

Fillis, Buck, Butler Medalists In Southern Oregon Tournament

Mrs. Marge Fillis, Salt Lake City, Utah, and Dr. Robert Buck and Larry Butler, Medford, gained medalist honors in their respective divisions of the Southern Oregon Golf championships.

Mrs. Fillis equaled the women's competitive course record with a one-under par 75 yesterday to pace the ladies field of 74 who entered the first round of matches. Dr. Buck's one under par 71 in the men's division and Butler's 72 in senior rivalry, both shot Tuesday, with host Wednesday challenge by out-of-town qualifiers.

MEDALIST POLISHES PUTTER — Mrs. Marge Fillis, Salt Lake City, Utah, polishes up her "lucky" putter after taking women's medalist honors Wednesday in the Southern Oregon Golf tournament at Rogue Valley country club. Looking on is Mrs. Mary Scott, Rose City course, Portland, who qualified with her. Mrs. Fillis, 1956 Utah amateur champion, recorded a one under par 75 yesterday, equaling the competitive course mark. She was matched today against Susan Small, Corvallis, while Mrs. Scott played Mrs. Ed Wheelock, Columbia, Portland. This is Mrs. Fillis's second year in the Southern Oregon while Mrs. Scott has been an entry many seasons. The tournament continues through Monday, Labor day.

Match play in the 29th annual affair on the Rogue Valley Country club layout opened this morning and will continue through Monday, Sept. 2, Labor day.

A total of 325 divoters were paired for first round contention with 203 in the men's division and 48 in the seniors'. Sixty-four men, 16 seniors and 16 women were matched in championship flights.

Buck Against Lewis
Dr. Buck's foe today was fellow club member Clayton Lewis. Bob Atkinson, Columbia-Edgewater, Portland, three times champ here was runner-up for medalist with even par 72. He faced D. Liarrabee, Redding, Calif., in his opening tussle.

Three men qualified yesterday with 73s. Dick Bailey, Redding, runner-up here in 1955, was one of them and was matched against Lee Flink, Medford. Bob Prall, Salem, Oregon medal play champion, was another and went against George Harrington, Phoenix, Ariz., one-time SO winner. The other two were Bob Norquist, Columbia, and Jim Hoogs, Rose City, who opposed Harry Millette, RVCC, and Jack Radford, Seattle, respectively.

Among other low cards were Phil Getchell, Medford, Vern Perry, Columbia, Roy Morgan, Seattle, and Biff Lovett, Portland, each with a 74, and Creason, Harrisburg, Pa., Wayne Sabine, Redding, and Dom Provost Jr., with 75s.

Fillis Versus Small
Provost, a former titlist, met John Robinson, Dunsmuir, Calif., today. Respective rivals of Getchell and Creason, past runners-up were Paul Brattain, Paisley, and Ray Lucas, Portland.

Mrs. Fillis as No. 1 seeded was placed against Susan Small, Corvallis. Elaine Porritt, Eugene, with an 81, was second low women's qualifier and played Mrs. Jack 'Eidswick, Ashland. Mrs. DeVoe, Medford, ex-champ and holder of No. 3 spot, tussled Mrs. Helen Cavilli, King City, Calif. Another former victor, Mrs. Helen Davies, Medford, who had the crown seven times, went against Mrs. Corrine Miller, Medford.

Butler's low senior tally put him against M. L. Hallmark, Roseburg, today. Medford Ingram, Salem, held second position with his 78 and met Glen Fabrick, Medford, while Marvin Clark, Grants Pass, third in qualifying with 79, took on Charles Braden, also of Grants Pass.

In capturing women's medal Mrs. Fillis tied the mark established by Miss DeVoe when the Medfordite was low qualifier in the 1956 competition. The Salt Lake City player had six birdies, five of them on the front nine. Driving well, she hit her tee shots "out where the men do."

Her drives and approaches enabled her to have putt chances for eagles on five greens.

One Under on Back
Buck's card of 37-34-71 was even par for the front nine and one-below for the back. His tabulations showed four birds and three bogies. Atkinson hit the greens well but had putter troubles in equalling par.

There were play-offs in all divisions for the final championship bracket berths. It took 82 to make the top flight in the men's play. Six tied with that count. Bob McKeivitt, Ocean Lake, and Jack Lovett, Portland, made the grade as two of three who showed up for the play-off.

In the women's group Mrs. Rose Bunch, Medford, and Mrs. Snelgrove, Coos Bay, had 95s and Mrs. Bunch took the run-off. Leland Clark, Medford, copped the extra play from S. S. Hankins, San Francisco, after each had 87s.

Men's championship and fifth through 10th flights, women's championship, second and eighth flights and all senior brackets had matches today. All men's division flights are to play Friday. Women's fourth and sixth flights vie while the others are idle. Seniors have a lay-off on Friday.

Radio stations KYJC and KMED are making periodic live broadcasts of the tourney competition.

Toronto Trails By Half-Game
By UNITED PRESS
The Toronto Maple Leafs trailed the pace-setting Buffalo Bisons by only a half-game in the International league today, thanks to steady pitching by Humberto Robinson.

The former Milwaukee Braves right hander beat the Montreal Royals, 4-3, Wednesday night for his fifth straight victory and third straight complete game to run his season record to 16-6. A three-run homer by Rocky Nelson and a solo homer by Mike Golliet routed loser Rene Valdes.

The Rochester Red Wings won from Buffalo, 4-1. Jose Santiago outpitched Jim Coates as the Cuban Sugar Kings edged the Richmond Virginians, 2-1.

