

Electronics Items Used as Lures

Washington—The Fish and Wildlife Service is alarmed over the use of electronic gadgets to lure birds within gun range. It may seek legislation to ban or control them.

The phony call which aroused the service's anxiety is a recording of the sounds of flocks of feeding geese. It differs from other recorded or taped calls in its realistic reproduction of the many sounds made by geese on the feeding grounds.

Assistant Secretary of Interior Ross L. Leffler said the new call's effectiveness is so great that extended use of the device could threaten preservation of the species.

Leffler said reports from east coast hunting areas pointed up the danger to the birds.

On one farm containing four shooting pits, the service has a report that 1,255 geese were killed during last fall's shooting season alone. In another case, five hunters killed their limit in 50 minutes and on two occasions during that period as many as 2,000 geese hovered over the blind.

Another report showed that an electronic recording pulled Canada geese out of a federal migratory bird refuge to a blind 500 yards away where five hunters killed their limit.

Navy Cancels Plans Of Sixth Fleet in Port

Washington—The Navy has cancelled plans for the Sixth Fleet to put into port and is keeping it at sea in the troubled Mediterranean.

The fleet had been scheduled to put into liberty ports Tuesday just before the orders were changed.

The Navy would not give any reason nor comment on the possibility that the move was related to either the Syrian situation or the presence of Russian ships in the Mediterranean.

California's only complete cotton textile mill is located at the California State Prison at Soledad. Goods produced are used only by tax-supported state agencies.

On The Side

By E. V. Durling

(Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Many doctors who have been cigarette smokers still are despite the alleged dangers of the habit. How about your doctor? Dr. Charles W. Mayo, top man of the internationally celebrated Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn., still smokes a pack of cigarettes a day. "I just don't believe smoking causes lung cancer," says Dr. Mayo.

Some Season

In 1927 there were 268 legitimate stage attractions presented in New York City. That is the record for number of productions staged in Manhattan in one season. Among these were such hits as "Burlesque" with Hal Skelly and Barbara Stanwyck, "Coquette" with Helen Hayes, "The Barker" with Walter Huston and Claudette Colbert, "The Road to Rome" with Jane Cowl, "Paris Bound" with Madge Kennedy, "Her Cardboard Lover" with Jeanne Eagles and Leslie Howard, "The Shannons of Broadway" with James Gleason and Lucile Webster and the greatest musical comedy of them all, Jerome Kern's "Show Boat." Yes, sir, the theatergoers really had something to choose from that season. Were you there? If so, you will have no trouble getting into the young Old Timers association.

Asking

Queries from clients. Q. Just what is a "New England Boiled Dinner"? A. A curious mixture of corned beef, lean pork, cabbage, carrots, turnips, beets and potatoes to which is added horse radish sauce. You can have my share of it. But don't get me wrong. I spent eight years in New England and am fond of many items on the section's cuisine. Such as Boston scrod, Maine lobster, Cape Cod oysters, fish balls, baked beans and brown bread and blueberry fritters. Q. What was the name of Paul Revere's horse? A. Revere had no horse. For his famous ride he borrowed a horse from a neighbor.

Asides

As for a married couple named Adam and Eve, California which claims to have everything, has such a wedded pair named Adam and Eve Soles of Santa Barbara, Calif. It was Lord Chesterfield who said, "A difference of opinion, though in the merest trifles, alienates little minds." and Disraeli said, "I never argue with a man whose opinion I do not respect."

Retirement

Sixty-five is generally accepted as the age for retirement. These are, as recently stated here, 14,000,000 persons in the United States who are 65 or over. A book many of these oldsters might find interesting is Joseph Buckley's "Retirement Handbook." This highly informative work discusses 58 cities as
