Stock Market Shows Preholiday Advance

New York — Stocks registered a wide advance in a dull, preholiday market today. Railroad issues featured the recovery. At 2 p.m. this group showed a rise of 1.82 per cent on the day. Industrials at that time were up 1.14 per cent and utilities a small amount.

Steels, oils, coppers, chemicals, drugs, tires, autos, and aircraft registered gains of 1 to more than 2 points. Some special issues gained 2 or 3 points. The rise was a continuation of a rally that set in late Thursday and lifted the market sharply from earlier lows.

By UNITED PRESS
Dow Jones final stock averages: 30 industrial 484.35, up 8.29; 20 railroads 137.49, up 0.32; and 65 stocks 166.58, up 2.80.
Sales today were about 1,600,000 shares compared with 1,630,000 shares Thursday.

Safety Council Reports Death Drop

Chicago — The National Safety Council today reported a 7 per cent drop in traffic deaths during July for the eighth straight lifesaving month on the nation's roadways.

The council said that despite heavier traffic, the July, 1957, traffic death toll was 3,320 as compared with a toll of 3,570 during July of 1956.

"Thus, 250 lives were saved," the council said.

For the first seven months, the council reported, the traffic toll was down an average of 3 per cent or a saving of 650 lives.
