

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Greenleaf Cowley

Couple Wed In Portland; Live Here

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Greenleaf Cowley are making their home at 430 North Grape street, Medford, following their wedding Saturday, August 24, in Central Presbyterian church, Portland.

The bride is the former Miss Marie Bessie Callahan, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Callahan, Fairview, N.D. She has been making her home in Portland. The bridegroom is a son of the late Mrs. R. G. Cowley.

The Rev. Ralph Bolin officiated at the eight o'clock evening candlelight double-ring ceremony attended by 50 relatives and friends. Miss Marjory Hafer was soloist.

The bride wore a white lace and net gown and carried an orchid on a white Bible. She was given in marriage by Alfred Bolster, brother-in-law, from Seattle.

Mrs. Alfred Bolster was honor attendant for her sister and bridesmaid was Miss Gwen Howell. They wore pink and yellow taffeta frocks and carried bouquets of gladioli.

Gilbert LeBaron Duffy of Seattle served as best man while Gerald William Greenleaf, Seattle, and David Greenleaf, Hoquiam, Wash., cousins of the bridegroom, seated the guests.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors.

For her traveling attire the bride chose a gray suit with avocado colored accessories.

Prior to her wedding the bride was employed as a telephone operator by the Bell Telephone company in Portland. The bridegroom is a graduate of the University of Washington and is a reporter on the staff of the Mail Tribune.

Senator to Speak For Club Session

State Senator Philip Lowry will be the speaker when Jackson County Republican Women's club holds its first fall luncheon meeting Monday, September 16, at Rogue Valley Country club. This will be one of the few meetings held by the organization which men of the valley are invited to attend.

Plans for the event were made by the group's executive committee on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. C. B. Francis.

Reservations may be made by calling the country club.

Guests Here

Guests for the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Mansfield, 1615 Crater Lake avenue, are Mr. Mansfield's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Millette of Albany, Calif. and a cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Orville D. Millette, Orinda, Calif.

Touch of Cutwork

Beauty Mark . . . one manufacturer of beauty parlor taffeta announced it will make chairs to match hair colors. New chair colors will include purple and pink, to blend with mauve and magenta hair shades.

The Labor day holiday will be the last major "lost week end" of the summer for children.

About 4,000 will be misplaced at beaches and resorts, reports a dairy chain which runs an ice cream pacifying program for the strays.

The firm, Dairy Queen, sends letters of credit, redeemable in cones at any of its stores, to every police precinct. Police disburse the cones while trying to locate owners of the lost children. Last year, first year of the program, some 20,000 children cashed in.

Heine Drum Corps To Play Wednesday For Townsend Club

Townsend club and auxiliary will hear an hour of musical entertainment by Bliss Heine's Junior Band and Drum corps at the meeting Wednesday, September 4. The program will begin at 3 p.m. following a business session.

At last week's club meeting Mrs. Thornton, Arnold club chairman, read an article from the Washington D.C. "News Flash" that gave interesting material on modern trends of industry.

Twenty seven club members and one visitor were present. Four club members having August birthdays were honored during luncheon. The meeting adjourned with readings, a penny march followed by piano and violin music.

Visitors are always welcome.
