weisfield's stores direct with finished cut and polished diamonds.

Weisfield said this purchase is a result of two years' preparation in forming a corporation under Dutch laws.

The transaction was finally consummated during a recent trip to the Netherlands by Richard S. Weisfield, vice-president of the firm, he said. Weisfield's are now receiving regular shipments of cut and polished diamonds from their own plant in Amsterdam.

Weisfield's, Inc., have 28 stores, including one in Medford, throughout Washington, Oregon, California and Idaho. Main offices are in Seattle.

Phone Family Story In Current Magazine

The Rogue river valley and a Medford telephone family are featured in the July-August issue of Pacific Telephone Magazine, according to J. H. Creager, telephone company manager here.

Bill and Bonnie McCart, 2215 Springbrook rd., Medford, and their youngsters are pictured in six photographs that illustrate the three-page article on "Rogue River Valley."

The article boasts the valley's rapid growth since World War II, and its opportunities for outdoor living.

Creager said the Pacific Telephone Magazine is distributed to the homes of the company's 92,000 employees in California, Oregon, Washington, Nevada and Idaho as well as to other telephone companies and individuals throughout the nation.

Chivalry Still Here Cafe Waitress Learns

A waitress at the Richland Cafe on Pacific highway found that chivalry is not dead when two patrons proceeded to throw a teenager out who had come behind the counter.

Trouble started, according to police reports, when a group of six teenagers came into the cafe to order food. One of the group got up and began to walk up and down shouting in profane language.

When asked by a waitress to quiet down or the police would be called, he shouted and started behind the counter. At this point the two patrons got up, one held the door open and the other grabbed the juvenile by the collar and belt and shoved him out of the door. The rest of the group left peacefully.

Air Force Flying Flu Vaccine to Europe

Washington—The Air Force planned today to fly a rush shipment of 18,000 shots of Asiatic flu vaccine to Europe.
