Scientists Find Submarine Range

New York — (AP) —Scientists drifting toward the North Pole aboard an Arctic ice pack report the discovery of an unknown submarine mountain range rising 5,000 feet above the ocean floor.

The scientists radioed news of the discovery earlier this week to Columbia University's Lamont Geological Observatory at Palisades, N.Y., near here.

The scientists, engaged in research aboard the ice pack for the International Geophysical Year, said they first came upon the new undersea mountain range while taking soundings north of Point Barrow, Alaska.

Observatory spokesmen said the report indicated that the range parallels the great Lomonosov ridge in the Central Arctic that extends from Greenland across the Arctic Ocean toward the New Siberian Islands. Soviet and American scientists both have explored the Lomonosov range.

The floating scientists were unable to obtain further details on the length or width of the new ridge, but it is thought unlikely that it is a continuation of the undersea peninsula running northward from the Chukchi Sea. This sea is situated between Alaska and the USSR, and extended from the Bering Strait to the Arctic Ocean.

ASIAN FLU THEORY

Detroit — (AP) — Hazel Park Councilman Oscar S. Beamer said he had heard somewhere that Asian flu was caused by mosquitoes and suggested Thursday that the council have the city sprayed with DDT. City Manager Calvin C. Henry said the mosquito theory was a new one on him, and anyway, it would cost $1,500 per square mile to spray DDT from the air. That would cost Hazel Park $6,000 and the idea was dropped.

Pineapple Ham Loaf

If you're planning on ham, plan enough for leftovers to make this very good loaf for serving a couple of days later.

Slightly beat 2 eggs; add ½ cup milk and 1 cup crushed flakes. Mix gently until corn flakes soften. Add ⅛ teaspoon ground cloves, ⅛ teaspoon allspice, ½ teaspoon dry mustard, 1 small can crushed pineapple, well drained, 3 cups ground or finely chopped cooked ham. Blend well. Pack into 1 quart loaf pan. Bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees, 45 minutes. Serve hot. Zesty enough without a sauce.

Spiced Lemonade

Frozen cubes of lemonade or ice or lemonade cubes with a clove frozen-in will add interest and flavor to your lemonade. Boil ¾ cup sugar and ¾ cup water about 5 minutes. Combine 1 cup of this syrup with 12 whole cloves and one 3-inch stick cinnamon and simmer 5 minutes. Strain and add juice of 6 lemons and 1 quart water. Pour over ice cubes.

Pear Salad Toppings

Enjoy plentiful pears often. For simple satisfying pear salad, cut pears in half, core and peel. Place on crisp salad greens. Top with one of these mayonnaise variations:

—To ½ cup real mayonnaise, add 2 tablespoons cranberry jelly which has been whipped with fork, and 1 teaspoon grated orange rind.

—To ½ cup real mayonnaise, add ½ cup heavy cream whipped a drop of oil of peppermint and a few drops of green food coloring.

Family Favorite

Make up a batch or two of these brown sugar cookies with raisins and walnuts for family and friends enjoyment over the week end.

2 eggs
1 cup brown sugar (packed)
¼ cup melted shortening
¾ cup sifted all-purpose flour
½ teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon pure vanilla extract
1 cup light or dark raisins
½ cup chopped walnuts

Beat eggs well and stir in sugar and shortening. Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and cinnamon; blend into first mixture. Stir in vanilla, raisins and walnuts. Turn into greased 9-inch square pan. Bake in 350 degree oven, 30 minutes. Cool in pan and cut into bars of any desired size remembering that these are on the rich side.

Picnic Eggs

These are pretty wonderful; maybe a little different. Hard-cook six eggs, peel and halve; remove yolks and mash thoroughly. Add 2 tablespoons chopped almonds or other nuts, 1 tablespoon finely chopped green pepper, 1 tablespoon finely chopped pimiento, dash of tabasco, 3 tablespoons mayonnaise, salt and pepper. Mix well; pile egg halves high with mixture. Decorate tops if you like with green pepper, pimiento, chopped parsley, stuffed olive slice.

Turkey Mousse

If you're weekending on turkey, you'll find this molded turkey mousse superb for using up some of the leftovers. Put this in your fanciest mold. Plan on eight servings.

Dissolve 1 envelope unflavored gelatin in 2 tablespoons cold water. Separate 2 eggs. Put yolks in double boiler and beat with rotary egg beater until frothy. Add 1½ cups milk, salt and pepper and cook until creamy. Cool, add gelatin and fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Add ¼ cup chopped stuffed olives, ½ cup diced celery, dash of paprika and 1½ cups cubed, cooked turkey. Pour into oiled mold; chill in refrigerator until set. Unmold. Surround by greens and tomato wedges. Pass French dressing.

