

Berra Drives Home Six Runs As Yanks Bop Chisox 12-6

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer
Yogi Berra claims he's having a "lousy year," but it's still plenty good enough to give the Yankees a pennant lift every time they seem to need it most.

By most standards this hasn't been a particularly good year for Yogi. He's batting only .248 and that figure hardly appears to command the $65,000 the Yankees are paying him this year.

The White Sox, however, are convinced he's worth every penny of it, especially after what he did to them Tuesday night. Berra batted in six runs, breaking Chicago's back with a three-run homer in the eighth inning that snapped a 6-all tie and powered the Yanks to a 12-6 victory.

Yanks Pad Lead
Yogi's 20th homer, which represented only one of his four hits, also halted a six-game Chicago winning streak and a growing impression that the White Sox might overtake the Yankees in the American league race. By winning, the Yankees increased their lead to 4½ games.

The Red Sox defeated the Tigers, 7-5, in 11 innings; Cleveland edged Baltimore, 5-4, and Kansas City beat Washington, 3-1.

Over in the National League, the Milwaukee Braves continued their march toward the World Series with a 4-3 triumph over the Giants. The Cubs beat the Dodgers, 9-4; Cincinnati licked Philadelphia, 5-2, and the Pirates defeated the Cardinals, 2-1, after St. Louis scored an 11-2 win in the completion of a game suspended on July 21.

Dick Gernert supplied the winning blow for Boston in the 11th when he smacked a two-run single off Duke Maas. The hit scored Jackie Jensen and Ted Williams, who collected his 32nd homer and a single in four trips to the plate, raising his league-leading average to .380.

Burdette Gets 14th
Early Wynn scattered eight hits in notching his 14th victory of the season for the Braves with the help of rookie Don McMahon, who retired the last six batters in order. It was Milwaukee's fifth victory in the last seven games.

Ernie Banks drove in five runs with his 30th home run and a double as rookie Dick Drott of the Cubs registered his first victory over the Dodgers. Drott had to be bailed out by Turk Lown in the ninth after the Dodgers scored two runs. Don Newcombe suffered his 11th defeat. Gil Hodges homered for the Dodgers, who dropped eight games off the pace.

Musial Increases Streak
Bob Thurman, recalled from the minors Monday, blasted a three-run homer in the ninth to help the Redlegs snap a three-game losing streak.

Lindy McDaniel was credited with his 11th victory in the Cards-Pirates suspended game which was resumed in the ninth inning. By serving as a pinch runner, Stan Musial added 33 games to his consecutive playing streak which came to a halt last Friday at 895 games, a NL record.

Bob Friend held the Cardinals to five hits for his 10th victory in the regularly scheduled game.

GOODYEAR TIRES

LIFETIME GUARANTEE

Ask us about it!

Now roadside tire changes are practically a thing of the past with all new 3-T NYLON CAPTIVE-AIR Safety Tire by GOODYEAR

Proved by dramatic YUMA to PHOENIX test!

204 miles on four blown-out tires without mishap or delay.

Only Goodyear has the Captive-Air because only Goodyear has a tire body made with triple-tempered 3-T Nylon Cord. The brawny nylon built-in "spare" carries you safely and comfortably, after a blowout or puncture, until you can stop and have the tire repaired. Captive-Air has all but eliminated the hazards of tire failure in heavy traffic, on super highways, on crowded bridges and in narrow tunnels as well as costly towing and road repairs.

Here's a test that proves the Captive-Air principle...

Our four tires have been deliberately blown out. We're set to leave civilization. From now on it's nothing but scorching desert. That 120° sun fires the road into a smoldering, blistering hot plate. But we're safe with the multi-ply Nylon "inner tires" of the Captive-Air.

The Old Spanish Trail is no place to be left stranded with a tire failure. But we're not worried—not with Goodyear's double air chamber principle protecting us.

Home safe...not a second of inconvenience...and we did it on four blown-out Captive-Air Safety tires. No damage to the tires other than the cuts we made at the start of the run.

Lead Upped By Williams

Detroit — (AP) — Ted Williams has opened a four-point lead over Mickey Mantle in their blazing battle for the American league batting championship.

Williams bagged two hits, including a homer, in four at-bats for the Red Sox in Tuesday night's 7-3 victory over Detroit while Mantle had only one hit in four at-bats for the Yankees in their 12-6 victory over the White Sox.

Williams thus gained one point to .380; Mantle slipped one point to .376, and the previous two-point margin between them was doubled.

Jupiter Claims Dog Caddy Toga

Chicago — (AP) — Jupiter, a shaggy 7-year-old mongrel from Jerome, Idaho, won the second National Dog Caddy championship at St. Andrews Country club Tuesday.

Jupiter, part Newfoundland and part English sheep dog, is owned by Paul Bovey of Jerome, who plays golf in cowboy boots. Jupiter defeated the defending champion, King, a 12-year-old Great Dane owned by Dom Colucci a Northbrook, Ill., restaurant proprietor.

The dogs, hitched to golf carts, caddied for their masters in a four-hole event. They were judged for obedience and response to commands by Capt. Will Judy, publisher of Dog World magazine.