Beaver Grid Candidates Pick Up Togs

Oregon State College, Corvallis—Cast in the unfamiliar role of favorite, Oregon State's defending Pacific Coast conference football champions are prepared to launch another season Saturday when they check out equipment, undergo physical examinations and pose for 1957 publicity pictures.

Coach Tommy Prothro expects turnout of between 50 and 55 candidates with 15 of those left-terman hold overs from the squad that won the indisputed PCC crown a year ago and bid to the Rose Bowl. The Beavers lost 13 lettermen via the graduation route or other channels, including six regulars.

Oregon State will have less than three weeks practice to get ready for the crucial opening in Portland's Multnomah stadium against powerful Southern California on Saturday night, September 21. Prothro considers the Trojans the toughest opponents OSC will face in the league all year, and either Troy or OSC have been rated 1-2 in pre-season magazine ratings by experts.

Beaver-athletic officials are hoping for an all-time state of Oregon attendance mark at the USC game. Existing record was the 35,266 who watched an Oregon-Washington game in Portland in 1930. Plenty of good seats are still available, however.

Lettermen from 1956 expected to be on hand Saturday are Tony Arana, Ted Bates, Nub Beamer, Jim Brackins, Bob DeGrant, Earnel Durden, Dwayne Fournier, Joe Francis, Sterling Hamrick, Dave Jesmer, Gary Lukehart, Bob McKittrick, Buzz Randall, Ed Rogers and Ted Searle. Guard Ron Daniels, who lettered in 1955 but did not play last season because of an operation, also will turn out.

Departing letter winners included Tom Berry, John Clarke, Dick Corrick, Vern Ellison, Gerry Laird, Paul Lowe, Chuck Marsh, Frank Negri, Sonny Sanchez, John Sniffen, Norm Thiel, John Witte and Ernie Zwaehlen. Lowe was suspended from school for academic deficiencies. Clarke decided not to continue his football and all the others either finished their eligibility or graduated.

The Beavers probably will drill at least twice daily for the first 10 days of practice. Oregon State's coaching staff remains in-

OSC Announces Football Ticket Sale Agencies

Oregon State College—Fourteen ticket agencies located in Portland, western Oregon and southwestern Washington will handle the sale of Oregon State college football tickets this fall, according to Jim Barratt, OSC athletic business manager.

Counter sales at these locations will open on Tuesday, September 3. The OSC ticket office will continue to handle both mail orders and counter sales at Gill Coliseum, Corvallis.

All tickets ordered throughout the summer will be placed in the mails by September 1, at which time priorities will cease. Remaining tickets will be allocated to the agencies.

The Oregon State-Southern California game at Portland on Saturday night, September 21, continues to set the pace in the ticket sales. Reserved seats are $3.50 for this game. A special halftime program for that game will honor R. S. (Spec) Keene, athletic director for the Beavers, and is entitled "10 Keene Years at Oregon State College."

Oregon State college ticket agencies include: Corvallis: Coliseum ticket office, Wagner's Restaurant, Phil Small's. Portland: J. K. Gill's; Lebanon: Reeves Clothing Store; Salem: Wicklund Sporting Goods; Albany: Barrett Sporting Goods; Oregon City: Jack and Bill Shop; Roseburg: J. C. Sporting Goods; Eugene: Mattox Pipe Shop; Astoria: Steinbock's Pharmacy; Drain: Western Auto Store; Vancouver: Randy's Jewelry; Longview: The Club.

Wenatchee Could Clinch NW Pennant

By UNITED PRESS
A win for Wenatchee tonight in its series opener with tail-end Tri-City could clinch second-half Northwest league honors for the Chiefs. They remained six and a half games out front of runner-up Eugene Wednesday after pasting Yakima 11-2.

The Emeralds retained a mathematical chance with a 2-1 decision over Salem while Tri-City dumped Lewiston, 11-9.

American Sets "Silent" Record

Milan, Italy — Russians and Americans both are piling up points and records in the eighth international "Silent Games," the Olympic games for deaf-mute athletes.

Three world records for deaf-mutes were set in Wednesday's competition, two by Soviet athletes and one by an American—Dennis Wernimont of Carroll, Iowa, who ran the 400 meters in 49.7 seconds to erase the mark of 50.6 held by Denmark's W. Pedersen.

Russian record-setters were N. Zdot in the 10,000 meter run in 32 minutes, 19.4 seconds,

PNGA Junior Round of 8 Played Today

Portland — Four Washington and four Oregon golfers teed off today in the quarter-finals of the PNGA junior championship being played at the Tualatin country club.

The defending champion of the tournament, Tom Minger, Milwaukie, Ore., was ousted from championship play by Bill Warner, recent winner of the PNGA at Spokane, Wash. Warner from Spokane advanced to the quarter-finals with a 1-up victory over Minger.

David Munro, Portland, kept his hopes alive in the tournament by defeating George Mack, Portland, 4 and 3.

Ed Pearsall, Seattle, turned in the best round of the day as he eliminated Dave Gilbert, Portland with a 2 under par 69 for a 8 and 7 victory.

Cunradi Victor
Bob Smith, Milwaukie, ousted Daryl Winn, Eugene, 6 and 4. Jerry Cundari, Portland, medalist in the tourney, entered the quarter-finals with an extra hole 1-up victory over Joe Hallmark, Roseburg.

In other championship matches Ted Naff, Seattle, defeated Bill Aubry, Corvallis, 1-up; Denny Schanno, Tacoma, eliminated Jerry Johnson, Spokane, 4 and 2, and Jerry Smyth, Lake Grove, won over Joe Hill, Longview, Wash., 3 and 1.

Today's quarter-finals pairings pits Ted Pearsall against Munro, Warner against Naff, Cundari against Smyth and Schanno against Smyth.
