

Among Portland players entered in the annual Labor day tournament at Rogue Valley Country club were Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Sullivan (at left) of Columbia - Edgewater Country club. Mrs. Sullivan won the second flight play in the women's division. The Sullivans are shown here with Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Templeton, Medford, during the cocktail hour which preceded the awards dinner Monday night at the clubhouse. The visitors both praised tournament officials for the manner in which the event had been handled, and spoke of the outstanding friendliness and hospitality shown them by Rogue Valley Country club members.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Fox of Riverside Country club, Portland, are pictured with the trophy which Dr. Fox won as runner-up in the senior division of the annual Southern Oregon golf tournament last week end at Rogue Valley Country club. Dr. and Mrs. Fox remained at the clubhouse following the close of the tournament and attended the annual awards dinner Monday evening.

League Board Outlines Plans For Coming General Meetings

The coming general meeting of the Medford League of Women Voters was discussed Wednesday evening at a meeting of the League board at the home of Mrs. Dunbar Carpenter.

A panel discussion of water resources and conservation will be given at the general meeting planned for September 28. Mrs. Ogden Kellogg, chairman for the national study item on water conservation, is in charge.

Mrs. Virginia Sherwood, Mrs. G. R. Ringo and Miss Helen Webster presented material concerning the League's national study item on individual liberties which will be used for the general meeting in October and the November study units.

Mrs. Richard Pedley, membership chairman, reported on her committee's activities.

A report on the "continuing responsibilities" of the National League of Women Voters was given by Mrs. Fred T. Burich. She explained the positions on national issues to which the league has given sustained attention and on which it may continue to act.

They included United States support of the United Nations and its specialized agencies; U.S. support of measures designed to keep peace through the U.N. and regional defense arrangements; U.S. support of measures to promote international economic development; opposition to constitutional changes that

Valley Students Leave for School

Students of the valley are beginning the fall trek to schools and colleges throughout the nation.

Miss Melinda Beall will leave September 10 for New York where she will enroll at Barnard college for her junior year. Miss Beall, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Beall, 923 Murray street, has attended the University of California for the past two years.

Miss Sue Ann Rutherford will enroll September 9 at Dominican convent in San Rafael, Calif. Miss Rutherford, who makes her home with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Boyle, Ross lane, will be a high school sophomore and will enroll in special music classes. Mr. and Mrs. Boyle are accompanying their granddaughter to California.

Family Arrives From California

Company Names Contest Winners

Miss Romelle Fossen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Fossen, won top honors in the senior division, and Miss Barbara Whalin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald B. Whalin, in the junior division, in the first round of the Singer teenage dressmaking contest held in Medford.

The fashion show and judging were held at the Singer Sewing Center, 318 East Main street, with 30 girls participating. They were all members of sewing classes held at the center this summer. The winners received fitted scissors sets.

Miss Fossen and Miss Whalin now qualify for the regional judging in Seattle, Wash.

Miss Fossen won her prize with a blue gray print frock with contrast cummerbund while Miss Whalin's entry was a black red cotton frock trimmed with red.

Families and friends of the girls attended the fashion show and judging last week. Judges were Mrs. Perry Strom, 4-H leader; Mrs. Robert Rukovina, former 4-H leader; and Mrs. Don Weatherford, home economics teacher at McLoughlin Junior High school.

doc, September 14. General chairman for the tea is Mrs. John Strong, hospitality chairman for the year. Hours will be from three to five o'clock.

Assisting Mrs. Strong are all members of the executive board, who give this tea to honor women university and college graduates in the valley, especially newcomers, who are prospective members. Also invited are women interested in joining a study group, since all AAUW study groups are open to women not eligible for full membership. Any college graduate interested in attending the tea is asked to contact Mrs. Harry Chipman, vice-president in charge of membership, SP 2-2974 or Mrs. George Johns, recent graduates chairman, NO 4-2688.

Mrs. Roy Elmgren, vice-president in charge of study groups, will be present to give information and take registrations for all study groups sponsored by AAUW. Anyone interested in joining a study group is asked to contact Mrs. Elmgren at the tea or call her at SP 3-2658. The study groups this year will be afternoon arts, applied arts, afternoon book review, international relations, great decisions and music.

In the receiving line will be Mrs. A. J. Johansson, president; Mrs. Harry Chipman, first vice-president; Mrs. Roy Elmgren, second vice-president; Mrs. Lester Stinson, secretary, and Mrs. John Carnegie, treasurer.

MOVING Specialists

"I'm sorry lady but I can't unload your goods until you pay me the full amount by certified check or in cash." But the salesman told me it would be $100.00 less than you are asking. The banks are closed and I don't have that much extra cash here."

That lady did not receive her furniture until the following day when she could go to the bank, causing extra expense and delay. No carrier will unload until he has received the full amount of the charges.

This situation can be traced directly to the salesman, who through dishonest means beat out the competition by misleading the lady on the weight of her goods on which charges are assessed.

That is why it is so important to know the person or the reputation of the company whom he represents when you are planning to move.

BEKINS boasts 77% repeat moves. No other carrier can make that statement. A move by BEKINS will be the BEST MOVE OF YOUR LIFE!