Salad Bowls

Line salad bowl or individual salad bowls with crisp salad greens. For main course or for help-yourself buffet salads:

—Arrange any three or four of the following in groups: 6 oranges sliced, 1 cup melon balls, 1 cup strawberries, 1 cup blackberries. Or their equivalent in lemon-dipped apple slices, bananas, apricots, grapes, cherries, peaches, pears or melon. Pass French dressing or a sour cream dressing touched with a bit of curry.

—Or combine 2 cups diced cold roast meat (lamb, veal or poultry), 2 cups cut-up orange segments, 1 cup celery diced, ½ cup blanched and toasted almonds or other chopped nuts. Add lemon French dressing to blend.

—Or mix and serve in bowl; 1½ cups orange pieces, 3 cups diced apple, ½ cup diced celery, ¾ cup walnuts or raisins with mayonnaise to blend. This makes fine dessert when sprinkled lightly with coconut.

Fresh Corn Soup

A fine and flavorful soup for mid-day or supper-time. Start with corn on cob. Husk 8 medium ears of corn and remove silk. With point of paring knife cut gash down center of each row of kernels. Scrape rows legthwise, downward only to remove pulp.

Combine corn pulp with 5 cups of milk in double boiler or saucepan over very low heat. Add 2 tablespoons butter; cover and cook 20 minutes, stirring frequently. Season with salt and pepper. Six servings. We add ½ cup grated cheese to this toward the end of the cooking. Or sprinkle grated cheese over individual servings if served very hot.

September Menu Reminders

Enjoy corn on the cob while you may. Iced watermelon is always welcome. Fried chicken is fine eating either hot or cold with cucumber sandwiches. Now is time for blueberry muffins, peach shortcake, berry pies.

Grange Notes

Upper Applegate

The Upper Applegate Grange met in regular session Friday evening, Aug. 23. The speakers, Bill Jess, chairman of the Rogue River Flood Control and Water Resources associates, gave an interesting and informative talk which was followed by a discussion.

The association was formed for the purpose of completing the army engineers' survey which was delayed by World Wars I and II. A water resources board has been organized in Jackson county which consists of 10 committees and which will give a report in October.

All Applegate residents interested are urged to contact a committee in regard to a site for the Applegate river dam. The three problems to be considered are:

1. The value of the water to the community.
2. The topography of the country to be considered.
3. The geological survey must be favorable.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ramsey served refreshments at the close of the Grange meeting.

Presidency Candidates To Appear at Meeting

Los Angeles—(AP)—Candidates for the Teamsters union presidency have been invited to appear before the union's Policy committee in Seattle Sept. 10 to state their positions.

The invitation came Thursday at the 11-state Western conference. The conference Policy committee and Executive board made the announcement at the close of a one-day meeting where the union's International Executive board had just completed a three-day policy-fixing session.

Both avowed candidates, James R. Hoffa and Thomas J. Hickey, are expected to accept the invitation.

Home Broken Into, Ashtrays Taken

Florence Markhan Graff, 133 White Oak dr., reported to police Wednesday that someone had forced entry to her house and taken a pair of ashtrays valued at $75.

Mrs. Graff said she had been on a vacation in Chicago and had left the house in charge of her son, Walter August Graff, route 2, box 414. Her son reported that he had found the doors to the house open several times when checking the house.

The thieves had first tried to force entry through two windows and failed. Entry was finally made through the back door. Police found pliers, left from a recent house painting, had been used in the break-in.

People Asked to Feed Zoo Animals

Chicago — (AP) — Brookfield Zoo Director Robert Bean today encouraged visitors to throw food to the animals — if the animals don't like it, they'll turn up their snouts at it.

Animals, unlike humans, are their own dieticians, he said. "They have a natural craving for things that are good for them."

Nor will wild beasts overeat, he said.

"Since this zoo opened in 1934, I've never known an animal to be sick because of eating too much food offered by the public," he said.

In issuing the general invitation to catapult peanuts, popcorn, and other comestibles to the animal population, Bean warned that there are exceptions to the rule.

Certain animals, especially younger ones, have special dietary requirements which the zoo handles itself and clearly marks their cages "do not feed this animal." Otherwise, Brookfield is the only major zoo in the country where spectators can develop their throwing arms.

Goodies from the sidelines also improve the animals' morale.

"It makes the animals sense that the people are interested in them," Bean said. "You can notice a change in the animals' attitude in the late fall when no one comes to feed them through the day."

T.B. RATE DOWN

London — (AP) — Some 6,492 persons died of tuberculosis in Britain in 1955, less than one-fourth the toll of the last pre-war year, the General Register Office announced Wednesday night. The disease still costs British industry 26 million man-days lost each year because of the fairly long period needed to recover from T.B.
