

CENTRAL POINT Church Scene of Festival

By DORIS HUGHES
Central Point—The Church of Christ at the corner of Third and Oak streets in Central Point held their Harvest Festival, Sunday, Aug. 25. The church was decorated with garden produce and canned vegetables, fruits, jams and jellies. Some of these products will be sent to the Old People's home at Beaverton and some will be used to replenish the "cupboard" at the church.

There were 191 people attending the Bible School service and 110 attended the Harvest Festival picnic, which was held later that day in the Central Point city park. Jean Shelley is the minister of the Church of Christ.

Official registration days for Crater High school will be Thursday and Friday, Sept. 5 and 6. Each day students may register between the hours of 9 a.m. and noon and in the afternoon from 1 p.m. until 5 p.m. For the benefit of those students who are working, there will be a period for registration on these two evenings, between the hours of 7 p.m. and 9 p.m. School principal, Arthur Straus especially requested the freshmen to register on Thursday.

Superintendent H. P. Jewett spent last Friday and Saturday in Eugene, Corvallis and Portland, interviewing teachers to fill vacancies at Crater High school.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wyatt and sons returned recently from a weeks vacation spent in Portland visiting relatives and friends.

Recent guests at the home of his parents, the John Clarks, of Central Point, were Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Clark of Seattle. While the Clarks were in Southern Oregon, they took a trip to Diamond Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Britton and daughter, Karon, drove to Vallejo, Calif., Thursday evening, where they met Mrs. Britton's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Carter, of Levensland, Texas. They also met Mrs. Britton's mother, Mrs. Mary Pope of Manitou, Okla. The group visited with relatives in Vallejo, then after a sight-seeing tour of San Francisco, Mrs. Mary Pope returned to Central Point for a visit with the Brittons.

Central Point Grade school will begin with a full day of school, Monday, Sept. 9. The cafeteria will be open. Buses will begin with the same schedule which was in effect at the end of last term. Students in grade three whose last name initials begin with "A-C" will register with Mrs. Artha Metz; "D-H" in room 2 (teacher's name will be announced); "I-M" with Mrs. Lois Webb; "N-S" with Mrs. Mildred DeWitt; "T-Z" with Mrs. Ruby Downing.

In grade four, registration rooms are "A-C" with Mrs. Lois Sullivan; "D-H" with Mrs. Louisa Cape; "I-N" with Mrs. Marguerite Black; "N-S" with Mrs. Gloria Johnson; "T-Z" with Mrs. Catherine McDonald.

In grade five, "A-C" with Mr. Wesley Claffin; "D-H" with Mrs. Maurine Shore; "I-M" with Mr. Elgan Amidon; "N-S" with Mrs. Laura Patterson; "T-Z" with Mrs. Willette McLarrin.

In grade six, "A-D" with Mrs. Viola Laird; "E-K" with Mr. Donald McLarrin; "L-O" with Mrs. Letha Backes; "P-Z" with Mrs. Grace Brownlee.

Ralph Humphrey will teach music for grades three through six. Teachers for the Junior High school are Richard Traylor, Jack McCoy, Mrs. Ruth Broomfield, Mrs. Lorna Meyer, Robert Murphy, Mrs. Florence Bailey, Mrs. Alice Smock, Keith Johnson, Miss Aileen Inlow and Mrs. Thelma Dobrot. Harry Meyers will teach band. Mrs. Helen Caster will be the librarian. Mrs. Joyce Decker will be the office secretary. Mrs. Violet Woods will be the cook, assisted by Mrs. Michaels. Custodians are Glenn, Hugo Ford, Cleo Young and Clark McDowell. Charles A. Meyer is school principal.

Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Thomas, former Central Point residents, who have been living in Albu, Mo., are now visiting relatives and friends in the Central Point area. The Thomases plan to make their home here.

Christine and Gladys Schwes, Richard Salmon and Wanda Woods spent the day Saturday with the Lawrence Leonard family attending the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. John Smock recently returned from a two week's vacation, spent in Seattle. They visited relatives and also visited Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Sharp of Dayton. The Sharps are former Central Point residents.

New owners of the Central Point Laundramat are Mr. and Mrs. Jim Teets. The Teets, who formerly lived in Phoenix, now live at 49 S. Second street in Central Point. Teets operates the Union station at Camp White. Mrs. Teets will operate the Laundramat.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Kottke went to Sacramento recently. They brought back Mrs. Kottke's mother, Mrs. B. Green, who had been visiting for three weeks at the home of T. Sgt. Howell and family.

Guests Tuesday evening at the L. L. Kottke home were Mr. and Mrs. Ole Hurd and Mr. and Mrs. Jim O'Brien of Minneapolis, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. Jean Shelley and six children returned Friday after a two weeks camping trip near Florence, Ore.

Bill Painter, youth minister for the summer at the Church of Christ, will leave after next Sunday for California. He will enter the San Jose Bible college for his third term. Going with Painter will be Calvin Dixon, who will begin his first term at the college. Dixon graduated from Crater High school, last year.

Recent guests at the Roy Kelley home in Central Point were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Darnall of Melbata, Neb. Mrs. Darnall is Mr. Kelley's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bryant and son, Tommy, have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kelley. Mrs. Bryant is the former Wanda Hood, sister of Mrs. Kelley. The Bryants are also visiting other relatives in the valley.

A birthday party was given for Mrs. Lillie Johnson at her home Saturday evening. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hooker of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Johnson and children, of Central Point, Mrs. Mollie Phillips of Seattle, Mrs. Herb Combs of Talent, Mrs. Alice Peyton, of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Simmons, of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Risch, of Anchorage Alaska, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hughes and children, of Central Point.

'HAIR' I AM!
Hollywood—James MacArthur, 19, went to International Airport to meet his mother, Helen Hayes, but they almost didn't recognize each other. MacArthur has an Indian crew cut for a film and Miss Hayes has her hair dyed white for a Broadway role.
