

District Attorney's Office Says Actress Will Be Arrested If Deported to California

Hollywood—The district attorney's office served notice today that the state would greet Confidential magazine's alleged top tatter, actress Francesca de Scaffa, with a warrant for her arrest if Mexico forces her to return to California.

Dispatches from Mexico City report that the actress obtained a 48-hour delay of an order to deport her from Mexico. The former wife of actor Bruce Cabot was to present arguments against the deportation order this morning before Jose Santain, head of the Mexican immigration office. By turning herself in, Miss de Scaffa could evade return to California, original port of entry. If she is arrested and deported involuntarily, she must return to California.

Dep. Dist. Atty. William Ritz said a standing warrant was out for the arrest of the actress. He said she would be returned here to stand trial with Confidential magazine on criminal libel charges.

His statement came as the sensational Confidential trial was in recess. The trial resumes Friday and then will be adjourned until next Tuesday because of the Labor Day week end.

Miss de Scaffa was among a handful of persons indicted by the Los Angeles County Grand Jury to stand trial with Confidential magazine. However, she has refused to return to this country for the trial.

an alleged "affair" with Clark Gable and gathering "inside" information about the actor's first marriage for a Confidential story.

Ritzi, one of the prosecutors in the Confidential trial, has been given until Friday to define "bedroom stories" in the so-called scandal magazines. Ritzi Wednesday asked defense witness Albert De Stefano how many "bedroom stories" were contained in a single issue of either Confidential or Whisper magazines. De Stefano, a New York attorney for Confidential, said he didn't know what the prosecutor meant by the term. Ritzi gave as examples articles about Frank Sinatra, Corinne Calvet, Alan Dale and Dorothy Dandridge.

Defense attorney Arthur J. Crowley objected to the prosecution's examples. Judge Herbert V. Walker then directed Ritzi to bring to court his definition of "bedroom stories."

Testimony during most of Wednesday's session was centered on the meaning of "obscenity." De Stefano testified that many of the magazine's stories about movie personalities were funny. "Anything humorous could never be obscene," he added.

Bids Received for Department Offices

Salem—State motor vehicle and finance officials were reported pleased today with possibilities of sites for locating the motor vehicle department headquarters here.

Twelve bids have been received, seven of which call for constructing a new building to house the headquarters. These will be screened to about four
