

Braves Celebrating Return Of Joe Adcock, John Logan For Final Drive For Pennant

By UNITED PRESS
For the mathematical-minded, the "magic number" has dropped to 16 for the New York Yankees today and remained at 15 for the Milwaukee Braves.

If the Yankees win 16 of their remaining 19 games, they will clinch the American league pennant even if the White Sox win all their remaining games.

And the Braves can clinch the National league flag by winning 15 of their remaining 21 games even if the Cardinals win all the rest of their games.

The St. Louis Cardinals

climbed within 6½ games of Milwaukee today but the Braves seemed perfectly content to let them have their day in the sun now that Joe Adcock and John Logan are back in action again, apparently ready for the final pennant drive.

Brushing off Thursday night's 10-1 defeat at the hands of the still-hopeful Cardinals, the Braves preferred to dwell instead on the fact that Adcock and Logan will be available for duty during a comforting 12-game home stand which begins against the last place Cubs tonight.

Adcock, the big first baseman who suffered a broken ankle on June 23, made his first appearance for the Braves since then Thursday night as a pinch hitter and although he grounded out, he indicated to manager Fred Haney he is ready to play.

Logan Plays Short
Logan sidelined since Aug. 16th with a leg injury, filled in at shortstop in the late innings and also signified he can take his usual place in the regular lineup.

Those two encouraging signs took a lot of the sting out of the four-hitter Sam (Toot) Hickup Jones threw at the Braves Thursday night. Hobie Landrith and Alvin Dark each drove in three runs for the Cards while Del Ennis clouted his 19th homer with one on. Lew Burdett was the loser.

Brooklyn defeated the Phillies, 3-1, the Pirates licked the Giants, 4-2, and Cincinnati beat the Cubs, 4-1.

The Yankees increased their American League lead to 5½ games with a 5-2 victory over the Red Sox while the Senators shut out the Orioles, 3-0, in the only other game scheduled.

Roberts Drops 19th
Rube Walker put the Dodgers ahead to stay with a two-run double in the second inning off Robin Roberts, who dropped his 19th game. Carl Erskin, the winner, limited the Phils to one hit until the eighth when he tired and gave way to Ed Roebuck, who nailed down the victory.

Rookie Wammy Douglas of the Pirates posted his third victory although Roy Face was summoned from the bullpen to register the final out. Al Worthington started for the Giants, yielded Pittsburgh's first two runs and was charged with the loss.

Brooks Lawrence of the Red-legs held the Cubs to seven hits in gaining his 14th win. Don Hoak doubled for two runs off rookie Dick Drott in the second inning and Frank Robinson connected for his 24th homer in the third with the bases empty.

Grim Belts Homer
Relief pitcher Bob Grim of the Yankees won his own game when he hit a three-run homer in the ninth inning off Willard Nixon of the Red Sox. It was the first hit of the season for Grim and the second homer of his big league career.

Jackie Jensen gave Boston a 2-0 lead with a two-run homer off starter Bob Turley in the fourth and Nixon held that margin until the eighth when Gil McDougald tied the score with a bases-loaded single. The victory was Grim's 12th of the year.

Southpaw Chuch Stobbs held Baltimore to three hits and Roy Sievers blasted his 35th homer with one to pace Washington to victory. Sievers' homer put him one ahead of Mickey Mantle of the Yankees in that department.

HITTING THE DIRT and narrowly missed by a bean ball thrown by Chicago's Dick Littlefield is Milwaukee's left-fielder, Covington. Milwaukee shut out the Cubs at Chicago, 8-0, in their pennant drive. (International)

Ring Commission Rejects Moyer Plea For Relief

Portland—Tommy Moyer, Portland promoter, told the Thursday night boxing commission that he lost $8,000 on the recent outdoor fight between Pat McMurtry and Bobo Olson at Portland Meadows.

But the commission rejected his request to authorize use of commission funds to pay referees and ringside physicians for an upcoming series of Tuesday night "talent shows."

Moyer made the request in an effort, he said, to get some financial relief. He told the commissioners that he had lost some $12,000 in his boxing promotions in Portland and added that he did not expect to make any money from the Tuesday night shows. He said he was promoting the weekly shows as a means of developing young boxers in the Portland area.

The commission gave formal approval to the weekly talent shows and also to the Eddie Machen-Eduardo Romero heavyweight fight slated for the Portland Civic Auditorium Sept. 18, under Moyer's promotion.

Davis Cup Team To Be Selected

Forest Hills, N.Y.—The U.S. Davis Cup team was to be named today with Vic Seixas of Philadelphia the only player certain of a berth when the selection committee goes into its huddle.

Chauncey Steele, chairman of the committee which will select the squad for this year's jaunt to Australia, said Thursday night the 34-year-old Seixas was certain to be on the team.

Maglie Has Starter Call

New York—A 40-year-old "rookie" named Sal Maglie gets the call tonight to give the New York Yankees hard-pressed pitching staff a rest that Manager Casey Stengel says is "badly needed."

"I don't know yet how much help Sal can give us," said Stengel after last Sunday that Maglie, purchased last season from the Brooklyn Dodgers for $30,000 and two minor-league players, will be given his first chance as a Yankee starting pitcher to-night against the Senators in Washington.

"But I do know this—this fellow knows how to pitch," Stengel pointed out. "And my staff needs a little rest. Bob Turley has been pitchin' the best for me lately, and my relief man, Bob Grim, is great when he has a little rest once in a while. But even Grim needs some rest now."

Eugene Nabs Lead in NW Title Series

Eugene — Bailey Brem yielded three runs in the first inning but regained control in the second to hold Wenatchee scoreless the rest of the route here Thursday night for a 4-3 Northwest league decision.

The win left the best-of-seven series for the league title at 2-1 for the Emeralds. Action now switches to Wenatchee tonight for the remaining games.

Brem struck out 14 in picking up his fifth win against two losses. Some 2402 fans were on hand for Thursday night's game, swelling total attendance for the series so far to 5,000.

Army Will Play Tulane Tussle

Washington—The U. S. Military Academy apparently will go through with its Nov. 16 football game with Tulane at New Orleans but is has pulled its "baggage train" out of a Pennsylvania congressman's line of fire.

Rep. James G. Fulton asked President Eisenhower Wednesday to have Army cancel the game because of Louisiana's racial segregation laws.

The Army announced Tuesday that the West Point band and Corps of Cadets—the big attraction at all games involving the academy team—would attend the game, if transportation could be arranged.

Thursday an Army spokesman said:

"It has now been decided, due to the fact that transportation arrangements cannot be worked out, neither the U.S. Military Academy band nor the Corps of Cadets will go to the game."
