Nazarene Church Scene Of Wedding

Miss Suzanne Elaine Cox became the bride of David Eugene Eaton in a ceremony held Friday, August 23, in the First Church of the Nazarene. The Rev. Sherman Moore of the Pilgrim Holiness church officiated at the candlelight eight o'clock evening ceremony assisted by the Rev. C. Edwin Cox, father of the bride.

Pink and white gladioli decorated the church for the service and Miss Evangeline Deal, Salem, played the traditional organ wedding music. Mrs. Walter Lindell and Lee Mansfeld were soloists. An anniversary candle was at the altar which the bride and bridegroom lighted at the close of the service.

The bride is a daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Cox, 1541 Biddle road, Medford. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Ruth Groleau, 310 North Barneburg road, and Alfred D. Eaton, West Covina, Calif.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin and lace gown. Her fingertip length veil was trimmed with lace and fell from a seed pearl tiara. She carried white orchids encircled with Stephanotis on a white Bible.

Mrs. Clifford Shafer, Central Point, was honor attendant for her sister. Bridesmaids and bridesmaids were Mrs. Harry Snell, Merced, Calif.; Mrs. Clifford Hacker, El Monte, Calif.; and Miss Pat Medley, Hayward, Calif. They wore floor length frocks of embossed taffeta in pink and blue with matching headbands and carried pink or white carnations.

Little Deborah Kaye Shafer, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Candelights were Miss Joyce Bretz, Salem, and Miss Jessie Willard, Central Point. They all wore frocks of blue embossed taffeta. Steven Groleau served as Bible boy.

Clifford Shafer served as best man while Walter Thomas, El Monte; Frank Yeakum, Inglewood, Calif.; and Leon Stansfield, seated the guests.

The ceremony was attended by 250 relatives and friends. For her daughters wedding Mrs. Cox chose a pink lace dress with navy blue accessories. Mrs. Groleau wore a light blue lace dress with white accessories. They both wore corsages of pink and white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church annex which was attended by 150 guests. Ed Hayes decorated the church and annex for the ceremony and reception, and

Mrs. Dayton Varner was in charge of the reception. Miss Rebecca Storey, Salem, played the reception music.

Mrs. Robert Lull and Mrs. David Moore cut and served the wedding cake baked by Mrs.

Miss Isobel Carr Honored at Parties

Two recent parties have honored Miss Isobel Carr whose wedding to Philip G. Johnson Jr., of Oswego, Ore., is set for September 21.

Mrs. Hugh Coleman and her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Monroe, gave a brunch recently at Rogue Valley Country club. The party was a mother-daughter event, with 16 attending.

Mrs. Homer Marx and Mrs. C. Elwood Hedberg were hostesses for a luncheon at the former's home on Kings highway. Decorations were in shades of pink and white. Twenty guests attended and presented Miss Carr a shower of gifts for her new home.

The bride-elect is a daughter of the Fred Carrs, Florence avenue.

Donna Rohlfing Becomes Bride of Sergeant Wood

Talent—Of interest here is news of the wedding of Miss Donna Mae Rohlfing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don O. Rohlfing, Portland, to Staff Sgt. Bradley Gordon Wood, Talent. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Wood, Route 1, Box 206, Talent.

The ceremony was held Sunday, August 25, in Rose City Park Methodist church, Portland, with Dr. Roy A. Fedje officiating. Mr. Rohlfing gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride wore a gown of tulle and lace over taffeta and her elbow length illusion veil was held by a tiara of seed pearls. Her bouquet was of gladioli and pink rose buds on a white Bible. Miss Dorothy Rohlfing was her sister's only attendant. She wore a frock of peacock blue silk and carried pink carnations and white snapdragons in a spray.

George Franklin was best man for Sergeant Wood. Forrest Waddell seated the guests. The reception which followed in the church parlor was attended by 50 guests.

Sergeant Wood is assigned to duty at the Portland Air Force base and the newlyweds will live in that city.

Newlyweds Arrive Here After California Rites

Ensign and Mrs. William Middleton McAllister are visiting in Medford this weekend following their wedding in San Diego, Calif., Friday, August 23. Ensign McAllister participated in the Southern Oregon Golf Tournament.

The bride is the former Miss Artha Linda Barbour, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Richard Barbour, of La Mesa, Calif. The bridegroom is a son of Justice and Mrs. William Menzies McAllister of Salem, formerly of Medford.

First Presbyterian church in San Diego was the setting for the 7:30 o'clock evening ceremony with the Rev. Orno E. Tyler, grandfather of the bride, officiating. Peach and yellow gladioli and carnations and ferns decorated the church for the wedding. Mrs. Kenneth Grant was soloist and Miss Ethel Widener Kennedy played the traditional organ wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of lace over satin fashioned with fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. Her fingertip length veil was held by a circlet of Venetian handmade lace, and she carried a cascade bouquet of orchids and Stephanotis.

Miss Ellen Barbour was honor attendant for her sister. She wore a dress of yellow chiffon over peach satin and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow carnations and yellow roses.

Miss Mary Barbour, sister of the bride, and Miss Carol Donohue, Miss Susan Sellman and Miss Carole Fuller were the bridesmaids. All wore yellow satin frocks and carried colonial bouquets of peach carnations and yellow roses.

Jack Landaw, Harvard classmate of the bridegroom from New Rochelle, N.Y., was best man. The ushers were Lt. Mel Peterson, Lt. (jg) Martin Corcoran, Lt. (jg) Marc Twinnay, and Ens. Brad Stark.

For her daughters wedding, Mrs. Barbour wore a light blue chiffon dress with corsage of white orchids. Mrs. McAllister chose a taupe chiffon dress and corsage of white orchids.

The reception following was in the church patio. Miss Aldine Harvey cut the cake. Pouring were Mrs. Robinson Briggs, Mrs. Raymond Shrekraft and Mrs. Edward F. Anthony; and assisting were Mrs. Harry Osborn, Mrs. Harla High, Mrs. Wendell Kirk, three cousins of the bride, Misses Margaret and Patricia Shaw and Miss Katherine Ryder; and Miss Elsie Chan, Miss Valerie Shukraft, Miss Marian Bossart, Miss Julie Anthony, Miss Roberta Fink, Miss Elaine Smith, Miss Janet Williams and Miss Joyce Smith.

For traveling the bride wore a beige wool crepe suit with white accessories and corsage of white orchids. Following a trip along the coast to San Francisco, and to Medford and Salem, the couple will be at home in San Diego.

The bride attended San Diego State college where she is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. Ensign McAllister is a graduate of Medford High school and of Harvard university where he was a member of Pi Eta Pi. He is now serving with the United States Navy aboard the USS Kidd.

Among the wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Staples formerly of Medford and now of Upland, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Busch, brother-in-law and sister of Justice McAllister,
